

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

Pen

1st - 1st
2nd - 2nd

31-a

Sir William Molesworth.

CO. BRARY.

eat

Digitized by Google

Floreat

A N ACCOUNT
Of the STATE of the Roman-Catholick RELIGION
Throughout the WORLD.

Written for the Use of Pope INNOCENT XI.
by Monsignor Corri, Secretary of the Congregation de propaganda Fide. Now first translated from an Authentick Italian MS. never publish'd.

To which is added,

A DISCOURSE concerning the State of RELIGION in ENGLAND. Written in French, in the Time of K. Charles I. and now first translated.

W I T H

A Large Dedication to the Present POPE; giving Him a very particular Account of the State of Religion amongst PROTESTANTS; and of several other Matters of Importance relating to Great-Britain.

B Y

Sir RICHARD STEELE.

L O N D O N :

Printed for J. ROBERTS, near the Oxford-Arms
in Warwick-Lane. MDCCXV.

1871

ACCOUNT

OF THE STATE OF

NEW-YORK

Throughout the Year

Written for the Use of the by Mr. J. C. ... of the ...
from the ... Now ...
It is an ... never ...

To ...

... the State of ...
... in ...
... now ...

...
...
...

1871

ST. ...

...
...
...

TO HIS HOLINESS

CLEMENT XI.

YOUR HOLINESS will be surprised at so uncommon a Thing, as an Address of this Nature, from one, who is, in your Account, and in the Language of your Church, a Schismatick, Heretick, and Infidel. But as I think it my Duty to make this publick Restitution of the following Treatise, which I acknowledge my self to have clandestinely procured: so I will restore it fourfold, with all possible Advantage to You, and Your Church. I find that all the Infallibility, with which your Holiness is illuminated, doth not disdain the Help of Human Information; and that your Accounts of the Religious, as well as Civil, State of this Kingdom, are in a particular manner defective: And therefore I have resolved to act the Part of a Generous Adversary, and without Reserve to lay before you, out of the Fulness of my Heart, such Things, as will give you a Juster Information of the State We of these Nations are in, than any of your Predecessors in the Holy See ever enjoy'd; and this, without any further Ceremony, just in the Order in which they shall arise in my own Mind.

Your Holiness is not perhaps aware, how near the Churches of Us Protestants have at length come to those Privileges and Perfections, which You boast of, as peculiar to your own. So near, that many of the most Quick-sighted and Sagacious Persons, have not been able to discover any other Difference between us, as to the Main Principle of all Doctrine, Government, Worship, and Discipline, but this one, viz. That You cannot Err in any thing You determine, and We never do. That is, in other Words, that You are Infallible, and We always in the Right.

We

We cannot but esteem the Advantage to be exceedingly on our Side, in this Case, because We have all the Benefits of Infallibility, without the Absurdity of pretending to it; and without the uneasy Task of Maintaining a Point so shocking to the Understanding of Mankind. And You must pardon Us; if We cannot help thinking it to be as Great and as Glorious a Privilege in Us, to be always in the Right, without the Pretence to Infallibility, as it can be in You, to be always in the Wrong, with it.

Thus the Synod of Dort, (for whose Unerring Decisions, Publick Thanks to Almighty God are every three Years, offer'd up with the greatest Solemnity, by the Magistrates in that Country;) the Councils of the Reformed in France; the Assembly of the Kirk of Scotland; and, (if I may presume to name it) the Convocation of England, have been all found to have the very same Unquestionable Authority, which your Church claims solely upon the Infallibility which resides in it; and the People, ple, to be under the very same strict Obligation of Obedience to their Determinations, which, with ~~the~~, is the Consequence only of an Absolute Infallibility. The Reason therefore, why We do not openly set up an Infallibility, is because We can do without it. Authority results as well from Power, as from Right; and a Majority of Votes, is as strong a Foundation for it, as Infallibility it self. Councils that may err, never ~~do~~. And besides, being composed of Men, whose petular Business it is to be in the Right, it is very immodest for any private Person to think them not so; because this is to set up a private corrupted Understanding, above a publick uncorrupted Judgment.

Thus it is in the North, as well as the South; Abroad, as well as at Home. All maintain the Exercise of the same Authority in themselves; which yet they know not how so much as to speak of, without Ridicule, in others.

In
 8 A Digitized by Google

In England, it stands thus. The Synod of Dort is of no Weight; It determin'd many Doctrines wrong. The Assembly of Scotland hath nothing of a true Authority, and is very much out in its Scheme of Doctrines, Worship, and Government. But the Church of England is vested with all Authority, and justly challengeth all Obedience.

If one crosses a River in the North, there it stands thus. The Church of England is not enough reformed; Its Doctrines, Worship, and Government, have too much of Antichristian Rome in them. But the Kirk of Scotland hath a Divine Right, from its only Head, Christ Jesus, to Meet, and to Enact, what so it shall seem fit, for the Good of his Church.

Thus, We left You, for your Enormous, Unjustifiable, Claim to an Unerring Spirit, and have found out a Way, unknown to Your Holiness and your Predecessors, of Claiming all the Rights that belong to Infallibility, even whilst we disclaim, and abjure the Thing it self.

As for Us of the Church of England, if we will believe many of its greatest Advocates, we have Bishops in a Succession as certainly uninterrupted from the Apostles, as your Church could communicate it to Us. And upon this Bottom, which makes Us a True Church, We have a Right to Separate from You; but no Persons living have any Right to Differ, or Separate, from Us. And they again, who differ from us, value themselves upon something or other, in which we are supposed defective; or upon being free from some Superfluities which we enjoy; and think it hard, that any will be still going farther, and refine upon their Scheme of Worship and Discipline.

Thus We have indeed left You; but we have fix'd our selves in your Seat: and make no Scruple to resemble you, in our Defences of our selves, and Censures of others, whenever we think it proper.

We

We have all sufficiently felt the load of the two Topicks of Heresy and Schisme. We have been Persecuted, Hang'd, Burnt, Massacred, (as your Holiness well knows) for Hereticks and Schismatics. But all this hath not made us sick of those two Words. We can still throw them about us, and play them off, upon others, as plentifully and as fiercely, as they are dispensed to us from your Quarter. It often puts me in mind; (your Holiness must allow me to be a little ludicrous, if you admit me to your Conversation;) It often, I say, puts me in mind of a Play which I have seen amongst some merry People: A Man strikes his next Neighbour with all his Force, and he, instead of returning it to the Man who gave it, communicates it with equal Zeal and Strength to another; and this to another; and so it circulates till it returns perhaps to him who set the Sport a-going. Thus your Holiness begins the Attack. You call Us Hereticks and Schismatics.

Schismatics, and Burn and Destroy Us, as such. Tho' God knows there is no more Right any where to use Hereticks or Schismatics bar-barously, than those who Think and Speak as their Superiors bid them. But so it is, You thunder out the Sentence against Us. We think it ill Manners to give You back again; but we throw it out upon the next Brethren that come in our way; and they upon others:
 And so it goes round, till some perhaps have Sense and Courage enough to throw it back upon those who first began the Disturbance, by pretending to Authority where there can be none.

We have not indeed now the Power of Burning Hereticks, as our Forefathers of the Reformation had. The Civil Power hath taken away the Act, which continued that Glorious Privilege to them, upon the Remonstrance of several Persons, that they could not sleep;
 whilst that Act was awake. But then, every thing on this side Death, still remains untouched, to us: We can Molest,

Molest, Harass, Imprison, and Ruin, any Man who pretends to be wiser than his Betters. And the more unsounded the Man's Character is, the more necessary we think it to take such opposing Methods. Since the Toleration hath been Authoriz'd in these Nations, the Legal Zeal of Men hath fallen the heavier upon Hereticks; (for it must all ways, it seems, be exercis'd upon some sort of Persons, or other;) and amongst these, chiefly upon such as differ from us in Points, in which, above all others, a Difference of Opinion is most allowable: Such as are acknowledged to be very abstruse and unintelligible; and to have been in all Ages thought of, and judg'd of, with the same Difference and Variety.

Sometimes We of the Established Church can manage a Prosecution, (for I must not call it a Persecution) ourselves, without calling in any other Help. But I must do the Dissenting Protestants the Justice to say, that they have shewn themselves, upon occasion, very very ready to Assist us in so Pious and Christian a Work; as bringing Hereticks to their Right Mind: Being themselves but very lately come from Experiencing the Convincing and Enlightning Faculty, of a Dungeon, or a Fine. The Difference between these Two sorts of Persons is this. The One Differ from us about Ceremonies of Worship and Government; but they boggle not at all at the Doctrine settled for us by our first Reformers: It is all with them right and good, just as Christ left it at first; and Calvin found it, above fifteen hundred Years afterwards. The others, unhappy Men, look upon this, to be straining at a Gnat, and swallowing a Camel. However, the former sort having a Toleration for their own Way, upon Subscribing all our Doctrines, can the more easily come to perswade themselves, that the Christian World is Unhinged, if the latter should be Tolerated in their Opposition to Doctrines which have been called Fundamentals, als, even by Protestants, for so many Years.

This hath been Experienced particularly in Ireland, by One who could not see exactly what they saw, about the Nature of Christ before his Appearance in this World. For, as with Tom, a Man had better blaspheme Almighty God, than not Magnifie the Blessed Virgin; so, with many of us, it is much more innocent and less hazardous, to take from the Glory of the Father, than of his Son. Nay, to bring down the Father to a level with his own Son, is a commendable Work; and the applauded Labour of many learned Men of Leisure: But to place the Son below his own Father, in any Degree of real Perfection, this is an unpardonable Error; so unpardonable, that all Hands were united against that unhappy Man. And he found at length, that he had much better have violated all God's Commandments, than have interpreted some Passages of Scripture differently from his Brethren. The Nonconformists

~~was~~ Accused him; the Conferents
 Condemned him; the Secular Power ~~was called in~~; and the Cause ended in imprisonment, and a very great Fine.
 Two Methods of Conviction, about which the Gospel is silent! To ~~submit~~ ~~and drive as yet~~ bloody ~~the~~ in ~~son~~
~~of~~ him ~~Scotland~~; let a Man depart an Heretic from the Profession of Faith, and Rule of Worship, established by the Assembly there; and he will quickly find himself as cold a Country as it is; now will be too hot for him to live in, no Infants are baptiz'd there; not only into the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, but into the Pure Doctrine, profess'd and settled by the Church of Scotland. To suppose therefore, any Point of Doctrine to be Erroneous, or so much as a Subject for a New Examination, in so Unspotted a Church, is a Token of Malignity and Infidelity; and the Man who doth it, must be content to escape out of their Hands as well as he can.

In

In England, it is not all the other Excellencies in the World, united in one Man, that can guard him against the fatal Consequences of Heresy, or differing, in some Opinions, from the Current Notions of our World; especially if those Opinions are such as are allowed to be Mysterious and inexplicable. We have now an Instance of One, or Two, Learned and otherwise Good Men, who have thought it their Duty, (as they themselves say) to step aside out of the common Path. And what their Fate will be, Time must shew. At present, the Zeal (as it is called) of their Adversaries prevails. The Fire is kindled, and how far it will consume, or where it will stop, God only knows. But the Case of One of them (which will give Yours Holiness some Notion how we stand affected) is very remarkable. For, not to mention his Good Life, (which is look'd upon but as a Trifle, common to almost all Modern Hereticks,) tho' tho' his Religion is mix'd up with a good deal of Kalendar and Rubrical Piety ; tho' He hath his Stated Fasts and Feasts, which He observes with the greatest Devotion ; tho' He is Zealous for Building of Churches in the Apostolical Form of a Ship, with all Accommodations for Order and Decency ; tho' he is for the Use of Oyl, and the Trine Immerſion in Baptiſm, and for Water mix'd with Wine, in the other Sacrament ; tho' he is very warm for Believing in Chriſt towards the East, and Renouncing the Devil towards the West ; tho' He hath laid them a Foundation for Independent Church-Pow- er, in the Decrees of the Apoſtles themſelves ; nay, tho' He joins with them in beating down Human Reason, when it would pretend to judge in Matters of Religion ; and reſigns to them all the Preferments in the Land, from Dover to Berwick upon Tweed ; Yet all will not do. He holds the Son to be Inferior to the Father, and Created by Him, tho' a Being of moſt Glorious

ous Perfections : And upon this Account, He must not enjoy, even the Poverty which he hath chose, in quiet. And if this be His Case, what hath Another to expect, who hath not these Advantages on his Side : tho' he should be found armed with unspotted Integrity, and unequall'd Learning, and Judgment?

Your Holiness will judge from hence, how the Matter of Heresy stands amongst us : and how it must stand, unless my Lords the Bishops, who have with an unexampled Courage preserved our Liberties in Civil Matters, with equal Resolution step in ; and oppose that Spirit, which, from such Beginnings at first amongst you, proceeded farther and farther, till it broke out into Fire and Massacre, for God's Glory, and the Good of his Church.

And, as I observed before, that there was no need for your pretending to Infallibility ; That it is better taken in the World, and as easy, to establish

(a)

the

the same Authority without it ; so, here it will be obvious to those of your Church to observe, that there was no manner of Necessity upon them, to discard the Scriptures, as a Rule of Faith open to all Christians, and to set up the Church in Distinction to them : because they may see plainly now, that the same Feats are to be performed, and with more Decency, (tho' not with more Consistency, of which few are Judges,) without carrying Things to such Extremity. For, at the same time that we are warmly contending, against your Disputants, for the Right of the People to search and consider the Gospel themselves, it is but taking care, in some other of our Controversies, to fix it upon them, that they must not abuse this Right ; that they must not pretend to be wiser than their Superiours ; that they must take care to understand particular Texts, as the Church understands them ; and as their Guides, who have an Interpretative Authority, explain them.
an

This we find to be as effectual with many, as taking the Scriptures out of their Hands. And because it is done in this Gentlemanlike manner, and gives them an Opportunity of shewing their Humility, it passeth very smoothly off: without their considering once the Absurdity it leads to; that (as Doctors differ, and Councils too) this Method layeth a Necessity upon Two different Men; nay, upon the same Man in different Circumstances, to understand the same Text in Two different, and often in Two contradictory Senses.

And here again, with Submission, I think We greatly surpass You, in our Conduct. For We have the same Definitive Authority, which You have, without the Reproach of Depriving the Word of God; the People all the while being fully satisfy'd, that we allow the Scripture to be their Rule, and to lie open to them all. And We do indeed, in Words, preserve all Authority to the Scripture ; but with great Dexterity, We substitute, in Fact, our own Explanations, and Doctrines drawn from those Explanations, instead of it.

And then, One great Privilege We enjoy above You : that Every Particular Pastor amongst Us, is vested with the Plenary Authority of an Ambassador from God ; very much different from the Maxims of your Church.

For my own Part, I have always been an Advocate for all that Reverence and Regard, which can with any Justice be claimed by them ; and shall ever pay them all the Respect, which their Character and Conduct, compared together, can admit of. But the Demands of those who talk loudest amongst them, seem to increase upon us every day. For, upon Enquiry, I find, what I was not before acquainted with, that what was spoken to the Apostles, was spoken to every one of them ; that it is a Crime, not to attend tend to them, even without excepting the Case of Self-Contradiction, mutual Contradiction, and, (what is of much more Importance,) of Contradiction to all the Precepts of Peace and Love in the Gospel : That they are at length of an Angelick Order ; nay, that to despise them , (not excepting any Cases , in which Contempt is as Natural, as Hunger or Thirst,) is (if I may repeat it.) to despise God himself. And all this, because Fallible Men , in whom that Trust is reposed, have admitted them , according to the best of their Judgment, to Officiate in Holy Things.

Every one, who thinks of himself in this Light, needs no Infallibility, or Impeccability, to make him as Great as ever Your Holiness pretended to be. His Character will do, without those, or any one other Accomplishment.

These last Four or Five Years, our Pulpits have in a particular manner Echoed with the Sound of Dignity, Rule, Preeminence, and the like. These are indeed, amongst the Best and most Learned of our Divines, who disclaim all this; and disdain all Respect, but what results from the Sincerity of their Labours for the Good of Mankind. But the Noisy make most Noise every where; and few care to contradict them.

This Privilege I thought worth Recording, in the Account I am giving You of our Religious Affairs; because it is very considerable in it self, and seems to be of a growing Nature: It is a Point, which, when once carried thoroughly and universally, will make every single Presbyter, or Pastor, an Absolute Pope to his own Congregation.

And this alone is sufficient to convince You, that at present, notwithstanding any Intelligence You may have of their Good Inclinations towards You, they mean not You, but Themselves. They may be surprized indeed, at last, to find it all end to your Advantage: But I acquit them of the the Guilt of any such Design ; and indeed, of any other View, but that of Securing an Immoderate Respect to a Particular Set of themselves. Which I would not say, were it not too plain from hence, that, let a Presbyter, or a Bishop, or even an Archbishop, differ from them, in any Matter of Speculation, or of State ; they have shewn the World, by their Example, that all this pretended Veneration is to be turned, whenever the Signal is given, into Personal Contempt and Ignominy. So that to say and unsay ; to do and undo ; to declare absolutely, that the Profoundest Reverence is due to the Clergy, and at the same time to raise a Storm of Ill Treatment against any of their own Body who displease them ; and all the while to keep their Countenances, and look as if All was consistent ; is One Signal Privilege, which many amongst Us have to boast of.

It is very true, what Your Holiness may have been inform'd of ; That in many Instances, both of Doctrine and Ceremony, We have been, of late Years, rather drawing nearer to You, than departing farther from You.

It is a Common Maxim, and propagated very politickly by the Agents of your Church, with the Help of some of the Zealots of ours; Better be a Papist, than a Presbyterian. This being allowed by many Churchmen, and rightly managed amongst the Populace, exceedingly diminishes the Horror and Aversion, there used to be in our People against the very Name of Papery. And this works by insensible Degrees; till many a Man, who at first feels himself a Hearty Enemy to Papery, finding it to be allowed to be better than something else, of which he knows nothing, begins to think with more Patience about it; first, as not near so bad as it used to be represented; and then as an innocent Matter; and then as a very tolerable Religion; and at length, as better than any thing set up against it: And all by the Help of this General Principle, rightly managed; which takes

takes off the Edge of his former Passion for the Protestant Religion, and so by degrees reconciles his Thoughts to its contrary.

To the same Purpose tends the Revival of some Matters of Doctrine and Practice, of your sort, amongst Us. The Power vested in Priests, to absolve Men from their Sins, hath been declared by many, in such sort, as hath in effect made the Will of God himself to be determined by their Will, or even their Humour. It may be summ'd up in these Two Points: That Men can have no Hopes of a Pardon from God, but by Absolution from the Mouth of a Priest; and a Priest ordained to a Nicety, according to a particular Notion of Regularity: And that God must pardon those, whom a Priest pronounces to be pardoned. That is, that They are not so much obliged by Almighty God's Will, as Almighty God is, by Their's; and that God is never so much honoured, as when

Weak

Weak and Fallible Men are placed in his Throne.

Some have changed this Absurdity of an Authoritative Absolution, (which they see they cannot so easily defend,) into an Authoritative Intercession of the Priest, who is now become with Us, a Mediator between God and Man ; still Securing to Themselves, the same Power and Privilege, in a less scandalous manner. This creates the same Dependence of the Laity upon the Priests ; and shews again, how dextrous We are, in changing Words, when there is Occasion, without changing Things at all.

But Your Holiness will easily guess the Meaning of all this, when I let You know, that the same Persons declare, that Auricular Confession, and a particular Unburthening the Conscience of all its Secrets, must precede this great Benefit. And this, You well know, is an Engine of an unmeasurable Influence, that can rule Families, and overturn States, and govern the World.

Add

— Add to this, another Point, greatly contended for of late, and very much to your Advantage, in the Issue ; That all Baptisms, unless by Episcopal Priests, in a Regular Line from You, are declared Invalid, and of no Effect to institute Men in God's Peculium.

— We have indeed openly declared against Your Doctrine, of making the Sacraments depend upon the Intention of the Priest : But we are doing a much worse Thing, (if the Doctrine of some Men can prevail,) and that is, making them depend upon what neither Priest, nor Layman, can ever come to any Satisfaction about ; viz. the Episcopal Ordination of the Priest, in a Regular, Uninterrupted Line of Succession from Christ himself. This indeed sweeps whole Parishes away at once, which perhaps have had Preachers never ordained ; and unpeoples the Christian World without Mercy. But it is supposed, it must make the poor distressed Laitie adore the Men, who have this

this Privilege, of Entitling them to God's Favour, or Debarring them from it.

Yet with some, it may be turned another way; and They may begin to ask, If the Clergy of our Church, which received all through the Hands of the Romish, be vested with this Glorious Prerogative; how much more sure is it, in that Church which communicated it to Ours? If We are so positive, We had it from Them by whom We were ordained; and could not have it otherwise; how much more must it be in Them, who ordained Us?

After this, why should I mention, what must be known to You, the Zeal of many for the Multiplying of Ceremoniousness and Bowings; in Publick Worship; for the Cathedral Pronunciation of Prayers; (which is the Protestant Unknown Tongue, to such as are not accustomed to it;) our Altars, and the never-lighted Candles upon them; the Decorations of Our Churches, which, which, You have experienced, never stop where the Honest Men, who first begin them, design they should; the Consecration of our Church-Yards; and the like: In which You find this Benefit; that several, who take the Impression of these Things deep into them, are easily inclined, with a little Art and Management, to believe, that Church must be the best, which hath the greatest Number of these Good Things.

We have not indeed many Images, or Pictures, left in our Churches, besides Moses, and Aaron; whose Figures, tho' they have nothing to do in our Places of Worship, give me the less Concern, because Christians are in no Danger of Idolizing Jews.

But We have One very common, and very scandalous Representation, in multitudes of our Churches, which, in my Opinion, comprehends all possible Absurdities of That Sort: And that is, of the Trinity in Unity, figured in a Triangle, and generally inclosed fed in a Circle, over our Altars; as it is in the Pictures which are now become fashionable in our Common-Prayer-Books. This is justly esteemed the most inexplicable, and unintelligible, Mystery of Our Faith. And yet it is suffer'd, by those who so esteem it, to be set forth, even to Men's Eyes, by a Mathematical Figure; which always supposeth the clearest, and fullest Ideas possible. And the Eternal Father of all Things, is represented to Christians, as One-Side of an Equilateral Triangle. In this Point, I am almost ready to give up the Cause to You, and to own, that all your Crucifixes; and all the Figures of your Saints; (who were once Men and Women, and therefore representable,) put together, have not any Part of the monstrous Absurdity of this single Representation.

The Preaching, as it is called, of our Popular Men, (upon which we used to value our selves exceedingly,) is now come to that degree of Offence, that that in many Places, Persons of Sense and Seriousness, stay at Home, out of Piety, and absent themselves from our Assemblies, for fear of Hearing. For the Truth of what I affirm, I appeal to the Intelligence sent You by the Agents of Your Church, amongst us, who have, of late, been seen to take Notes from the Mouths of some of our followed Preachers. For my own part, I have imagined my self, sometimes to be at the late Negotiations at Utrecht, and to hear one of the French King's Plenipotentiaries setting forth the Glorious and Advantageous Terms of Peace, which his Master hath yielded to Us: Sometimes to be in the midst of Commissioners of Trade, hearing the Terms of our Commerce extolled to Heaven; sometimes at the Funeral of a late Princess, and my Ears filled with the sound of fulsom Panegyrick; sometimes in a Cabal of Male-content Jacobites, disburthening all their Spleen, as far as they dare, in Invective, and Satyr, and Insinuation, against the Late Revolution,

and

and their present Superiours; sometimes in one of the Meetings of some of our old Rigid Separatists, inveighing against their Bishops; sometimes in one of Your Holiness's Courts of Judicature, amidst the Thund'rings of Wrath and Damnation, denounced against all Hereticks and Schismaticks; in a word, sometimes at the Bear-Garden, and sometimes at Bedlam: But at last, I have roused my self up, and found my self, where I should least of all expect to hear, either such Subjects, or such Language,

About the end of January, and the beginning of February, we are, in a more than ordinary manner, called upon, to knock one another on the Head, because our Forefathers, (and particularly the Forefathers of many of our Modern High-Church-Champions) happen'd to be Great Villains, above sixty Years ago; And this is thought an Excellent Topick, to be insisted upon, from Generation to Generation: Nay, it is esteemed esteemed by many to be seasonable all the Year round.

But there is another Topick, which seems to be in great Repute again, at this time; and that is the Danger of the Poor Church: A Danger, which constantly is seen to increase, in exact proportion, as the Hopes and Interest of Your Holiness's Friends, in these Parts, decrease. So that, to know whether this Subject be in Fashion, no one need to enquire any thing, but how it stands with the Roman-Catholicks in England; whether They are pleased, or displeased. Some Advantage, I can assure You, Your Church reaps from it; that it hath created a nauseous Disgust, in many of the best Members of Our's; and hath furnished some of our Dissenters with this Reason against Uniting with Us, That they never will be of a Church, that is almost always in Danger.

One Thing more I must here mention; that the Church (I mean that Part of the Churchmen, I am speaking of) is now in full Possession of the Privilege of applying God's Judgments to their Neighbours: which our Forefathers so justly condemn'd, and took such Pains to ridicule, in the Worst of our Separatists.

(c)

in

Thus, the Death of our late Queen, is a Judgment upon a Nation, unworthy of so much Goodness; tho' some weak Fanaticks, on the other side, have shewed them, how easy it is for any to interpret Judgments in their own Favour, by observing that She died the very Day upon which the late Schism-Act, designed (as They think) to rob them of a Natural Right, took place.

After King Charles II.'s Restoration, the Fire, which destroyed the whole City, immediately following the Plague, which consumed vast Numbers of its Inhabitants, furnished Matter for this Humour. How easy was it found, to make these to be Great Judgments, upon Account of that very Restoration? Now, the same impious Humour, (which is the very Essence of Fanaticism, let it be in what Church it will,) can do, with a Thousand times smaller Matters. A Fire, not to be named with that ; a Mortality amongst our Cattle, which all Europe hath felt much more grievously : These are not only declared to be God's Judgments ; (as without doubt they are ;) but it is sufficiently and plainly insinuated, that they are Judgments, (not for their own Sins, their own private Enormities, or Publick Ingratitude to Heaven for their Security ; for they never think of themselves in this View ; but) for Something at Court, which should not be there : which all the World knows how to interpret.

Thus hath Fanaticism its Vicissitudes, like the other Things of this World : sometimes reigning in the Church, and sometimes out of it ; sometimes against it, and sometimes for it. And thus is it come to pass amongst Us, that Preaching their own Passions, and Indignation, and Resentment, under their disappointed Expectations, is called, by too many, Preaching the Gospel, and Delivering Messages from Heaven.

Your Holiness must not judge from hence, that this is Universal. I can assure You, We have Some still amongst Us, who truly deserve the Name of Preachers of the Gospel; some still left, of whom the World is not worthy; and of whom the World seems to think it self not worthy; For those, whom I have before described, are the Mighty Men of Popularity, that draw the Affections, and raise the Passions of the Multitude. This Disadvantage however They have, which Your Holiness's Agents, (who help to move the Machine,) would do well to put them in mind of; That the Times are changed; and that there is not now One at the Helm, who will either support them in their Exorbitances, or betray the Administration into their Hands.

I return now to other Subjects.

One Great Privilege We acknowledge there is, which You enjoy above Us; that Your Material Churches, as soon as they are consecrated to the Service of God, are exempt from all Human Power whatever. They become

come immediately the Refuge of the worst Part of Mankind ; they fling open their Doors to Robbers and Murderers ; and Cut-throats and Assassins feel their Salutary Influence, and find, within their Walls, Safety from Force, or Justice. In this Manner, and in this Sense , do You invite and receive Sinners into the Bosom of Christ's Church : And such a Charm is there in that Sacred Ground , that no Man can attack them in their Asylum, without being destroy'd by Your Thunder.

But then , to set against this, We have some Advantages of a like Nature, which You are not aware of.

I have known the Time, when the Figure of a Material Church , cut out in Pastboard, placed upon a long Stick so artfully, that it might seem to totter , and represent the Danger our Poor Church is in ; and carried, with an awful Air, before a Reverend Dignitary , at an Election for Parliament-Men ; hath been thought a Sovereign Remedy against its Enemies, and of Force enough to drive them headlong and spiritless out of the Field. Nay, I have known the very Word Church, or High-Church, pronounced with a loud Emphasis, and a proper Accent, and repeated a due Number of times; I have known it change the Countenances and Voices of a numberless Crowd, into something fierce, and horrid, more than what is human; blow up their Hearts, and swell all their Veins into a Sort of Phrenzy, (which they called Zeal, because it felt hot;) and have the very same Operation exactly upon them, and push them upon the very same Exploits, as if they had taken an Excessive Quantity of Wine, or Opium. At the same time, I have known the same Word, pronounced movingly, and tenderly, with the Eyes and Hands lifted up to Heaven, turn Falshoods into Truths; a Sinner into a Saint; and a Disturber of the Common Peace, into a Tutelar Deity.

These

These are Privileges, which I think it worth your while to be acquainted with. But there is One more Advantage, I will not omit : because We seem to depend very much upon it, and have already received much Good from it ; and You, as I am inform'd by Travellers, have nothing like it. And that is, ' That We never fail to ' remember our Church, in all our ' Cups ; to drink her Health ; and to ' allow her Prosperity a Liberal Share ' in all our Merriments. Thus We sanctify our Wine with our Zeal for the Church ; and the Wine returns the Civility, by keeping alive, and increasing, the Warmth of our Zeal.

This, many Persons esteem to be a Truer Characteristick of a Good Churchman, than even the Doctrine of Passive-Obedience it self : Because it is known, that many other Churches have espoused that Doctrine ; but no other Church in the World ever pretended to this Practice, but Ours. No wonder, if Your Holiness hears sometimes of Disadvantages, or Disappointments, in the Affairs of Your Church, when this Custom hath been so much neglected; or discouraged, amongst your People. And, if the Word Church, alone, hath been found to perform Wonders; what may we not expect from it, when it is made a Toast, and hath all the Strength and Warmth of Generous Wine added to it?

It is very entertaining, to observe, how the Authority of the Church; the Articles of the Church; the Liturgy of the Church; the Homilies of the Church; shall all be urged, by many of our Loudest Churchmen; and pleaded against others; whilst their Force shall be disallowed, and totally neglected, in Points disagreeable to Themselves.

The Authority of the Church is the Voice of God himself: But it is nothing to Them, if They happen to have Bishops, whom They dislike, or suspect.

The Articles of the Church are irresistible Arguments against Others; but They

They beg Leave to except two, or three, Unnecessary ones, which border too much upon Calvin, or press too hard upon Your Church.

The Publick Service is, beyond all Example, irreprehensible; but then Care must be taken to interpret the plainest Passages in it, by the most obscure; and particularly, that the Expressions of Scripture, and Ancient Creeds, be faithfully understood in the Sense of Modern Schoolmen.

And as for the Homilies, they are good, or bad; of undeniable Authority, or of none; just as They themselves please. Those against Rebellion, are particularly good against all Tumults, and Disorders, and Treasons, but their own; and are to be urged home against the Men whom they dislike. But those against Your Idolatry, and Antichristianism, and against many of Your Doctrines, I assure Your Holiness, are of no Account amongst the same Men, but as the warm, over-hasty, Efforts of Ignorant Zeal, in the first

first Reformers : not fit to be urged against any true Churchman, (any more than those of the Calvinistical Strain,) since the Time of Archbishop Land.

And all this passes smoothly, with Such as are under their Direction ; tho' it be so plain, one would think, to the most Ordinary Capacity, that all such Matters are fixed with Equal Infallibility ; that Authority is the same, when it is against Them, as when it is for Them ; and that either All Points of Human Decision are settled, so as to admit of no Dispute ; or that None are. There is no Medium. And unless this be allowed, without any empty Distinctions, where there is no Difference ; I believe, in Time, no Man of Sense will be able to see any Difference between Your Popery, and that of many amongst Us, but that Ours is Protestant Popery, and Yours is Popish Popery.

Learn-

Learning hath been deservedly look'd upon, in Polite Countries, as the great Support and Ornament of Human Life, and True Religion. But the State, in which it is now, amongst Us, is hardly to be described. It seems, as if not only Learning, but even Curiosity it self, and all Pretence to it, were vanishing from amongst Us. Our Education is, of late, fram'd to beat our Young Men into Faction, rather than to animate them into Learning; and Boys, as soon as they are taught any thing, are seen to be enter'd into Violence, and prepared for all the Impressions of a Party.

Our Universities have been deservedly styl'd Fountains of Literature. But I wish I could say, there were not Those in them, who industriously poison those Fountains; or, who employ all their Capacity and Credit, to make it become a more laudable Character, to be a Furious Zealot, than a Good Governour, or a Hard Student; and more

more Reputable Learning, to be thoroughly versed in the Half-Sheets, and Pamphlets, of Party-Scandal, than in all the Good Sense of the Best Authors of Antiquity. And I wish, I had not Occasion to add, that from hence it comes to pass, in Them, that Sound Learning, and Good Manners, and Industry in promoting these, are often seen to expose a Man to a Series of Discouragements, Opposition, and Ill-Treatment : whilst Party-Zeal shall recommend Persons, of whose Tempers, or Capacities, or Morals, I shall say nothing, to all the Regard, and Honour, that can be shewed them.

Your Holiness need not indeed, much fear any prodigious Advances farther, on our Part, towards Learning, or Truth : which, unless We have it already in our Possession, may lie eternally at the Bottom of the Well, for all that We are likely to do, to draw it up ; no Buckets being allowed to be let down for it, but what are stamped ; and no Ropes to be used, to let let them down , but what are of just such a Measure, and Strength. For by this means, how can it be, but that the Capacities, and Application, of the Greatest Souls, must be exceedingly cramp'd, and stinted, when the whole Method of Procedure is so exquisitely fitted, not to enlarge the Views and Enquiries of Men, but to determine the Mind to One certain Set of Thoughts , already fixed to the Truth ; and the Tongue to One certain Set of Sounds , for their Eternal Defence and Security ?

The Publick Exercises are not indeed exactly what they were, when the bare Word of Aristotle, or Aquinas , pass'd for Truth , as currently , as a Bank-Note passes for Money. But the Method they are in , is still the same in Quality, tho' not in Quantity : For tho' We have discarded many Particulars ; yet We retain , in the whole, much the same Forms and Modes, which You left with Us, at Parting, for the better Secu-

Securing of what We have not discarded.

We Dispute still, in a constant Round, as Tou, our Predecessours, used to do, De omni Ente, scibili, & non scibili. We have still the same Quoad hoc, and, Non quoad hoc; the same Quatenus, and, Non quatenus, which We inherited: and many other Auxiliary Words; of great Importance to refresh the Disputants, and to keep a Dispute going; but of none at all, towards the Discovering, or Recommending, any One single Truth to the World.

This Method may be called the Art of Wrangling, as long as the Moderator of the Dispute is at Leisure: and may well enough be supposed to be a Game at Learned Racket. The Question is the Ball of Contention: and He wins, who shews himself able to keep up the Ball longest. A Syllogism strikes it to the Respondent: and a Negation, or a Lucky Distinction, returns it back to

to the Opponent : and so, it flies over the Heads of those, who have Time to sit under it, till the Judge of the Game strikes it down, with Authority, into Rest and Silence.

This is the State of Things with Us; and that chiefly, in Cases, in which all Generations, and all Men, are equally concerned. What is Truth, is determined for Us, and settled before We are born, by Forefathers, and Superiours, in the Ages of Illuminated Understandings, and Unprejudiced Judgments. And our Learned Education doth not so much as pretend to be designed for farther Discoveries of Truth, in the most Important Matters : but is all framed to teach us the Art of Defending that which is already found out, and decree'd to be Truth, before our Time ; and the Great Duty of being thoroughly humbled into Contentment with what is already provided for us ; and into an Abhorrence of all Vain Thoughts of improving the Intel-

Intellectual Estate, left us by our Careful Ancestors. The Voice of Authority is this ; Hitherto shalt thou come, and no further.

After this manner is every Thing, in our Schools of Literature and Theology, established within unmoveable Limits. We have Established Questions, out of the Number of which, it is not allowed, to wander. And this creates a Round of Established Syllogisms, to carry on the Attack, and Established Distinctions, for the Defence. From hence it comes to pass, that even the Youngest Disputants are often heard, in their first Publick Exercises, to debate about God's Prescience, and Future Contingencies, in one fixed Method of Difficulties and Solutions ; and with full as much Learning, and as clear Light, as is to be found amongst the Labours of the Weightiest of the Scholastick Writers themselves.

But

But the Good Effect is much more visible, and much more remarkable, in the Theological Schools, where the Method is equally, in one Uniform, Unvaried, Course: and where, by that means, it is not quite so uncommon a Thing, as some Persons wish it were, to hear St. Athanasius's, or St. Austin's, Word go farther than an Apostle's; and an Idle Distinction, or Incomprehensible Definition, of one of your Schoolmen, decide a Difficulty, much more to Satisfaction, than a plain, intelligible, Expression, or Affirmation, of our Saviour's.

If it were in any degree better, either in the Established Universities of North-Britain, or in our Dissenting Academies, in the South, I would freely own it. But take my word for it, It is, of the two, rather worse. In the North, there being a Temporal Kingdom of Christ, as well as a Spiritual one, settled by Law; Ordination, and Prefements, are by consequence rigidly and inseparably tied to one certain Scheme of Opinions ; and this naturally Determines the Publick Education ; and makes the Rising Generation Conscientiously avoid the least Tendency to any Design of being wiser than their Forefathers.

(d)

and

And in the South, amongst our Non-conformists, it is much the same. The same Logicks, and the same Bodies of Theology, (as they are called) descend from Generation to Generation. The same Systems and Syllagisms, Definitions, and Distinctions, pass on current for Divinity : and Calvin and the Gospel go Hand in Hand ; as if there were not a Hair's Breadth to chuse between them.

There may be Exceptions : but this is generally the Case ; and the more unlikely soon to be otherwise, with Them, upon two Accounts ; first, because their Toleration is founded upon their mighty Boasts of adhering more strictly to the Doctrinal Articles of the Church,

Church, in the Sense of the First Reformers, than the Churchmen themselves; the Defence of which therefore, is pretty much left to them, to pride themselves in: And, secondly, because their very Catechisms are Systems of all the Deep Points, and Common Places, and Hard Words, in Divinity; by which means, their People being all Systematical Divines, keep them strictly to the Received Scheme; and raise very great Clamours, and very little Contributions, upon the least Deviation from what They have hitherto valued themselves upon understanding better than their Neighbours, and have been taught, from Children, to embrace as the very Essence, and Life of the Gospel.

To this Method of Literature, it is, that We owe (what is of the greatest Service to your Cause,) such a multitude of Writers, on all Sides; who, when they come abroad into the World, defend the Sublimest Points, (d 2) by

by the bare Repetition of Words ; to which (when they are pressed,) they are not ashamed to own, that they have no such Meaning, as they fix to them , upon any other single Occasion, in the whole Compass of speaking : that is, none at all.

And to this it is, that We owe, at length, the Blessed Discovery , and Candid Profession, that it is not fit that We should have any Meaning to our Words , when We speak about God, the Supreme Being , whom We are to Worship, in Spirit and Truth. A Profession, which , if it doth not turn to Your Holiness's Account, it is not their Fault, who own it, amongst Protestants.

The Three Great Impediments to any Advances towards a Reformation , in your Church, have been always found to be these ; A False Learning ; A Real Ignorance ; and , A System of Preferments, fixed and tied down to a particular System of Opinions, or Words.

The

The Two first often go together. There is often in the Uneducated, a Real Ignorance, without a False Learning : whereas, in the others, there cannot be a False Learning, without a Real Ignorance. But, both put together, would have little Effect against the Nature of Things, and the irresistible Force of Truth, without the last of the Three. Were it not for That, You would quickly find, that the Mask would drop from the Face of Things; and the Clouds, which False Learning had wrapt about the most Important Points, would be dissipated, and leave Truth, in its Lovely Simplicity, naked, and open to every Honest Eye.

But Your Security, You find, lies in the last. Whilst the Church, and the World, are so closely, and vitally, united; and the immense Riches of Your Archbishopricks, Bishopricks, Deanaries, Canonries, Abbies, Monasteries, Cardinalships, and Popedom, are all confined to the Worship of the Mass-Book, and to the Creed, and Decrees, of the Council of Trent : the Sons of your Church find little Occasion for any Such Learning, as may tend to Poverty ; but a great deal of Comfort in another Sort of it, which carries as big a Sound amongst the Vulgar, and turns to a much better Account, as it brings along with it Defence, and Riches, both ; and serves to Support those Opinions, which Support that Church, which is endowed with those Riches.

I do not mention this, with a View to Your Affairs only ; but to remind You, that You have so much of this, Your Selves, and find so prodigious a Benefit in it, that You have the less Occasion to wonder at, or envy, the Something like it, amongst Us Protestants.

Your Holiness needs not, I think, call in the Assistance of your Infallibility, to judge, from all this put together, in what a Condition We really are ; whilst, all the while, We are boast-

boasting of our Glorious Separation from You ; and deafening the By-standers, and tiring Our selves, in our several ways, with loud Cries about Our own Apostolical Purity, and Perfection.

As far indeed, as We are, in Practice, Separated from You, in what We our selves condemn in Your Church!; so far We may, consistently enough, boast. But, as far as We are United to You, in our Practice, tho' irreconcilably separated in Words; methinks, (to confess the Truth,) You have rather a Handle of Boasting against Us; that We Our Selves think fit to practise, in some Instances, and some Degrees, what We profess so severely to cry out against, in Your Church.

I forget that Your Holiness hath the Affairs of the World upon You. But I can't persuade my self, to make any Apology, when I consider, it is Your Interest that I should go on, in this odd, unusual, way, of Speaking Truth.

I have freely laid before You, what may reasonably enough give You, and your Cardinals, a sensible Pleasure. I have, without Reserve, shewed You many of the Follies, Weaknesses, Unhappineffes, Inconsistencies, and Wick-ednesses, of Us Protestants. It is but just to Our selves now, that I should change the Scene a little, and take down your Satisfaction, a few Degrees, from that Heighth, to which it may, by this time, be raised. I scorn to flatter You, any more than Our selves : And, how should You know the true Measures, either of your Hopes, or of your Fears, about Great-Britain, if You be not truly informed of our Advantages, and Happineffes, as well as of the Contrary. Nor is it any thing more than what is reasonable, that I, who have, in the former Part of this Address, made no scruple to give my self Pain, in order to give Your Holiness Pleasure, should now be permitted to give

give You Pain, in order to give my self Pleasure : especially, since I promise, that, if any Thing offers, which it may be a Satisfaction to You to know, I will, without Reserve, intermix it, to mitigate the Affliction.

KNOW then, Holy Father ; and let the Conclave of Cardinals know ; and let all Your Whole Church know ; and let the Universal World, wheresoever Your Missionaries are dispersed, Know, That King GEORGE now wears the Crown of these Realms ; that the Elect of Brunswick-Lunenburgh, is now KING of Great-Britain ; that the Protestant Branches of Our Royal Family, have, in Him, begun to take place ; that the Limited Succession, so hateful to Your Friends, is now, not only in the dead Letter of our Laws, but in Possession ; that He is come to our Wishes, Safe, and Untouched by the Dangers of Land, or Sea ; that He is not only come, but is come attended

ed by His Royal Son, from whom We engage to, Our selves, the Imitation of his Father's Vertues, and the Continuance of our Happy State ; that He is surrounded with a Numerous Young Family, who raise the Delight, and Expectation, of all who see Them ; with That Princess, at the Head of Them, who, if we may judge from her Past, Unequal'd, Conduct, seems destin'd, and reserv'd, by Heaven, for the true Interest, and Glory, of the Protestant Cause : A Cause, which, (as far as the Nature of Human Affairs gives Leave) now promises Her, in Gratitude, Our Earthly Crown, in Recompence, for that Other, which Her Great Soul formerly sacrificed to it ; and assures Her of a Heavenly one hereafter, whatever becomes of the Images of Greatness in this State.

Forgive me, that I repeat it ; King GEORGE now Fills the THRONE of Great-Britain : and, believe me, notwithstanding all the Intelligence of your your Friends ; from hence ; (who are ever writing ; only what themselves ~~wish~~ ;) believe me, I say, He hath no Thoughts of Leaving Us. His Heart, and Soul, is with Us : And He hath too much Greatness of Mind , to be moved, either by the Brutal Insults, or the Base Misrepresentations, of his Enemies, to any Thing, but what is Great, and Becoming. He feels, He hath the Riches, and the Courage, of the Nation, on his Side. He sees Himself surrounded by True Friends, as well as Patrons, at Court. The Cooler Heads, and the Warmest Hearts, are in His Service. And He is bless'd with a First Parliament, whose Affections, and Passions, are His ; engaged in His Cause ; and inflamed with a Zeal for His Glory, and Interest, which are One with their own Happiness. And what hath He to fear, thus guarded without ; and possess'd within, of Every Thing, that can Recommend a Prince to the Love of a People ?

I can

I can only attempt to give You some faint Idea, of what H E is, and what We enjoy—To see Him, is to love Him.

‘ Never was so much Integrity, and ‘ so much Constancy, and so much ‘ Sweetness, composed together, and ‘ express’d in Features. He hath the ‘ Dignity of the Prince, temper’d with
 ‘ the Ease and Affability of the Gentle‘ man. His Religion, is Christian Ver- ‘ ty, without Bigotry. Justice, and ‘ Beneficence, are All the Arts of Go‘ vernment, which He desires to know :
 ‘ and in these, He excels, Enough to ‘ make Him the Delight of Mankind.
 ‘ The Wisdom of Integrity, in the ‘ Publick Administration, is now going ‘ to shew it self, to the Senses of the ‘ World, to be vastly Superior to all ‘ the mean Artifices of Falsbood, and ‘ Cunning ; and to diffuse its Blessings, ‘ to Present, and Future Generati‘ ons.

If

If You would know, whether this View of Happiness, be any Thing more than Imaginary; Ask His Subjects, in Germany, How He governed, when His Will was His Law? Enquire, Whether He did not then think Himself bound to Observe the Great Law of Nature? and, Whether Justice, and Beneficence, were not the Measure of His Administration? Or else, only ask them, Why they took Leave of Him, at Parting, with Floods of Tears? Why they followed Him, with the Tokens of Universal Sorrow, and with all the Signs of Distress, at such a Separation? And then judge, whether it would not be very unjust, in Us, not to conclude, That HE, who hath been tried by Arbitrary Power, and Governed with Justice, and Goodness, when His Will was the Law of His Government; will now be determined, by the same Justice, and Goodness, to make our Law, His Will; and to carry our Legal Happiness, to a Height, unknown in Former Ages; and and to place it, if possible, out of the Reach of all future Danger?

How could I dwell upon this Subject, did I not fear it would be too troublesome to Your Holiness?

In the midst of all this, I know, You have Comfortable Stories, sent You, of the Difficulties, and Discouragements, He meets with. I confess it. He hath Great Difficulties to encounter. But then, He hath a Great Soul, to combat them; and an unshaken Firmness of Mind, to go through them, with Glory.

I am not going to dissemble, in this Point. The Agents for Your Church, and Those, amongst Us, who constantly go, Hand in Hand, with Them, have, without Mercy, embarrass'd the Affairs of the Nation. It requires a Wisdom, an Application, a Dexterity, a Perseverance, almost more than Human, to rectify so many Disorders, and Confusions, as have been introduced.

ced. All these, He comes prepared to Exert, to Save, and Establish Us.

I confess, Many are the Obstacles, and Discouragements, He hath already experienced: The Fierceness of a False Religious Zeal, kindled, and fomented, by Your Emissaries, into Fury; the Madness of Rabbles, incensed by Those, who can have no Security, but in Confusion; the Invectives of some Pulpits, insinuating the Vilest Falshoods into the Minds of the Populace, and giving the Lie, in the Face of the Sun, to all former Professions of a Sincere Good-Will to His Interest.

Nay, it is hardly credible, what I could relate to You, of the Usage He hath receiv'd from Those, who, most of all, would, in Time, have found the want of Him; had He not Succeeded to This Crown.

One of the first Complements, He received from His most Famous University, was a particular Mark of Respect, spect, by the Unanimous Vote of That Learned Body, given to a Man, whom He had, with Displeasure, dismiss'd from His Service ; and whom, Your Friend, the Pretender, had He been King here, would have distinguish'd, long ago, with Honours, for all his Hearty Service to the Popish Cause, in Ireland.

But, can this be a Wonder to His Majesty, when He once knows, that His very Title, and Succession to His Crown, was a Disputed Point, between an Oxford Decree, and an Act of Parliament ; that He now possesseth His Crown, against the Solemn Decree of That Learned Body ; and a Decree, which still hangs up, to the View of the World, unrepealed, as an Open Testimony of the Tender Regards of Those who own it, to His Cause, and of the Sincerity of their Hearts, in Abjuring the Popish Line.

And from the Members of His other University, what hath He received ? If Violent, and Tumultuous Riots, beyond yond what almost any other Parts of His Kingdom have seen, be a Distinguishing Mark of Affection, and Good-will ; They have given it Him, beyond all doubt.

I confess, this hath been some Part of his Publick Reception. The Noise of those Pulpits, to which the Word of God, and of Peace, have been long Strangers ; The Affronts of the Universities, those Two Bright Luminaries of the World of Literature ; The Riots of the Learned ; and the Tumults of the Unlearned ; The Insinuations of the Cunning, and the Mirth of the Witty ; the Passions of the Weak, and the Rage of the Disappointed ; the Fears of the Guilty, and the Hopes of Those who have nothing to lose : all, under the Conduct and Management of the Friends of the Pretender, and the Emissaries of Your Church, have played their Part to Perfection ; and, by the Loudness of their Clamour, have put the Air around Us, into some Sort of Commotion and Disorder.

(e)

have

But, be assured, this is all the Advantage, You, and your Friends, can reap from it. The Disadvantage is to come. These Disorders are well understood to be the Bold Efforts of Guilt, and Despair, united : into which, many Ignorant, or Well-meaning, People, have been, unwarily, led. But the Contrivers, and Directors, of them all, find no Issue from them, answerable to their Designs.

The whole Conduct of the Machine was plainly intended, to make themselves, and their Party, look terrible to a King, just come amongst us ; and so, to affright, and force, Him into their Measures, Whom they took to be as weak as themselves.

But, as He hath found, that all their Noise, and Violence, could not secure a House of Commons to their Wishes : So He is now convinced, by Them-

Themselves, and their whole Procedure, of what He had too much Justice to believe of Them, till this Experience hath put it beyond doubt; that They, who talk loudest of Allegiance, or Passive Obedience, mean it to Another, and not to Him; and understand it to be a Duty for Others, and not for Themselves.

They are, generally, the same Set of Men, who have, of late Years, never talk'd of Non-Resistance, but in order to bring a Scandal upon the late Revolution, and the Great Instrument of it, King WILLIAM: The Same, who alone have all the Disturbances, and Tumults, in these Parts, to answer for, through the last Twenty six Years: The Same, who, after having by Flatteries, and Professions of Passive Obedience, deceived Your Unfortunate Friend, King James II. into those Fatal Measures, which ruined Him; opposed, and crush'd, all the Great Designs of his Successor, Whom They invited over, merely to save Them from Practising, Themselves, that Beloved Doctrine, which They are never weary of Recommending to their Neighbours: The Same, in one word, who, in their several Places, and Stations, have planted themselves in a direct and settled Opposition, to every Step, which hath conducted His Present Majesty to the Throne.

These are the Men, whom Your Honours, and Your Friends, have to boast of: but not to trust to, if You are wise, even many Degrees below Infallibility. All their Hints, and Intelligencies, of Another Revolution, now spread about by a mad Despair, are only the Delusions of their Dreams. They have had no Effect to Your Advantage, unless, perhaps, it is to them, You owe, that One weak Man, after having first, from his Privileged Place, abused the King, hath gloriously resigned signed his Preferments. I give Your Holiness Joy of this : and wish You just as many more such Publick Proselytes, as there are Men, amongst Us, privately of his Principles.

This may be one Part of that Scene, which these Reports were designed to open. But as for any Other ; be assured, that none here are frighten'd, but those Chiefs, to whose Guilt, the whole Party seem now to have wisely tack'd their Cause ; tho', some Months ago, the Guilt was plain to many of themselves : And that none here are alarm'd, but those Heads, who owe Europe an Exemplary Satisfaction, for all the Intricacies, and Embarrassments, with which They have confounded it.

And even now, as I am writing this, if we may judge of the Rest, by the Conduct of One ; These Mighty Chiefs, (as soon as They have engaged a Set of Men, with I know not what Pretences, to lose their own Reputation, by Defending theirs ; and plunged them in , headlong , perhaps too deep , to make a handsome Retreat ,) are preparing kindly to take care of Themselves , by Flight ; and to leave their Friends to their own Conduct : using them after such a manner , as the Friends of such Men , and of such a Cause , deserve to be used :

But whithersoever They fly , They can't fly from Themselves : and where-soever They are , They carry about them , I do not say , the Remorses of Conscious Guilt ; but the Torments of Disappointed Ambition : and Ambition , disappointed in the Critical Minute , when every Thing seem'd ready , to execute its Designs .

One Thing I shall here mention to Your Holiness , agreeable to what was proposed by a Protestant Member of the last House of Commons , (whilst these Great Men were in all their Power , amongst us ,)

us,) and that is, ' If You can, by any ' means, prevail upon His Most Christi- ' an Majesty, (to whose Interest They ' have shewed themselves such Friends,)
 ' not only to receive Them, if They
 ' All take the same Route, which One
 ' hath ; but to give the Management of ' his Affairs into their Hands, only
 ' for as short a Time, as our Country
 ' was bless'd with Them ; I will un' dertake, that Great-Britain shall Par' don Them ; and that Your Holiness
 ' shall have the Thanks of Europe.

I have, by this Time, tired You, and my self : But yet, there are a few Par- ticulars behind, which I can't persuade my self to pass over in Silence.

The Old Primate still breaths : and breaths the same Spirit of Christian Liberty, which He ever did ; and the same Hatred of all Spiritual Usurpa- tion, and Tyranny, that bears any Resemblance to Your's. May He long (c 4) breath!

breath! And may his Last Days be made serene and easy, by the Returns of all that Regard, and Deference, which his former Labours, and Constancy, have merited!

He sees Himself surrounded by a Bench of Brothren, who have stood the Shock of the Day of Trial, and brought off Immortal Glory. I forbear, out of Tenderness, to tell You, what Excellencies They are possess'd of; or what a Confidence all True Britons place in Them.

One, indeed, is removed from Us : and One, to whose Services, this Nation owes an Eternal Monument. I have a Passion for his Great Name : but no Words of mine ought to be joined to it.

I would pay some Tribute to a Memory, Dear to Liberty and Religion, if any Thing I could say ; could add to a Reputation, and Character ; acquired, supported, and enlarged, by Pastoral Labours, uninterrupted from his Earliest Youth, to his Latest Old Age ;
and

and by Writings; which will give Life to the Name of BURNET, long after the Names of his Enemies shall cease to be remember'd.

Your Church hath ever paid Him the Respect of Fear; and the World will, in Ages to come, pay to his Memory, that Love, and Admiration, which the Ungrateful of the Present Age denied to Himself.

Were there no other Reason to think so, I should be certain, that This News will give You, and Your Friends Abroad, some Joy; because it hath given it to that Party of Protestants, (as They call Themselves;) amongst Us, who always partake in Your Holiness's Pleasures.

I will hasten from this Unpleasant Subject: and take Leave of Your Holiness, with a Proposal, as odd, and Romantick, in Appearance, as this whole Address may seem; but, in Reality, neither odd, nor Romantick, any otherwise, than as all Justice, and Simplicity, and Plain-dealing, are esteem'd
to

to be so, in a degenerate, and corrupted Age.

But, if it be so, that I am, in this, transported beyond due Bounds; let all the Fault be imputed to the Subject, I have been upon.

The State of Religion, on all Sides, is a Scene of Astentiment: And the Surprise of Things, to which I have been heretofore a Stranger, hath, I confess, filled me with an Enthusiasm, too warm to be contained.

DESCEND, HOLY FATHER,
from Your Seven Hills, and disdain not to tread upon the Level Plain. Un-robe Your Self of all the Gaudy Attire of a Pompous Superstition. Lay aside all the Embarrassments of Worldly Grandeur. Turn Your Eyes from the Coffers of Gold and Silver, of which, Your Great Predecessors, St. Peter, and his Greater Master, had none.
Acknowledge Religion to be something more, than being wrapt up in a Heap of Fine Vestments; or being skill'd in a Dex-

a Dextrous Performance of Antick Gestures.

And then, Look inwards. Devest Your Self of Your Infallibility : and own Your Self to be like One of Us. As to renounce a Kingdom for Your Church, hath been accounted the Height of Honour, and Saintship : so now, it will be Your Glory, in the most exalted Degree, to renounce, in the Name of Your Church, a Double Kingdom, for Christ : that Temporal Kingdom, which, in his Name, and to his Reproach, You have erected over the Bodies, and Estates ; and that Spiritual one, which You have established over the Consciences of Mankind.

Remember, in the midst of all your Luxury, and Delicacy, and Ostentation, what Ground You stand upon. The Bowels of the Earth are armed against You. The Shocks of Earthquakes, and the Eruptions of Vulcano's, besides the Common Calamities of Nations, are the Beginnings of that Day of Vengeance, which will come ; unless You pre-prevent it, by a speedy Conversion to Christianity.

Renounce therefore, your Golden Keys, and your Fruitful Kingdoms. Throw away your Fopperies, and your Indulgencies, and your Processions, and your Canonizations. Shew Your Self in the Nakedness of Simplicity; and take the Gospel into your Hand, and into your Heart. Call in your Emissaries, and your Missionaries, from all Parts of the World; and let them receive Instruction, themselves, before They pretend to Convert others.

Trouble the World no more, with Quarrels about the Holy Sepulchre; but believe that He is risen, who once was laid in it. Let the Wood of his Cross cease to be magnified, to an immense Bulk; and his Natural Body cease to be multiplied, to an infinite Number. Restore the Heads of Holy Men, and Women, to their Bodies, if they can be found. Let the Bones of the Dead Saints be at Rest; and their Blood be released.

released, from the perpetual Fatigue of working Wonders.

Throw up all your Legends ; Discard all your Miracles, Stated, and un-stated : and make over all your Tricks, to the Juglers of this World. Declare to the Jesuits, that their Game is at an End : and Restore the Inquisition to Hell, in which it was forged.

And, for the Conclusion of This Great Work, Celebrate an Open, and Solemn Marriage, between Faith, and Reason : Proclaim an Eternal Friendship, between Piety, and Charity ; and Establish an Agreement, never to be dissolved, between Religion, on one Side ; and Humanity, Forbearance, and Good-nature, on the other.

I would not have You think , that I propose All this to Your Holiness, and Nothing from Our own Quarter. So far from it, that I am free to acknowledge, that it cannot be expected, that You

You should thus far recede from your present Pretensions, unless Others are ready to give up every Thing of the same Sort, and the same Nature.

If Your Holiness parts with Infallibility, it is but equitable, that the Protestant Churches should part with Indisputable Authority. If You give up the Decrees of the Council of Trent; let Them in Holland, give up the Synod of Dort; and Others, every where, throw off all manner of Human Decisions, in Religion. If You discard the Inquisition; let Them discard Classes, and Judicatories, and Consistories, and Fines, and Imprisonments; and the whole Train of Secular Artillery, and the whole Armory of the Weapons of this World.

If You make all Your Great Names bow, and pay Homage, to Christ; let Them bring forth their Army, on the other Side: and let Calvin, and Luther, and Zuinglius, and Knox, and Land, and Baxter, and all other Idols, bow down to the same Christ. Let Christi- ans cease to be called by their Names ;
and

and let Them, who have One Master, have but one common Denomination.

And let the Whole be sealed with the Kiss of Charity, and with all the Tokens of Benevolence and Love.

But whether You, or They, will hear, or will forbear ; whether any Thing of this Sort shall be done, or not done ; I have delivered my own Soul.

I had an Impulse upon me, to say all this. I have followed that Impulse : and, what I have said, I have said.

I have opened my Heart to Your Holiness :
and You may make what use You please of it.

If You think fit to accept of my Correspondence , I faithfully promise to give You, from Time to Time, an exact Account of the State, in which We Protestants are, or are like to be.

For

PREFACE.

I Have so unreservedly spoken my Thoughts to His Holiness, that I have but few Words left for any less sanctified Reader.

No one, who reads the following Account of the Roman-Catholick Religion, can doubt of its being Genuine. Many, it is probable, have seen the Original Italian Manuscript, in Switzerland. It was taken out of the Library of St. Gall, after the Defeat of the Abbot of that Name, by the United Troops of Zurich and Berne, and lodged afterwards in the Library at Zurich. An Authentick Copy was transmitted, by the Reverend and very Learned Mr. Ott, Principal Secretary of the Zurichian Library.

The Translation of it will be allowed, by all good Judges, to give Us the Sense of the Writer faithfully; when I inform them that it was done by the Learned Author of the Memoirs of Literature: A Work, of which I shall say no more, than that it well deserves a Place in the Library of Every Man who is a Friend to Learning and Good Sense; Being a Collection of many Compleat Pieces, very Curious and Uncommon;

(f)

common; as well as a most Judicious Epitome of the very best Performances some of these last Years have produced in the World of Learning.

I must now say something, by Way of Apology to those who may be surprized, by the foregoing Dedication, at my being so deep in Points, which I never before pretended to meddle with.

I acknowledge it has been sometimes with Me, as it is with too many others, that a Sort of an Implicit Religion seemed the most easy, and most comfortable; and that a Blind Veneration for I knew not what, and I knew not whom, stood for every thing valuable, and important. I confess, I was not enough aware that this Implicitness of Conduct, is the great Engine of Popery, framed for the Destruction of Good Nature, as well as Good Sense. But my Benevolence to my Fellow-Creatures, I can truly say, is, and has been, always warm and inflexible: And This it is, that bath, at length, allarmed, and roused, my Understanding; which, one or two Accidental Shocks, have settled into the Order, wherein I now feel it.

I remember, that some time ago, I said, in Print, That all Exorbitant Power in Clergymen was Popery. What could be more General, or more Inoffensive, than to speak this, without determining at all, what is that Exorbitant bitant Power? And yet it is incredible, what an Outcry there was made about this, as if it was the very Height of all Madness and Absurdity to say so. I know there are many of that Reverend Body who are disinterested Enough themselves, to Maintain such a Sentiment; but I soon found from the Resentment of Others, that no Power, let it be what it will in their Hands, can be esteemed by them to be Exorbitant: Or else, that that Part of Popery was not a thing they mightily abhorred. Upon this, I proceeded to think a little further of the Consequences and Tendencies of such Principles.

But the Great Shock of all that I ever received, was from the Proceedings about the late Schism-Act; which opened the Scene thoroughly. And this, I confess, was so great, as to move in me an Indignation not to be contained; to see the Law of Nature, and the Common Rights of Mankind, going to be sacrificed to Fury and Bigottry. I knew, indeed, very well, that the Church, was only a Word, made use of by those then at the Helm, who valued all Churches and all Religions equally, and that no farther than for the forwarding their own Rattous Projects. But I saw by how great a Party the Design was warmly espoused; that their very Hearts were in it; and Crowds of Innocent People ensnared by them into the same Violence. This put Me upon more Enquiries; and led me to some Thoughts, of which I then gave the World a short Account.

It is upon that Bottom, I have govern'd myself ever since ; till I am now brought, by the Natural Course of such Thoughts, to examine into the Conduct of Christians, and particularly of Protestants, of all Sorts. One Thing drew on another ; And, as little Conversant as I have heretofore been in such Things, I quickly found that Christianity was neither unintelligible, nor ill-natured ; That the Gospel does not invade the Rights of Mankind ; nor invest any Men with Authority, destructive to Society ; and, (what was the most melancholy Part of the Whole,) that Protestants must be reduced to the Absurdity of renouncing Protestant, as well as Christian, Principles, before they can pretend to make their Practices and their Professions, consistent. This I resolved to represent ; and have done it, without regard to any one Sort of them, more than another.

I am more and more persuaded ; every Day, that it is fitting, to understand Religion, as well as to praise it ; and that it is the Golden Rule of Proportion, to give the highest Respect to Those only, who deserve it.

If I have used a Severity in some of the foregoing Pages, it flowed from the Resentment I have, at the Usage King GEORGE hath met with, from too many, of a Body of Men, who owe all their Security to His Accession. This Part of their Conduct admits of no Apology.

P R E F A C E.

v

logy. I have given Them sufficient Proof of my Devotion to their Interest, when they do not divide it from that of their Country. But I thank God, my Love to the Publick, is above it: and I feel it true within, what the Patriot, and Orator of Rome said, Omnes omnium charitates Patria una complexa est. And therefore, since many of Them are not contented that the Glory of their past Conduct should be forgot, or buried in Silence; but have thought fit, by their renewed Assaults, to revive the Remembrance of their former Behaviour, when They engaged themselves in the Cause of a Worthless Incendiary, and taught the People, by the Cry of the Church, (which bath deserved better Usage at their Hands,) to Rebel for Passive Obedience, and to insult the Supreme Authority of the whole Legislature, out of Loyalty: Since, I say, They have begun the War a-new, and beat a fresh Alarm from their High Places, and, (unprovoked; and unmolested,) have given the Best of Kings, a reception, unworthy, I do not say of Christians, but of Men; it lies upon Them alone to answer for the Consequences; and upon all Others, to guard their Country, their Laws, and their Prince, from such Attempts; and to shew, by their Courage, and Constancy, that, in spite of all the Opportunities which such Men employ to the misleading of the People, We will not sacrifice, either our Religion, or our Establishment, or even the very People whom They mislead,

out

out of any Panick Dread of their Invectives, or Instigations.

Indeed, whatever Others do, I think it time to let them see, that there are those, who are even passionately disposed to love, and almost adore them, who will not fear them. Whilst They show the World that they hate the King, it is my Humble Opinion, that They who love Him, do no better than make a Sacrifice of Him, whenever they show themselves afraid of such Men. As I am always Romantick enough to speak what I think; so, I am weak enough, to think, it has its Use.

All the World knows, with what a Tenderneſs of Affection, and what a Sincerity of Paſſion, I have eſpouſed the Cauſe of the Clergy, and Universities; that they have been obſerved to be the Delight of my Tongue, and the Darling Subject of my Converſation; and that I have, with an Impetuoſneſs of Warmth, in Season and out of Season, run into their Defence, and their Panegyrick. But what can I ſay? The Cauſe, the Topick, I delighted in, is torn from me; and left without any Support, but that of Hope, that the Better Part, (who have ſtood faithful, uncorrupted, and unwearied, amidſt the Throng of Great Examples, and againſt the Torrent of Violence and Reproach,) may be look'd upon, at preſent, as ſome Atonement for the Contrary; and their Vertue, (after the Season of Mad Deſpair spair is over,) spread its Influence : and create an Imitation, universal enough to raise again the Sacred Character, and make it once more shine in all that Brightness and Vigour of Glory, in which every Good Man wishes to see it.

And in the mean while, certainly it remains upon the Conscience, and Honour, of Every True Britan, to Employ all the Opportunities which can occur to Him, from His Talents, His Station, and His Fortune, in doing Honour and Service, to such Excellent Men in Holy Orders, as have, in the whole Bent of their Words and Actions, and upon all just Occasions, acknowledged and asserted the Constitution, and Basis, of Our Government. Happy They, who have the Power, and the Will, to do it!

Certainly, To Such Clergy-Men, Esteem, and Regard, are due, in proportion to the Excellence of their Vertue, and to that Course of Calumny, and Reproach, which They have suffered, both from their own Order, and from others, for their Candour and Honesty ; in disdaining to exalt themselves, at the Expence of the Prosperity of their Brethren ; and in labouring to shew themselves, the most Generous Patriots, in respect of this World, as well as the most Faithful Stewards, with respect to the next.

What

What I have to add, is, That, as I have taken sincere Pains to be rightly apprized of the Facts, which make up the Foregoing Dedication; so, whenever I am convinced of having been mistaken in any of them; I promise immediately to give his Holiness better Information, and to do Justice to all the World :

And, last of all, that, if there were occasion, I could call God to witness, that the Whole of this hath proceeded, not from any regard to private Interest, or the narrow Spirit of a Party; (which any one may see, at first View, who knows the World;) but from a Principle of Benevolence, and a dilated Zeal to serve the Best of Princes, and the Best of Constitutions: And particularly, to rescue the Christian and Protestant Name, and the Church of England, from all the Scandals of Antichristianism, and Popery.

ERRATA in the DEDICATION.

P. Ag. viij. lin. 9. read give it You.
 P. xlij. l. 5. r. Antiquity.
 P. xliij. l. 11. for the, r. be.
 P. lxij. l. 8. r. Services.

I N-

I
INSTRUCTIONS
FOR OUR HOLY FATHER
INNOCENT XI.

CONCERNING
The Present State of Religion, in the several Parts of the World.

By Monsignor URBANO CERRI, Secretary to the Congregation de Propaganda Fide.

Most Holy FATHER,

It is not without a great Mystery, that the same Divine Spirit, which moved the Sacred College to acknowledge the Signal Merit of YOUR HOLINESS, by placing you upon the Apostolical Throne, did also move You to take the Name of INNOCENT; since You seem raised up, to follow the Footsteps of the Ten
B IN-

I N N O C E N T S, Your Glorious Predecessors, by an ardent Zeal for the Propagation of the Orthodox Faith; as well as in other Parts of your Conduct, and in the Exercise of the greatest Virtues.

The First Pope of that Name, (who was a Saint, and a Native of Albania,) expelled from Rome the Heresy of the Cataphrygians, and Novatians; overcame the Perfidiousness of the Pelagians and Apollinarists, and reclaimed the Donatists at Carthage.

Innocent II, was a Roman, of the Family of the Papareschi, and a great Friend of St. Bernard. Notwithstanding the Schism of Anacletus and Victor; He propagated the Catholic Faith in England, and Ireland, with the Help of St. Malachi, Primate of the Kingdom, summoned Four Councils, and condemned the Heresies of Peter Abelard, and Arnaldus his Disciple.

Innocent III, of the Family of the Counts of Anagni, put an End to the Heresy of the Patareni in Bosnia. It was under his Pontificate that the Orders of St. Francis, and St. Dominick, were instituted; the latter of which he sent against the Albigenses of France.

Innocent IV, of the Family of the Fieschi of Genoa, discovered an Extraordinary Zeal by sending many Monks into several Provinces of Europe and Asia, in order to propagate the Catholic Faith; and by procuring the Conversion of the Sultan, and the Reunion of the Greeks.

Pope Innocent V, a Native of Burgundy, and a Religious of the Order of the Dominicans, did hardly Reign Five Months. However, his Apostolical Zeal appeared, during that short Interval, by sending Legates to make a Peace between the Genoese and Venetians; and likewise between the Pisans and Florentines; and bringing back the latter already already Excommunicated, into the Bosom of the Catholic Church.

The Election of Innocent VI, of Limoges, was immediately attended with a great Reformation in the Church, and at Court ; and several Monks and Bishops were sent into Rascia, Macedonia, Sclavonia, and Dalmatia, to convert Hereticks and Schismatics.

Innocent VII, a Native of Salmona, and of the Family Meliorata, though disturbed by the Schism of Benedict, yet overcame the Pride of Ladislaus King of Naples, by excommunicating, and depriving him of his Kingdom ; and summoned a Council to meet at Rome.

Under the Pontificate of Innocent VIII, of the Noble Family of the Cibi at Genoa, the King of Congo was baptized, with many of his Subjects. That Pope would have formed a great League among the Christian Princes, against the Turks, if Death had not prevented it. Besides, it was in his Time that the Christian Faith began to be preached in America ; that New World being then lately discovered by Christopher Columbus.

Pope Innocent IX, Born at Bologna, of the Family of the Facchinetti, did not live long enough to execute his Great Designs. He intended to extirpate Heresy in France, and to bestow, for that End, Fifty Thousand Crowns a Month upon the Catholic League. He also designed to found a College for the Turks converted to Christianity, and to assist the Church of Japan, which was then under great Persecution from the Idolaters.

Lastly, Under the Reign of Innocent X, a Roman, whose Surname was Pamfilio, the Catholic Faith made a very great Progress in Germany, Africa, frica, and the East-Indies. That Pope began the Important Mission of China, which was afterwards fully settled by Alexander VII. who sent thither Three French Bishops, with the Title of Apostolical Vicars: Besides, He put a Stop to the false Opinions of the Jansenists, with the most Universal Applause.

Your Holiness may easily perceive, from this short Account, how perfectly your Thoughts and Sentiments agree with those of your Predecessors. And indeed the greatest, or rather, the only Ministry, that properly belongs to the Supreme Pontiff, is that which Christ laid on him, when he said, Feed my Sheep; requiring from him, (according to the Sense put upon those Words by the Ancient Fathers,) not only that he should feed the Flock, already gathered together, but also endeavour to increase it continually, by bringing in alias oves, quæ non sunt ex ovili. The same is also denoted by that Mysterious Vision which St. Peter had, as we read in the Acts of the Apostles. He saw a certain Vessel descending unto him, as if it had been a great Sheet, knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth: wherein were all manner of four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air. Afterwards the Apostle heard a Voice, saying, Rise, Peter, kill, and eat. Whereupon he answered, Not so, Lord, for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean. But the Voice replied, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common: And at last the Vessel was received up again into Heaven. These Words, Rise, Peter, kill, and eat, were repeated Three times, to signify that the Supreme Pontiffs hear continually an inward Voice, bidding them, Rise with an Apostolical Vigilance, Destroy the present Life of Infidels, and eat them up; that is, Change their their false and brutish Life, into the true Life of our Christian Faith. As You are, (most Holy Father,) the true Heir of the Apostleship; You are, above all others, obliged to take Care of the Observation of this Precept, Go, and teach all Nations. You, who are the Vicar of Christ, the Successor of St. Peter, and the Father of the whole World, even whilst You are Sitting upon the Apostolical Throne, can, and ought, to run all over the World, by Sending other Men to preach the Gospel, even to the Remotest Parts of the Earth. Nay, the Ring, with which You have married the Universal Church, shews that You are a Fisher of Men; as Christ declared it, when he came into Peter's Ship, a Type of that which You govern so holily.

But, I am sensible, Your Holiness does not want to be put in mind of these Things, since You perform that Great Part of your Ministry with the utmost Care and Vigilance; whereof the Congregation de propaganda Fide are Ocular Witnesses. They have frequently met in your Presence; and You have given them the necessary Orders to promote the Catholick Faith in several Provinces and Kingdoms. We may therefore hope that it will be propagated, not only in those Countries, where it never appeared; but also in those, wherein it has been lost through the Malice of Men.

I shall therefore lay before Your Holiness a short Account of the present State of the Propagation of the Faith in all Parts of the World; that You may, out of your Fatherly Zeal, use the most effectual Means, both for the Assistance of the Catholicks, and the Conversion of Infidels and Heretics.

EUROPE.

TO begin with Europe: The Infidels, and Hereticks, may be divided into Two Classes. The First, which is the most Numerous, consists of those, who live in Countries governed by Princes, who are also Infidels and Hereticks; such as England, Ireland, Scotland, Denmark, Sweden, the United-Provinces, the Lower Germany, the Hanse Towns, Switzerland, the Country of the Grisons, Muscovy, Crim Tartary, Illyricum according to the Geography of the Middle Ages, all Greece, with the Isles of the Archipelago, and Romania.

The Second Class comprehends those, who either, 1st, make an open Profession of their Errors in Countries governed by Catholick Princes; as in Poland, Germany, Bohemia, and in many Places of France and Italy: Or who, 2^{dly}, maintain their Errors privately, as in some Cities of the Low Countries, and Spain, and also of Italy, and France, (I mean those Cities of France, where the King allows no other Religion but the Catholick, especially in the Conquered Countries,) and in some of the Hereditary Provinces of the House of Austria. Of the State of Religion in all these Countries, I shall, at present, give a short Account: Reserving a more Large and Distinct one, for any other Time, when Your Holiness shall think fit to command it.

ENGLAND.

E N G L A N D.

THE * Unlawful Love of Henry VIII, for Anne Boleyn, occasioned the Revolt of this Great Kingdom, from the Apostolical See. That Prince, who was the First-born of the Church, became its Enemy, and a Rebellious Son, so far as to persecute and put to Death the Catholick Priests and Bishops. He utterly destroyed the Ecclesiastical Hierarchy, by making himself the Head of the Church of England. This New Government lasted under the Reign of his Son Edward VI. The Catholick Religion began to revive, during the short Reign of Queen Mary; but it was quickly reduced to a worse Condition, than before, by Elizabeth, Daughter of Anne Boleyn, who was a violent Calvinist. The Priests were then persecuted with so much Fury, that they fled out of the Kingdom. Thus England became a Prey to Heresy. Two English Colleges were founded, the one at Douay, and the other at Rome, in the Time of Pope Gregory XIII, that they might afford proper Persons to be sent into England for the Spiritual Relief of the Catholicks. The Storm raised by Queen Elizabeth, being in some Measure over, by reason of her Old Age; the Number of the Catholick Priests

* This is thought by many good Judges to be a Calumny. See Preface to that King's Letters to Anne Boleyn, lately published. It might, with a better Appearance, have been put upon that King's Resentment against Rome, for not forwarding, or approving his Divorce. But the Protestant Cause depends not at all upon any Thing like this; but upon the Right of Christians, to be guided by the Gospel, in their Religion.

from these Two Seminaries, increased by degrees in England, so that they found it necessary to have a Head. Whereupon, Clement VIII., in the Year 1598, appointed for that Purpose Henry George B— with the Title of Archpriest; together with some Counsellors, and Assistants, for the Governing of that Clergy, requiring from him that he should acquaint the Court of Rome with all important Matters. Several Differences quickly arose among these Ecclesiasticks, who had Recourse to Rome, whither they appealed from the Resolutions of the Archpriest; and the Pope immediately set himself to apply the necessary Remedies for such an Evil. But, upon the Death of Queen Elizabeth, James King of Scotland, who did not appear so great an Enemy to the Catholicks, having succeeded to the Crown; the Conspiracy, called the Powder-Plot, was soon after discovered: A Conspiracy, so called, because the Conspirators had put several Barrels of Gun-Powder under a Vault, in order to destroy the Whole Parliament, and all the Royal Family. The King believed that the Catholicks, together with the Pope, were the Authors of that Plot. Whereupon, an Impious and Heretical Oath was tendered to them all. The good Catholicks were confounded at the Publication of it, and frightened by the Penalties to be laid upon those who should refuse to take it. But the Archpriest above-mentioned; instead of making any Opposition, endeavoured to persuade the Clergy to submit to the Oath, and persisted obstinately in his Error till he died. Two other Archpriests were put in his Room; but at last it was thought necessary to have at least one Bishop in that Kingdom; and therefore Paul V. appointed for that Purpose William B—, one of the Oldest Priests of England, and gave him the Title of Bishop of Chalcedon. Afterwards that Bishop, by a Brief of Gregory

Gregory XV. was invested with the Power of Ordinary, both of England, and Scotland; but it was quickly taken away from him, at the Request of the Scots. The Bishop, looking upon himself as a true Ordinary, by Virtue of the Brief just now mentioned; and thinking he had an Authority almost equal to that of the Pope, betook himself to divide the Kingdom into several Parts, and to appoint in each of them an Archdeacon, to be the Head and Superior of the Catholicks of his District. He also established Rural Deans, to be as it were the Vicars of the same Archdeacons, and subordinate to them; and in order to dispatch the most important Affairs with the greatest Expedition, he deputed Five Vicars General, who resided in several Places. Of all these Archdeacons, Deans, and Vicars, he composed an imaginary Chapter, over which he set a Dean, being willing that, in case of a Vacancy, the Episcopal Jurisdiction of England should remain in the Dean. He frequently wrote to Gregory XV. and Urban VIII. for their Approbation; but his Request was never granted him. That Bishop died soon after, and was succeeded by Richard Smith, with the same Character of Bishop of Chalesdon.

This New Prelate, being arrived in England, disturbed the Catholicks more than ever. He immediately pretended to be the Ordinary of England, and also of Scotland. He opposed the apostolical Missionaries; set up a Tribunal; confirmed the Chapter; exacted Pensions from the Lay, and occasioned a great Enmity between himself and the Monks. Whereupon Pope Urban VIII. of Holy Memory, declared in the Congregation of the Holy Office, in the Year 1627, that the Bishop of Chalesdon was not Ordinary of England, but a mere Delegate, with a limited Power, which might be revoked at the Pope's Will. The Bishop being displeased with this Declaration, resolved to give over the Pastoral Care of that Kingdom, and went into France, where he was detained by an Order from the Apostolical See, lest he should return into England, for he quickly repented of his Renunciation.

Decla-

Afterwards, in the Reign of Innocent X, a New Motion was made, in the Name of the Queen, and of all the Clergy, and Catholicks of England, to get that Pope's Approbation of the Chapter above-mentioned, which, during the Vacancy of the Episcopal See, was governed by the Dean, according to the fore-mentioned Regulations made by the First Bishop of Chalcedon. But that Motion was rejected. Whereupon they continued to keep up the same Form of Government; and the Regulars did whatever they pleased. Some Time after, Father Panzani, and then the Abbot Agretti, were sent into England by the Congregation de Propaganda Fide, to enquire into this Disorder; and gave a very large Account of it. The Abbot Agretti was of Opinion, that it was necessary to appoint a Bishop, invested with the Authority of Vicar Apostolical; and added, that the King himself desired it. A Bishop was accordingly deputed, and the Briefs were put into the Hands of the Internuncio of Flanders, and of Father Howard, now Cardinal of Norfolk; but they were not executed, for very good Reasons.

I cannot give a further Account of these last Transactions to Your Holiness, because, within these few Years, all the Affairs of England have been removed from the Congregation de Propaganda Fide, to that of the Holy Office, that they may be managed with greater Secrecy. I shall only say, in general, that there are many Catholicks in that Country, at this present Time; but their Number is not very considerable, if compared with that of the Heretics, who are divided into Church of England.

land-men, Presbyterians, Quakers, Anabaptists, Independents, and several other Sects. The Exercise of the Catholick Religion is wholly prohibited, both in publick and private: The Catholicks meet together in some few Places to perform Divine Worship; but they do it with the utmost Secresy, and not without great Danger. The publick Exercise of our Religion is allowed only in the Queen's Chapel, and in those of the Catholick Ambassadors; and the Catholicks are afraid of going to those Chapels, lest they should be liable to Penalties, and occasion new Persecutions. The King is no Enemy to the Catholicks, but dares not favour them, as much as he could wish, for fear of the Parliament, and especially of the House of Commons. As for the Duke of York, he professes himself a Protestant; but 'tis thought He is a Catholick in his Heart. The Queen, and the Dutchess, are very devout Catholicks; and therefore, if any Opportunity should offer it self to favour our Religion, they would gladly take hold of it; but they don't meddle with Matters of publick Concernment, and much less with this, which might raise the Jealousy of the Hetericks. Such is the present State of the Catholick Religion in England; so that 'tis now more necessary than ever to think of appointing at least one Bishop in that Country. And indeed it looks very strange that so numerous a Clergy should have no Head; and that every Body should be allowed to set up for a Pope, and pretend to give an Account of his Actions to none but God. 'Tis true, the Chapier above-mentioned has not been approved by the Apollical See; but then it has not been condemned by it. Cardinal Barberini is the Protector of that Kingdom; and therefore, it would be very proper to consult him, and to make use of his great Zeal, in order to put an End to the the Disorders, of which I have been disconcerting.

I R E L A N D.

TH E R E is a great Number of Catholics in Ireland. And notwithstanding all the Persecutions of the Hereticks, they have always been very constant. Hence it is that the Congregation has settled again Bishops in that Country. The whole Island is divided into Four Archbishopricks, viz. Armagh, Dublin, Cashel, and Tuam, which, together with their Suffragans, make up Twenty-five Churches. Those Churches are provided partly with Bishops, and partly with Vicars, either Apostolical, or Capitular; each of them having his own Clergy, and a small Maintenance. There are Fifteen Bishops at this present time, of which Eight only reside in that Country, the others being banished by the Hereticks, or absent upon other Accounts. They are continually at Variance among themselves; which sometimes occasions a Persecution against the Catholics, and no small damage to Religion. Besides, they are frequently crossed and disturbed by the Monks, especially by the Franciscans, who have there many Convents, but do not live according to their Institution; and continually make an ill Use of their Privileges, celebrating more Masses than is necessary, granting Dispensations to the Sacred Degree, taking Money for the Sacraments, and administering them at Distance against the Will of the Parish-Priests, or making them stay at the Altar, till they have done begging, and wholly exempting themselves from the Jurisdiction of the Ordinaries. Wherefore considering during these, and many other Inconveniences, it would not be improper to put in execution the Bull, which has been heretofore drawn up by an Order of the Congregation, to prevent the Confusion and Disorders occasioned by the Monks all over the World, by reason of the immoderate use of their Privileges. And though the Congregation has invested the Intervencio of Flanders with the Super-intendency of that Kingdom, yet it seems necessary to send thither an Apostolical Visitor, well qualified and duly instructed. Such a Visitor would at least give an Account of the True State of Religion in Ireland, and might serve, not only for that Kingdom, but also for England, and Scotland.

SCOTLAND.

THE Number of the Catholics in Scotland is not considerable; but they are wholly free from Persecution, and there is in that Country a Disposition to propagate our Holy Faith; those Hereticks having in a great Measure laid aside the violent Harred, which they had formerly conceived against the Catholics. Several Provinces in the Highlands would easily embrace our Religion, if they were provided with Missionaries. There are Twelve Jesuits at Edinburgh, the Capital City of Scotland, and in some other convenient Towns. Ten Secular Priests, under a Superior, dispersed through the Kingdom, and maintained by the Congregation de Propaganda Fide, make a very great Progress. Alexander LESLEY has been there lately in the Quality of Apostolical Visitor, and is one of the Missionaries. We expect from him a full Account of the State of the Catholick Religion in in Scotland, that the most proper Means may be used to carry on the Propagation of our Faith in that Country. It would be highly necessary to order a strict Visitation of all the Colleges of that Nation. There is one at Rome, one at Madrid, one at Paris, and another at Donay. Besides, there are three Convents of Scotch Benedictines in Germany, viz. at Ratisbon, Wurtzburg, and Erfurt. Were those Colleges and Monasteries well governed, Scotland would be sufficiently provided with Missionaries, without any Charge to the Congregation. But, for want of good Government, the Scotch Colleges and Convents decay by degrees; and the Missionaries that come from them, are continually craving the Assistance of the Holy See. Wherefore, in order to prevent effectually such Inconveniences, those Houses should be visited by a Zealous Person of that Nation, with full Power of disposing of them, as he thinks fit; and He himself be obliged to acquaint the Holy See with all his Proceedings. Without such an Expedient, it will be impossible to settle the Mission of Scotland upon a solid Foundation. Besides, a Bishop should be established in that Country to ordain, and confirm, and for other Ecclesiastical Functions.

D E N M A R K.

DENMARK and Norway seem to be quite forsaken; for there are hardly any Missionaries in those Two Kingdoms, excepting some few at Gluckstad, and Altena, and some Jesuits, who live at Copenhagen, as Chaplains to the Emperor's Envoy, or Resident, and one or two Priests, as Chaplains to the Ambassador of Spain. Those Clergymen cannot be of any great Use, nor make many Converts, verts, because they don't understand the Language of the Country ; they are Foreigners, and altogether ignorant of the Customs and Genius of the People, who besides suspect them. And yet perhaps, of all the Northern Nations, there is none more disposed to receive the Catholic Faith, than those Two Kingdoms, as it is affirmed by the Natives themselves, and those Foreigners who have been there. For an undeniable Proof of this Assertion, I shall observe that the King of Denmark did not much scruple to grant Liberty of Conscience in the Town of Altena, at the Solicitation of the Chevalier de Trelon, Ambassador from the Most Christian King. Besides, he connived at the opening of a Catholic Church at Copenhagen : which he would never have done, had he met with any Opposition from the People, or the Nobility of the Kingdom. That Liberty is now lost, not only by reason of the Death of that Prince, who was succeeded by his Son, a much greater Enemy to the Catholic Religion, but also because the Catholics did not behave themselves so prudently, as they should have done, in order to maintain themselves in the Enjoyment of the Liberty, which had been granted them. They did several Things, which gave occasion to the Heretical Bishops, to desire the King, that He would be pleased to revoke that Liberty.

The Apostolical Vicar of Hanover (for Instance) undertook to administer the Sacrament of Confirmation with Pomp and Ostentation ; and the several Disputations, not only Philosophical, but also Theological, which the Jesuits publickly maintained, in the University of Copenhagen, did also contribute to the Loss of the Liberty, which the Catholics enjoyed in that City. The King being afraid of Tumults and Insurrections, thought fit to deprive them of it. However, one may plainly fy infer from Hence, that there is in that Country some Disposition to embrace the Catholick Faith, because when the Catholicks do any thing, that displeases the Preachers, they are not persecuted for it, but only forbidden to do the like for the Time to come, without putting in Execution against them the Laws made in the Beginning of the Heresy. And though the Baron de Goez represented to Cardinal Carafa, who was then Nuncio at Venna, how difficult it would be to obtain from the King of Denmark the Free Exercise of Religion for the Catholicks, yet it appears that Things are now altered; particularly from hence, that Your Holiness has lately received a Letter from the Nuncio at Cologne, importing, that by the Means of the Spanish Minister, the Catholick Religion is upon a good Foot in Denmark, and that a Catholick was publickly buried at Copenhagen, without any Opposition from the Hereticks.

It seems to me that Two Things might be tried, in order to propagate Religion in that Kingdom. The first is, to use all possible Endeavours with the Emperor, that he may be prevailed upon to obtain from the King of Denmark, Liberty of Conscience, even for the Catholicks. But this will be very difficult, not only because the Emperor has now preferred the Princess of Newburg, to that of Denmark, but because such Concessions, grounded upon Political Views, do generally come to nothing; the whole Fabrick falling to the Ground, as often as the Foundation of the Reason of State happens to be altered. What has been said of the Emperor, may likewise be said of the King of Spain, the more, because He has now an Ambassador in Denmark; and it would be no small Advantage to Religion, if that Prince would earnestly

nestly recommend that Affair to his Minister.
 † Duke John Frederick of Hanover, who is a very good Catholick, might also very much promote this Design; his Sister being Queen of Denmark, that is, Mother of the present King. But in the Year 1670, Father Isolani, a Capuchin, having applied himself to that Prince, in the Name of the Congregation, he answered, that his Sister was too obstinate in her Hereſy, and that therefore all that he could do, would be insignificant. However, he is now allowed to send a Catholick Resident to Copenhagen, and designs to make use of a Gentleman of Perugia, who will enjoy the Privilege of keeping some Priests in that City, and having Mass said in his House. The Duke being so nearly related to the King, will have there a more constant Resident, than any other Prince, to the great Advantage of the Catholick Church.

I am of Opinion that, as on one Hand, these Means ought not to be wholly laid aside, so, on the other Hand, we must not think that we have fully satisfied the Obligation we lie under of Preaching and Propagating the Gospel of Christ, if, being contented to recommend this Design to the Potentates of the World, we neglect the most proper Means, appointed by Christ, and practised by the Apostles, and Apostolical Men, in all Ages. The best way therefore, would be to erect some Colleges for the Danish Nation; as it has been practised for other Nations: Experience assuring us, that notwithstanding the greatest Persecutions, the Catholick Faith has been always preserved in these Colleges. And, without doubt, there might be a Method found out, of doing this without any Charge to the Holy See. But, above all Things, a Zealous and Diligent Protector of the Affairs of that Nation, should be appointed at the Court of Rome. Otherwise, that People will be talked of for some Time; and then New Affairs intervening, will make them quite forgotten.

† All Advice of this Sort, is now, for ever, in vain: since that Illustrious House is, by the wonderful Interposition of Providence, fix'd upon the Throne of Great-Britain, and become the Head, and Heart, of the whole Protestant Cause. This Author calls our present King's Father, and his other Uncle, the Duke of Zell, Obstinate Hereticks; p. 66. as he doth, in this place, His Father's Sister: which ought to be esteemed by Protestants, a Mark of Honour fix'd upon them.

S W E D E N.

IT is much more difficult to introduce the Catholick Faith into Sweden, and to obtain Liberty of Conscience, by reason of the great Opposition, not only from the Preachers, but also from the King himself, the Magistrates, and the Great Men of that Kingdom. However, it is well known, that ever since the Swedish Nobility began to travel abroad, and to converse with the Catholicks, in France, Germany, and Italy, they are grown very moderate in Point of Religion, having laid aside the Hatred, which they had formerly conceived against us, and suffering the Foreign Catholicks to live among them. And therefore we must not despair of obtaining in Time some Advantage for the Catholick Religion, if an Affair of so great Moment be managed with Prudence and Dexterity. As for using the Interest of the Catholick Princes, in order to obtain some Indulgence for our Religion, in Sweden; I take it to be not only vain and useless, but also prejudicial to us, unless it be done with great Caution. We need no other Proof of this, than to remember that the Zeal, Virtue, and Power of Queen Christina, could not move those Hereticks to embrace brace the Catholick Faith, though that Princess did so Holy and so Glorious an Action, as to part with so great a Kingdom for the Sake of Religion. King Gustavus her Father, in the Time of Urban VIII. gave some Hopes of turning Catholick; and therefore Father Passevin, a Jesuit, was sent to him: But that Prince, meeting with some Difficulties, which were afterwards overcome by his Daughter, found several Pretences to keep his Religion. The best way therefore would be to build some Colleges for that Nation; and this Method will doubtless have in time the desired Effect, especially, if it be pursued with great Diligence and Application. And it seems to me, that this Advantage may be procured without any Charge to the Holy See. If Your Holiness desires the Most Christian King, that he would be pleased to Found a College in Paris for the Swedes and Danes, he will quickly do it. There is another thing, that would very much contribute to introduce the Catholick Faith into Sweden; I mean, using with great Civility the Swedish Noblemen, who travel into Italy, and come to Rome, and endeavouring by all manner of ways to win their Affection. But what I have said of Denmark, ought much more to be said of Sweden. It is absolutely necessary, that this Nation should have a very diligent and careful Protector; and this Office might be conferred upon Father Laurence, a Swede, who lives in Ara Culi, and has all the Qualifications requisite for such an Employment, being a Learned, Pious, and Zealous Man, and well acquainted with that Country. No one is so able to point out the most proper Means for the Propagation of the Catholick Faith in Sweden. Without this, 'tis undeniable that this Nation will always be forsaken, and deprived of all manner of Assistance.

THE UNITED PROVINCES.

THE United Provinces contain above Three Hundred Thousand Catholics, and Three Hundred Priests, most of them Secular, under the Inspection of the Bishop of Castoria, (who has the Title of Apostolical Vicar of Holland,) and of a Priest, who is Apostolical Vicar of Bosseduc. There is now more Probability of Settling the Catholic Faith in that Country, than there was before; for 'tis well known, that our Religion is tolerated there. It suffers sometimes, not only by Persecutions, which are never appeased without Paying large Sums of Money, (whereby the Catholics grow every day poorer;) but also by Dissensions among the Catholics themselves, and Disputes among the Missionaries; viz. between the Apostolical Vicar, and the Monks, about their Privileges. And though the Quarrels of the Jesuits were in some measure suppressed by Alexander VII, and those of the other Regulars seem now to be almost over; yet the Catholic Religion does very much suffer in that Country upon another Account. Those Provinces are, if I may say so, a publick Forge, which affords all the Arms, wherewith the Church of God is attacked all over the World. They are a Place of Refuge for all Sorts of Apostates. The most pernicious Books against the Catholic Faith, and the Holy See, and all the Satyrs and Libels against this Court, are printed there. Lastly, the Dutch, partly by their Craft, partly by their TRADE, and other * Diabolical Arts, have undermined the Faith, in

* Why Trade should be reckon'd amongst the Enemies of the Church; and the Diabolical Arts; I can give no other Account, but that Trade is the Riches of the Laity; and such Riches, as they are apt to look upon, as Their own: Whence, their proper the East and West Indies. In short, It is they, who foment Rebellion in England, maintain Heresy in all the Northern Countries, and teach the Heathen Princes how to persecute the Catholicks, and extirpate the Faith of Christ, out of their States. It were therefore necessary, that the Apostolical Nuncio, at the Congress, should use his utmost Endeavours, to get Liberty of Conscience for the Catholicks inserted in the Articles of Peace; and that, if it be possible, no Difference be made between them, and the other Subjects of the Republick, in Political and Temporal Matters. To conclude, the Apostolical Vicar abovementioned is extremely vigilant, and takes hold of every Opportunity to promote the Catholick Faith in those Provinces; and many Dutchmen are maintained in our College, and make an admirable Progress both in Good Manners, and the Sciences. One may therefore hope from all these Helps, that our Religion will gain Ground in that Country.

THE LOWER GERMANY.

THERE is hardly any Care taken of the Conversion of Hereticks, in the Provinces of the Lower Germany, especially in those that border upon the Baltick Sea. Their Condition is the more deplorable; because though the Holy See has sufficiently provided for their Wants, by the Foundation of the Colleges of Fulde, Vienna, Gratz, Dillingen, Olmütz, and Rome, where Young Men are to be educated, in order to go and per Business, is to be poor, and subject. This hath never yet been enough enforced upon the Consciences of Protestant Merchants; who by that means may think it good Doctrine only at Rome. I design, therefore, in a short time, a Treatise entitl'd, The Malignity of Lay-Riches: Or, The Diabolical, and Anti-Ecclesiastical Nature of Trade, and Commerce, demonstrated.

preach the Gospel ; yet, the Natives of the Hetical Circles are seldom or never admitted into those Colleges, but others born in the Catholick Circles, and Sons of Rich and Considerable Men, who never perform the Mission in the Provinces just now mentioned, though the Bulls for the Foundation of those Colleges are plainly against it. However, the Capuchins, born in those Provinces, are dispersed in many Places, where they exercise their Mission ; and in the States of Brunswick, the Congregation keeps an Apostolical Vicar, who resides at Hanover, with the Character of a Bishop, and is protected by that Catholick Duke. Upon the Death of the last Vicar, Your Holiness put in his room, at the Desire of the said Duke, Don Nicolas Stenon, a Danish Priest, of an Exemplary Life, who, though converted at Flourence, from the Lutheran Sect, to the Catholick Faith, is a Man of a true Apostolical Spirit ; and 'tis hoped he will be of great Use to the Kingdom of Denmark, and all those Provinces. It is hardly to be doubted, that the Princes of all that Circle are very well affected towards the Catholick Faith ; the more, because they are almost in no Fear of being obliged to restore the Church-Lands ; and that Fear hindered them before, from taking any Resolution about it. But because no body discourses with them about Matters of Religion, and because they are afraid of Popular Insurrections, and want to be supported in their Resolutions, they never bring their Will into Practice. And, to give a remarkable Instance of what I have just now said, I shall put Your Holiness in mind of the Advice lately received from a German Jesuit, who has been a long Time in Saxony, and particularly at Dresden, where the Electtor makes his usual Residence. That Jesuit writes, that the Electtor is very much inclined to the Catholick tholick Religion; that he prays every Day to a Crucifix; and beseeches him, to shew him which is the True Faith; that he frequently confesses to a Priest, and specifies his Sins; that he eats no Flesh upon Fridays and Saturdays; that he invokes the Name of the Holy Virgin in Danger; that he connives at the Celebration of the Divine Offices in Private Houses; that he has ordered a Catholick Captain, not to let his Soldiers die without the Assistance of a Priest; that he has suffered a Turk, who had been his Slave, to be baptized, and instructed in the Catholick Faith, tho' privately, that his Preachers might have no Pretence to make a Noise; that he has struck out of the Lutheran Common-Prayer-Book, with his own Hand, the Imprecations against the Pope; that he neither protects, nor will have in his Court, any Apostate; and lastly, that he does many External Acts, which are not only laudable, but also forbidden by the Hereticks; and even that when he assists at their Sermons, he gives no Ear to what they say, that he may not hear their Invectives against the Catholicks. Upon Occasion of Your Holiness's Election, he told one of his Musicians, who is an Italian, that he did often very much wonder, that, since the Death of Luther, not one Pope had endeavoured to procure the Reunion of all the Princes of Germany, to the Church of Rome; that such a Reunion appeared to him very easy, because the great Aversion, which the Lutherans had to the Pope's Authority, was now over. He added, that if the Pope would permit the Communion in both Kinds, he would return to his Obedience; and that all the other Princes of Germany would easily follow his Example. This important Advice deserves to be carefully attended to; and it would be very proper to send to that *Elect*or, under some Pretence, an unknown, learn-learned, and fit Person, who might Discourse with him in Confidence, and enter upon a Treaty; seeing very great Advantages might be expected from the Conversion of that Illustrious Prince.

In the Upper Lusatia belonging to that Elector, (to whom it was mortgaged in the Time of the Rebellion of Bohemia, in the Year 1629; for sending some Troops against the Rebels,) there are many Castles full of Catholicks; but almost without any Spiritual Assistance. There is also at Bautzen, a Chapter, all Catholick; but few People assist in it: And excepting the Fathers of the Society, who go thither some Times, they see no other Priests. There is also in that Province, a Convent of Cistercian Monks, and Two Nunneries of the same Order, under the Protection of the Emperor, who in the Year 1669, committed the Visitation of the Monasteries and Chapter to the Archbishop of Prague. That Prelate found them in a very ill Condition, both as to Spiritual and Temporal Matters. He applied himself to the Congregation in 1671, in order to have Six Thousand Crowns given him out of the Salt-Cash, to recover from the Hereticks some Lands belonging to the Chapter above-mentioned. The Missions of Lusatia, and the Nomination of the Missionary, who should reside at the Elector's Court, might therefore be intrusted with the Fathers of Bohemia, who, besides the Language, have many Persons fit for this Purpose. And because they have inherited a great Estate from the Countess Nerula Kaskiana, for the Conversion of Hereticks, the same Father, who has given the Advice above-mentioned, says they cannot put it to a better Use. The Nuncios at Vienna and Cologne, should be ordered to watch and take hold of any Opportunity, to enter upon a Treaty with those Princes;
and

and in the mean Time they should give a v exact Account of the Spiritual State of those P vinces, that Things may be managed with Saf and without any Hesitation: Otherwise the Resolutions about the most important Affairs are not only put off, but also laid aside.

H A N S E T O W N S.

THE most perverse Hereticks of all Germany are those of the Hanse Towns, who foment Herefy every where, and make the Neighbouring Princes afraid of turning Catholicks. The Conversion of those Towns was never thought of;
and therefore I judge it very necessary to have a more exact Account of them, than of any other Place.
Besides the General Knowledge which Books may afford, in this Case, it would be of Service to have a particular Information about the most Eminent Persons of those Cities, their Factions, Sects, &c.
A good Use might be made of their Discord and Divisions for the Benefit of the Catholic Faith.
But above all, it is highly necessary to feed the People with Hopes that they shall not be forsaken. We know already that there are about Three Thousand Catholicks in Hamburg, with few Spiri- tual Helps, having but one small Church Two Miles distant from the Town. It would be an easy Thing, (as the Nuncio of Cologne said, in a Letter written in 1670) to obtain, by the Intercession of the Catholic Princes, the Liberty of Building a Church there, for the Use of the Ca- tholick Merchants; which might prove very Beneficial; seeing many Lutherans don't Scruple to hear the Catholic Preachers, because they doubt of the Truth of their own Belief. Cardinal Nitardo will zealously endeavour to procure such an Advantage,

There

There are also many Catholics at Lubick, who enjoyed heretofore the Exercise of their Religion in private Houses, with the Consent of the Lutherans; and before the Peace of Munster, they had Five Canonships, and many Benefices, which are now filled up; and the Catholic Canonships are reduced to Three. They have neglected to recover them; and they say they are not able to bear the Charges of a Law-Suit. The Apostolical Nuncio should be ordered to give a full Account of that Church, and to inform the Congregation whether it be possible to settle some Priests there, for the Assistance of the Catholics.

What has been said of the Hanse Towns, may be applied to the Heretical Universities, wherein there are more Divisions, than in any other Places; and if due Case was taken, one might bring over to the Church, not only the most Learned Doctors, but also the greatest Wits of those Universities, to the great Advantage of the Catholic Faith, and the irrecoverable Ruin of Heresy.

S W I T Z E R L A N D.

SWITZERLAND, a Mountainous Country, but very Populous; was formerly Part of Gaul. Julius Caesar brought it under the Power of the Romans; and in Process of Time it became a Part of Germany, and remained in the Possession of the Dukes of Austria, till the Year 1400. Leo-pold, their last Duke, having been killed in that Year, the Swissers made themselves a Free People. They are divided into Thirteen confederated Cantons, Seven of which are Catholic, Four Heretical, and Two mixed. They have had great Wars among themselves on Account of Religion: Those Wars were occasioned by the Perfidious fidious Heresy of Zuinglius, who was killed in a Battel. Our Religion is very well settled in the Catholick Cantons; but it is altogether banished from those that profess Heresy. A small Progress has been made in the Two mixed Cantons, and nowhere else, particularly by the Capuebins of that Country. The Nuncio making his Residence at Lucerne, it would be no difficult Thing to get by his Means an exact Account of the State of the Catholick Religion in Switzerland, and of the Manner how it may be propagated in the Two mixed Cantons; for no Progress can be made in the Heretical ones. In order to remove Heresy from that Country bordering upon Italy, it would be very proper to endeavour all manner of Ways, to win the Chief Persons of their University at Basil, and of their Academies at Zurich and Lausanne. If some private Conferences were held with them, and if they could be made sensible, that they might renounce their Errors, without falling into great Misery, perhaps their Conversion might be easily effected. Those Men would be followed by many; and others would begin to waver in their Faith. Care should be taken to give some Employment, or Relief, to those who are already converted; and particularly to the Preachers, that others might be encouraged by it. There is now a Man of Zurich, at Lucerne, who has been brought over to our Religion by the Zeal and Industry of Monsignor Ciba, and is maintained by the Cardinal, his Brother.

The COUNTRY of the G R I S O N S.

THE Country of the Grisons, which makes Part of the Antient Rhetia, is in a strict Confederacy with the Switzers, and is composed of

Two Parts, viz. The Free, and the Subject. The former consists of Three Leagues, whose Inhabitants are for the greatest Part involved in the Heresy of Calvin, and Zuinglius.

The First League, called the Grey League, contains Twenty Nine Heretical Parishes; Thirty Two Catholick, and Three mixed.

The Second, which goes by the Name of the League of the House of God, contains the City of Côire, which is all Heretical, excepting the Castle, where the Bishop lives with his Chapter. There are also in that Town some other Catholics, with a School-Master, who has a Yearly Allowance of Seventy Crowns from the Congregation. Besides these, the same League contains Thirty Parishes of Hereticks, Seven of Catholics, and Nineteen mixed. The County of Peschiano is united and allied to this League: there are in that County about Twelve Hundred Catholics, who have a good Curate, (who is also the Bishop's Vicar,) and other Priests, and Clerks, and a Monastery. There are also in the same County about Four Hundred Hereticks with their Preacher, and about a Hundred more in the Castle of Brusio.

The Third League, called the League of the Ten Drifture, or, of the Ten Jurisdictions, has no Catholick Parish in it, but only Four mixed, and Twenty Four Heretical.

Several Capuchins of the Provinces of Brescia and Milan, have been sent into these Three Leagues, and make a very great Progress in their Mission, though the Hereticks endeavour to remove them as far as they can, making the Catholics believe that they have a Mind to take the Place of their own Priests. Hence it is that the Nuncio, who had brought them to Familla, where they made a good Progress, was obliged to remove them them by an Order from the Congregation, to avoid greater Inconveniencies.

The Subject Country belonging to the Grisons, is the Valtelline, together with the Two Earldoms of Bormio, and Chiavenne, all under the Temporal Jurisdiction of the Bishop of Coire. The Valtelline, Famous for the Wars of the French and Spaniards, and Venetians, is a long and fruitful Valley, in which there are very few Hereticks. Besides the Care of the Bishop, and the Priests that assist him, the Mission of the Capuchins does also reach thither. The County of Bormio is a large and plain Country, almost ruined by the Wars. There is in it a Collegiate Church consisting of Six Canons and an Archpriest: And also, a Church belonging to the Jesuits, who Labour here with great Success. This Whole Territory is in a manner free from Heresy. The County of Chiavenne is situated at the upper End of the Lake Como; and there are few Hereticks in it. The Bishop of Coire, who is Ordinary of the greatest Part of the Grisons, requested the last Year a Yearly Allowance to build a Place at Como, where the Converts might be maintained, till they can get some Employment; which doubtless would be a great Encouragement for the Conversion of those Hereticks. The Congregation ordered, that Your Holiness should be consulted about that Affair, whilst You was a Cardinal: The Execution of it was suspended in the last Conclave; and the Bishop did not go on with his Request.

M U S C O V Y.

THE Schism of the Greeks prevails in Muscovy; and several Attempts have been made at several Times to procure the Reunion of that Nation with with the Church of Rome ; but they have always proved ineffectual. Indeed it is very strange, that there should be a greater Difficulty in reuniting those Schismatics to the Church, than in bringing the Infidels themselves into her Bosom. I shall give several Reasons for it.

The First is, the strict Correspondence which the Muscovites keep with the Patriarch of Constantinople, and the Schismatics of Greece, who being mortal Enemies to the Holy See, and getting the greatest Part of their Subsistence from the Contributions of the Muscovites, and knowing that if they should be reunited to the Church of Rome, those Contributions would be at an end, leave nothing unattempted to bring them off from such a Design.

The Second Reason is, That all the Proposals which have been made hitherto for a Reunion, did only proceed from political Ends ; the Czar having a mind to make himself King of Poland, and offering upon that Condition to reunite his Subjects to the Church of Rome. But because the Poles hate the Domination of the Muscovites, and are afraid that the great Power of that Nation might endanger their Liberty, they have always refused to elect that Prince for their King ; and therefore he has quite given over the Thoughts of being reconciled to the Holy See. Besides, the Wars between the Poles and Muscovites have increased the Aversion of the latter to a Reunion.

The Third Reason why that Reunion has met with so many Difficulties, is the not using proper Means to effect it. For, the Holy See having no other Persons, that understood the Greek Rites, and the Customs and Language of the Muscovites, but the Russian Monks of Poland reunited to the Church of Rome, they have been from Time to Time entrusted with that Negotiation. But, whether it be that the Muscovites suspected those Monks, as being their Enemies, or that the latter were afraid of giving some Jealousy to the Poles, by their Intercourse with the Muscovites, 'tis certain they have managed that Negotiation very slowly, and rather by political Considerations, than with a Design to promote the Good of the Church. Nay, Rome it self did not express a sufficient Zeal, when a Motion was made from Time to Time for a Reunion. To give a late Instance of it; Some Years ago an Envoy came from Muscovy: He was a Learned Man, and a very good Scotch Catholick, who had been bred in the College of that Nation at Douay. He offered to settle a Correspondence between the Court of Rome and that of Muscovy; but because he would have the Title of Czar to be given to his King, which has a great Affinity with the Word Cæsar, that belongs only to the Emperor, his Request was denied him. Whereupon he left Rome, and returned into Muscovy, to give an Account of his Commission to his Prince, who caused him to be imprisoned for a long Time. That Prince is now dead, and has been succeeded by his Son. Upon that Occasion, we were informed of some Particulars, that may very much contribute to the Good of the Church, and encourage Your Holiness to resume the Design of that Reunion. That Prince was highly displeased with the Patriarch of Constantinople, who having sent some Bishops into Muscovy, to make a Gathering, it was found out that they were Spies for the Turks. Whereupon he expelled them from his Dominions, and forbad his People to have any Correspondence with the Patriarch and the Greeks, subject to the Grand Signor. Afterwards, considering that his Bishops could not Govern the Church without some Supreme Authority, he intended to be reunited to Rome, and was very much much confirmed in that Design by Pantaleon, who was Director of that Prince in Matters of Religion. This Pantaleon had lived in the Greek College at Rome; and having got himself Consecrated Archbishop of Gaza by the Schismatical Patriarch, he grew very suspicious to the Congregation, though he had expressed a great Respect for the Church of Rome upon all Occasions, and exhorted the Greeks to be reconciled to it. From whence it appears, that it would have been of great Service to the Church, to have treated Him with the utmost Civility, and all possible Kindness: since He had already cured that People of many Abuses, and put a Stop to many Horrid Blasphemies against the Holy See. Thus it is manifest, that we have lost a very fair Opportunity, not only of Settling a Correspondence with the Court of Muscovy; but also of Sending thither an Apostolical Minister, whom that Prince offered to entertain in the same manner, as his Envoy had been at Rome. This would have been very Glorious to the Holy See; and because the Muscovites were then displeased with the Patriarch of Constantinople, and engaged in a War with the Turks, a Treaty might have been entered upon, to the great Advantage of the Catholic Faith. We were also informed by the same Envoy, that a Caravan of Merchants sets out every Year from Muscovy, to go into China through the Asiatick Tartary; by which means we might, with the greatest Convenience, have sent our Missionaries into that Vast Country, and so might have had a good Account, which we never yet had, of all Tartary, and other Parts of the Northern Asia; which has, in effect, been abandoned, and neglected, for many Ages.

be

C R I M

C R I M T A R T A R Y.

C*rim Tartary* has a King of its own, called Kan, who is obliged to serve the Grand Signor in his Wars : He is a Mahometan, and of the Ottoman Family. His Subjects are very Cruel in War ; but in Time of Peace they don't appear to be so barbarous, nor great Enemies to the Christian Name. St. Dominick designed to go and Preach the Gospel in that Kingdom ; and to that end, began to let his Beard grow ; but he was prevented by Death. Afterwards several Polish Monks of his Order set out for that Country, where they did not only serve those poor Slaves, who are kept in great Numbers by the Tartars at Cassa, it being the Commodity, which they continually send to Constantinople ; but also went through the whole Country, to comfort the other Catholick Slaves with the Administration of the Sacraments. That Mission is now quite forsaken ; whether it be, that the ill Treatment of the Tartars has frightened those Religious ; (And indeed, when Monsignor Pignatelli was Nuncio in Poland, he saved the Life of Three Monks, who had been taken for Spies, by the King's Interest with the Kan, to whom he was then allied :) Or whether it be, that no body will undertake such a Mission. But it would be necessary to revive it, not only in order to assist the Slaves, but because Cassa is a Port full of Merchants of all Nations, and particularly of Armenians : And the safest Way the Missionaries could take to go thither, would be from Constantinople through the Black Sea. If the Dominicans should refuse to perform that Mission, some other Order should be entrusted with it :

D

The

The more, because in a Town called Ferala, not far distant from Cassa, there are still some Remains of the Ancient Genoese Families ; viz. Dona, Spinola, Giustiniani, Grimaldi, and others, who enjoy many Privileges, and are very rich ; but they have no Catholick Priests.

ILLYRIA.

Hungary, Transilvania, Walachia, Moldavia, Bosnia, Bulgaria, Albania, Dalmatia, and several other Provinces, come under the General Name of Illyria ; or the Illyricum of the Ancients.

HUNGARY.

TO begin with that Part of Hungary belonging to the Turks : The Emperor, by Virtue of a Concession made by Silvester II. to St. Stephen, the First King of that Country, and afterwards enlarged for King Ladislaus by Urban II. maintains himself in the Possession of Nominating to the Bishopricks, though all the Elected Bishops keep at the Imperial Court, being contented with a bare Title, without minding their Dioceses. And indeed, excepting the Archbishop of Strigonia, a very Zealous Prelate, and the Bishop of Agria, who have taken great Pains for the Propagation of the Faith among the Rebellious Hereticks and the Turks, they can do but little Good. The Bishoprick of Belgrade is in the Nomination of the Holy See ; and the Congregation chuses the Bishop, to whom they give the Administration of the Church of Sirmium, and, with the Title

He of Apostolical Vicar, the Care of the other Churches deprived of Residence, which are situated between the Drave, the Savé, the Danube, and the Tesse, as far as Temiswar. The Bishop of Belgrade gave Notice in the Year 1672, that there were in that City Six Hundred Catholics, and among them many Merchants of Ragusa, who have a Church well furnished with Paraments, and served by Two Franciscans, to whom they give Meat and Drink, as well as to the Bishop, who has no House, nor any Revenue. The Holy Congregation gave last Year Five Hundred Pieces of Eight, to contribute to the Rebuilding of that Church, which had been burned down; and the Ragussians themselves had Leave from the Port to rebuild it, tho' the Mahometan Superstition does not generally permit such a Thing.

The County of Sirmium, one of the Churches, the Administration whereof is committed to the Bishop of Belgrade, contains, besides the Towns, Twelve Villages or Parishes, and Twenty one Thousand Six Hundred Catholics, under the Care of Eight Minor Observants, and Four Secular Priests, reckoning the Vicar-General. The Emperor has now nominated a Bishop for the Church of Sirmium; but that Nomination has not been admitted by the Congregation. In the other Bishopricks administered by the Bishop of Belgrade, as being Apostolical Vicar, there are above Twenty six Thousand Catholics, assisted in Spiritual Things only by the Monks of the Province of Bosnia. Two Years ago, Clement X. provided with that Bishoprick Father Matthew B —, a Minor Observant, and a Young Man of Sound Morals, who might have done a great deal of Good in those Parts, by the Interest and Power of his Brothers; but because he was not of a requisite Age, his Consecration was put off.

Father John de Berienta, a Minor Observantia, is now there, with the Title of Apostolical Vicar. But so great a Church among the Infidels wants a Pastor; for the Congregation will not suffer the Bishops, nominated by the Emperor, to meddle with the Affairs of that Church, whilst they do not reside in it. There is also in that Part of Hungary, the County of S —, which contains Sixteen small Towns, with some Villages, belonging to Poland.

And because the Exercise of the Catholick Religion was altogether prohibited in Thirteen of those Towns, wholly infected with the Lutheran Heresy; Monsignor Pignatelli, who was then Nuncio in Poland, prevailed with King Casimir, to have some Missionaries sent thither; which was executed; (the Fathers of St. Paul, first Hermit; and of the Scoole Pie, are still there;) and the Preachers were expelled: Which was brought to pass likewise by the Assistance of the Archbishop of Strigonia.

T R A N S I L V A N I A.

There are several Sects in Transylvania; but the principal are the Lutheran, the Calvinistical, and the Arian: There are also a great many Catholics; and all of them, both Catholics and Hereticks, make a Shew of a Sort of Union, when the New Prince makes his Entry, to which He also is obliged to swear. The rest, who are Puritans, or Sabbatarians, live occultly. In some Places, there are Schismatical Greeks, most of them Peasants, who have a Bishop. The whole Province contains Seventy two Parishes, pretty well served. All the Catholics are under the Care of the Apostolical Vicar, Monsignor Idemokoy, Bishop of Corona, a very very worthy and careful Prelate, upon whom the Congregation does entirely rely. But because he does not enjoy a good Health, he desires to have for his Coadjutor, Father John Cajone, whom he affirms to be an Excellent Religious, and a Learned Preacher, and who is very well beloved in that Country. There are also Two School-Masters; the one at Sik, and the other at Szmakasa; from whence it appears that Religion is upon a good Foot in that Country. I must not pass over in silence, that several Towns of the Lutherans and Calvinists, having been destroyed by a great Fire in Transilvania, they pretend that the Pope has sent some Men to burn them; which makes People very apprehensive; and for this very Reason no Catholick Priest can get into Crona, the Capital City of that Province.

W A L A C H I A.

Walachia is governed by a Prince, set over that Country by the Grand Signor. He must always be a Schismatical Greek, his Subjects being Greeks. They have a Metropolitan, and many Calogers of St. Basil's Order, dispersed in several Convents, whose Superiors are chosen by the Prince himself. The Schismatical Patriarchs, and particularly that of Jerusalem, make great gatherings in that Country. There are also at the Prince's Court, many Lutherans and Calvinists, most of them Transilvanians, besides many Jews and Turks. Many Catholicks are dispersed through that Principality. They were heretofore governed by the Archbishop of Sophia, and now by Father Antonio Stefani, his Vicar. They expect with great impatience Father Stefano Conti, a Minor
D 3 Obser-

Observantini, and a very good Man, whom your Holiness has been pleased to appoint for their Successor. There is also in Walachia a Mission of Minor Observantini, who are Bulgarians, and have been in a great Measure ruined by the Tartars. The Vicar above-mentioned has lately begged of the Holy See some Money to rebuild the Church at Bugoreffo, where the Prince makes his Residence. Many Catholics of several Nations flock thither to serve him; either at Court, or in the Army. The same Vicar adds, That the Country being ruined by the War, 'tis impossible to raise any Charity Money; and he beseeches the Congregation to send him Two or Three Monks of his own Order, and of good Morals, and good Learning, that he may instruct those Children whom the Schismatics themselves, and the most considerable Persons will send to his School, to the great Advantage of the Catholick Religion.

M O L D A V I A.

Moldavia, so called from a River that runs through it, was taken by Solyman from Stephen the Good, who, though a Schismatick, had a Catholick Wife. She was an Hungarian, and did no small Service to our Religion. The Catholics have Nineteen Churches; That of Cosma is the only one that has an Income to keep a Priest. The others cannot maintain the Missionaries, not only because their Revenues have been seized by the Schismatics, but also because the War has reduced the Catholics to the greatest Misery; and therefore they beg a Yearly Allowance from the Congregation. There are now in Moldavia Two Priests of that Country, and Three Franciscans, who who having lived there Thirteen Years, desire to return into Italy, as Father Vito Pilatii did, after he had been there Twenty Three Years, to the great Satisfaction of that People, and of the Congregation. A new Prefect, and Six other Monks of the same Order, are now going into that Country; and 'tis hoped they will do a great deal of good; when they have learned the Language. The Church of Bacovia was the Residence of the Bishop; but it has been destroyed by the overflowing of the River. The Prince, though a Schismatick, being well affected towards the Latins, by the Means of his Secretary, (who is a Native of Caminiac, and a good Catholick,) and of Father Vico, has ordered the Building of a New Church in a more convenient Place. He was settled in that Country not long ago by the Grand Signor in the Room of another, who was a great Enemy to the Catholicks; and therefore we may very well hope for great Advantages to the Church. It is an usual Thing to promote to the Bishoprick above-mentioned; which was erected by Clement VIII. those that are recommended to the Holy See by the Kings of Poland, as the present King has lately recommended a Dominican to your Honours. But because that Dominican would probably imitate his Predecessors, who did not reside in that Bishoprick the greatest part of the Time, the Congregation designs to send thither Father Pilatii above mentioned, with the Character of Bishop in Partibus, as they have frequently done, and even lately in the Person of the Archbishop of Marcianapoli, who is now Dead. There are in Moldavia Four Thousand Catholicks. The other Inhabitants are Schismatical Greeks, and have a Metropolitan, and Three Bishops, who, besides the Common Errors, are guilty of several others. They grant a Divorce for Money, and Liberty to Marry other Women; they permit Concubinage, provided a certain Sum of Money be paid in Lent-Time; and they say that whoever re-baptizes a Catholick according to their Rites, obtains the Pardon of his Sins. Nay, a wicked Schismatical Prince, whose Name was Stefaniza, forced all the Catholicks to be re-baptized, (many of which returned to the Catholick Faith after his Death,) and destroyed many Churches. There are also several Armenians, Lutherans, and Jews, in Moldavia. Some Jesuits were heretofore at Fassi, and did a great deal of good; but the Wars obliged them to leave that Town. The Nuncio of Poland writes; that those Fathers design to return thither; which would be very Advantageous for the Instruction of the Youth, that goes to their Schools.

B O S N I A.

Bosnia was formerly Part of Dalmatia, and together with it came by Succession to the Kings of Hungary. Afterwards in the Year 1463, the Turks conquered it under Mahomet II. Caposerraglio is a very Populous City, without Walls, and the Residence of the Basha: A great many People resort thither from all Parts, for the sake of Trade. There are about a Thousand Catholicks, who maintain some Priests at their own Charges. The Minor Observantins have Eighteen Convents in that Country, which is the richest Province of St. Francis, but the most relaxed. Those Monks are so bent against the Secular Clergy; for fear of losing the Revenues of the Parishes, with which they maintain their Convents, that all the Orders from Rome against their Conduct in this Point, would prove insignificant; and those Religious would would rather expose the Clergy to the Persecution of the Turks. This Abuse is therefore tolerated, to avoid a greater Evil. The Congregation has appointed some Places in Italy for a certain Number of those Fryars, that they may learn the Sciences, and then return into Bosnia to teach the Novices; and the King of Spain allows them some Money out of the Wine-Excise in Naples. The Bishop, who is a Monk of the same Order, and has lately been at Rome, lives among those Fryars; but there is no good Correspondence between them. These Monks keep up Factions, and Domestic Diffensions, even so far as to accuse sometimes the Bishop, and sometimes their Companions, before the Turkish Judges, who cannot desire a better Opportunity to get Money from them, and to ruin their Convents. All their Quarrels have been decided by the Congregation; but the Bishop does not appear satisfied with this Decision, pretending that his Jurisdiction is too much limited. That Bishop was made by Clement IX. at the Nomination of the Emperor, as King of Hungary; and yet his Bishoprick is not included in the Ten Bishopricks founded by St. Stephen, the First King. The same Prelate receives a Hundred Rials from the Chamber of Hungary, which, together with what he has from the Parishes and Convents, enable him to live handsomely.

S A N T A S A B A.

THE next Country Eastward, is the Dutchy of Santa Saba, a large Province, where there are some Catholics, confined within the Dioceses of Macafcha and Trebigne. Those Dioceses are provided with Pastors, as well as that of Scardona, which which receives Two Hundred Crowns from the Congregation; and there are in it some Fryars to serve the Parish.

B U L G A R I A.

IN Bulgaria, the Holy Congregation maintains the Archbishop of Sophia (or Sardica) with the Cure of Walachia. The Minor Observants are the only Clergy of that Country. They are Bulgarians, and being but few, and well disciplined, they prove better than those of Bosnia. They take Care of the Parishes, and are paid, together with a Schoolmaster, by the Congregation. They have also some Places appointed for them in Italy for their Studies. Some Years ago the Cathedral was burned down; and the Monks have so far prevailed with the Turkish Court, by the Interest of the Catholick Ambassadors, that with a Present of a Thousand Crowns, they have obtained the Liberty of Rebuilding that Church, though the Mahometan Laws do not allow of it. The Mission of those Religious reaches also to the Lower Hungary; and when they have a good Superior, they do a great deal of good. There are in Bulgaria many Places inhabited by the Catholicks, and particularly Chiprouaz, a large Tract of Ground, which contains Four Thousand Catholicks, and has a Church in it. The Faithful have had the good Fortune of being allowed to Rebuild it, because that Place is much respected by the Turks, the Publick Revenues of it belonging to the Syrtaness Mother pro tempore, who takes Care to Protect the Inhabitants, securing them from the Insults of the Turks, and procuring them the Enjoyment of several other Privileges.

T H R A C E.

T H R A C E.

THE Paulinists, a Sect of Hereticks, who had no Sacraments, and were great Enemies to the Cross, have been converted in this Country by Father Peter Deodato, Archbishop of Sophia, and live in the Bishoprick of Nicopoli. The Congregation maintains here some Priests, besides a Bishop, who being lately Dead, has been succeeded by Father Antonio Stefani, a Minor Observant. The Church of Nicopoli is very Antient, and its strong Situation in a hollow Place will for ever prevent its falling to the Ground.

S E R V I A.

TH E R E are but few Catholicks in Servia, dispersed through the Villages. In the last Visitation they were found to amount to the Number of One Thousand Two Hundred and Sixty. The Catholicks were heretofore more Numerous ; but many have renounced the Christian Faith to avoid the Tributes and Vexations of the Turks. There are about Eight Parishes in this Country ; and the Priests are maintained by the Congregation. Monsignor Vogdani, a Man of Fourscore Years, is Archbishop of Scopia, the Chief Town of Servia. That Prelate has been very negligent, and has lately desired your Holiness to give him leave to resign his Archbishoprick to the Bishop of Scutari his Nephew, which has been granted him. 'Tis to be hoped this Church will be better governed by the Nephew. The Congregation
in

in the Year 1674, put an End to the Disorders, which prevailed in that Diocese, by turning out the Priests, who did not officiate. They also took Care to send thither Altar Ornaments, which were very much wanted.

Here I cannot forbear observing how great a Benefit the Catholick Religion reaps from the Zeal of the Ragusians in Bosnia, Bulgaria, Servia, and other Neighbouring Countries. For among other Privileges granted them by the Grand Signor, to whom they pay a Yearly Tribute, they have many Colonies in those Provinces, and several Churches, wherein Divine Service is publicly performed by their Chaplains, not only for the Natives, but also for Foreigners. Those Churches are at Belgrade, Ruscik, Silistria, Provato, Adrianople, Sophia, Procupia, and Houipassar, where the Catholics are not only free from many Tributes and Vexations of the Turks, but also from the Extortions of Schismatical Bishops, countenanced by the Port.

A L B A N I A.

Albania was formerly a Catholick Kingdom; but after the Death of the Famous Scanderberg, who did so gloriously Sway the Scepter, it fell under the Dominion of the Turks: Hence it is that the greatest Part of the Inhabitants have embraced Mahometism. Would to God that this Sect should not continually increase! But alas! whole Towns declare for it. There are now in that Kingdom Two Archbishopricks, and Four Bishopricks, filled up by the Congregation.

The Archbishoprick of Antivari contains Three Hundred Sixty Seven Catholick Families, which make make up Two Thousand Two Hundred Seventy Souls. The Archbishop who Resides there, is D. Andrew Smajewich; He has been bred in the Italian College, and is a Man of great Vertue and Integrity, upon whom the Congregation does entirely rely.

The Bishoprick of Durazzo contains about a Thousand and Sixty Catholick Families, which make Thirteen Thousand Six Hundred and Fifty Souls. D. Gerard Galata is the Archbishop; We have had no edifying News about him; he is grown very Violent and Interested.

The Bishoprick of Alessio is divided into Upper and Lower, that is, into the Mountainous Part, and the Plain. There are in it Nine Hundred Catholick Families, which make up Seven Thousand Souls. We have had sad News about the Bishop, who is D. George Uladigni, viz. That he is an Interested Man; that he takes no Care to have the Christian Doctrine taught; and that he has frequently exasperated the Turks, having built a strong House in St. Nicolas's Parish, which they have lately burned.

The Bishoprick of Pullari contains Five Hundred and Eighty Catholick Families. which make up Four Thousand and Fifty Persons. The Bishop has been a Prisoner these many Years in the Castle of St. Angelo, because he was a Turbulent Man, and because his Faith was doubted of. The Congregation allows him Ten Crowns a Month for his Diet; and the Administration of his Bishoprick has been committed to the Bishop of Sappe.

There are in the Bishoprick of Scutari Two Thousand One Hundred and Sixty Four Catholick Families, making in all Twenty Thousand Two Hundred and Sixty People. The last Bishop was D. Peter Vogdani, Nephew to the Archbishop bishop of Scopia above-mentioned : He has been promoted to the Archbishoprick of Scopia, and D. Domitick Babick has succeeded him.

The Bishoprick of Sappe contains a Thousand Seventy five Catholick Families, and Nine Thousand Two Hundred and thirty Souls. The Bishop, D. Stefano Gaspari, who has been bred in the Italian College, was Visited in Albania, in the Year 1671.

Besides these Bishops, the Congregation has appointed many Secular Priests in the Parishes, with the Title of Missionaries, and a yearly Allowance. The Congregation has also set up a Mission of Reformed, to the Number of Twelve Priests, dispersed through the Villages, to administer the Sacraments to those poor Souls. Besides the Missions just now mentioned, which depend upon the Congregation, there are in Albania Three Convents of Minor Observantini, under a Provincial. And in order to mend many Faults of the Missionaries and Bishops of that Country, D. Stefano Gaspari abovementioned was sent thither in the Quality of Visitor, in the Year 1671 ; and then he was made Bishop of Sappe. Many Churches were provided with Paraments ; and the Bishops censured those Missionaries, who were loose and negligent. Moreover, to prevent the Ignorance of the Sacraments in that Country, a College was founded by the Congregation at Fermo, where the Albanians study Grammar, and Cases of Conscience, and then are sent Home. There is such another College at Loreto, under the Direction of the Jesuits.

C I M A R R A.

This Province borders upon Albania. The Inhabitants are Grecians, reunited to the Latin Church; and because they live in the Mountains, they are little afraid of the Turks. The Congregation keeps there the Bishop of Messabia, and gives him a yearly Allowance: That Prelate desires to be dismissed, by reason of his Indispositions. There is also in that Country a Schoolmaster, maintained by the Congregation.

O C R I D A.

There is in this Country a Patriarch, or Great Archbishop, called the Archbishop of Jussians. He was a Schismatick, and turned Catholick with many of his People. In the Time of Alexander VII. he came to Rome, where he was kindly received by his Holiness. A Latin Archbishop did also reside in Ocrida; but because there are few Catholicks of the Latin Rite in that Country, the Administration of that Archbishoprick was committed to the Archbishop of Scopia, as being nearer.

D A L M A T I A.

D*almatia* and Croatia are under the Dominion of several Princes: The In-land Country belongs to the Turks, the Maritime to the Republick lick of Venice, and the Northern to the Emperor. In the Two last there are Bishops : Some of their Dioceses reach as far as the Turkish Dominions ; and the new Bishop of Nona desires to have some Missionaries sent to him, for the good of those poor Christians who are under the Turkish Yoke. The Congregation maintains a Secular Priest at Cutaro, for the Instruction of the Strians of the Greek Rite, and another for the Morlachiens in the Diocese of Spulano. Before the Wars of the Venetians, there were Three Hospices, (a Sort of Hospital for Monks) of Reformed Missionaries at Pelastro, Lustina, and La Rosa, which proved very beneficial to those Christians ; but they have been quite forsaken, and all the Goods carried to the Hospice of Cutaro. After the Peace, the Missionaries did never return thither. Thus that Part of Dalmatia subject to the Turks, is in a sad Condition, there being but one Priest at Peraſto, who administers the Sacraments but seldom every Year. Wherefore, not to leave those Christians without Spiritual Comforts, it would be very proper to set up again that Mission ; and to that end, the Archbishop of Antivari, who was heretofore Abbot of Peraſto, might be consulted, in order to get some Information from him. Monsignor Royds, Bishop of Fina, or Finis, (called Chlinin in the Sclavonian Language) who has been nominated to that Bishoprick by the Emperor, as King of Hungary, is lately arrived at Rome, and has given a full Account of his Diocese, which reaches as far as Sebenico. He says, there are in it above Eight Thousand Catholics, governed in Spiritual Things only by Four or Five Minor Observantins of the Convent of Visouar, situated in the Diocese of Scardona. That Prelate has made his Application to Your Holiness, for some necessary cessary Supplies to take Care of those Souls ; and they have been granted to him.

G R E E C E.

GR E E C E is divided into Four Provinces, viz. Macedonia, Epirus, Achaia, and Morea: Though the greatest Part of Romania might be called Greece, as likewise the Isles of the Archipelago. All the Christians of Greece are Greek Schismatics; and there is no Essential Difference among them. 'Tis true, that under the Turkish Yoke Christianity has lost its Ground, the Towns have been depopulated, and Churches utterly destroyed; so that the Turks are much more numerous in Greece than the Greeks. As for the Catholicks, their Number is extremely small, and they have no Spiritual Comfort; for the Missionaries, who have been sent into that Country at several times, were never able to get a Footing in it. However, those few Catholicks receive some Assistance from the Conventuals of Corfu, and the French Capuchins, who are in the Archipelago. 'Tis very strange that so many Greeks, educated in the Greek College at Rome, should not contribute in the least to bring the Schismatics into the Bosom of Holy Mother Church. On the contrary, many turn Schismatics again, and become more violent Enemies to the Catholicks, after they have learned our Sciences, and are acquainted with our Imperfections. To give an Instance of it; Paianotto, a Schismatical Bishop, (and heretofore the Grand Visier's Interpreter,) who was educated in our Greek College, has proved the greatest Persecutor of the Catholicks, and contrived false Writings to deprive them of the Holy Sepulchre. In short;

all the Levant, as it appears from the Letters that come from thence, desires that this College should be suppressed. It were therefore to be wished, that Your Holiness would get it Visited, in order to find out, (if it be possible,) what may be the Cause of such Disappointments. Nor would it be amiss to consult the Greek Archbishop, who resides here for Ordinations : He might give good Information, as knowing the College and the Nation, though he is not very well beloved by the Fathers of that College.

A R C H I P E L A G O.

THE ARCHIPELAGO contains many Islands ; but I shall only mention those, wherein there are Catholics, Latin Bishops, and Missionaries, according to the Account, which has been given of them by the Bishop of Castello in the last Visitation.

NAXIA is the Metropolis, where the Latin Archbishop resides with his Chapter and Clergy. There are in that Island many Convents of Regulars, viz. of Capuchins, Minor Observantins, and Jesuits, besides several Fraternities of Lay People ; and Divine Service is publicly performed there. We have received sad News about the present Archbishop, who has been frequently censured by the Congregation ; and the People of Naxia, the Jesuits, and the Capuchins, have made heavy Complaints against him.

PAROS is a Church united to Naxia ; and there are few Catholics in it. A Missionary, main-

Roman-Catholick Religion. 51

maintained by the Congregation, performs the Part of a Chaplain at St. George's of Augusta.

SCIRO contains about Four Thousand Catholics. The present Bishop is Monsignor Gnavo, who has been prosecuted in the Congregation these many Years for some Offences; and though they are not sufficiently proved to deprive him of his Bishoprick, yet they have moved the Congregation to send into that Island D. Tomaso Badato, in the Quality of Apostolical Vicar, who was formerly bred in the College of Rome. There is a Chapter, and a Clergy, in Sciro, and but one Parish, which is the Cathedral. There are also Capuchins, and Nuns of the Third Order of St. Francis, and of the Third Order of St. Dominick, who do not live in Cloysters, and are under the Direction of the said Capuchins. The Congregation has ordered the New Visitor of the Archipelago to proceed against some scandalous Priests.

TINE, or TENO, is an Island of Forty Miles in Compass, belonging to the Republick of Venice. It contains a City and Twenty Eight Villages, inhabited by Eight Thousand Latins, and Four Thousand Greeks. There is a Latin Bishop in that Island. The present Bishop is Monsignor Veniero, a Noble Venetian, and an Excellent Prelate, to whom the Greeks, being most of them reunited, are also subject in Spiritualibus. The Latin Clergy consist of Six Canons, and Twenty four Priests, against whom no Complaints have been made to the Congregation, by reason of the good Government of the Bishop; and therefore that Prelate deserves great Praises and Rewards.

MICONE is divided from Tine by a narrow Chancel. Though there are few Catholics in that Island, yet a Parish Priest has been settled in it by the Bishop of Tine just now mentioned. That Priest is a Man of Sound Morals; and has done a great deal of Good to his Church.

ANDROS is an Island of a Hundred and five Miles in Compass, and lies near Negropont. There are few Catholics in it. D. Ignatio Rosa, formerly educated in the Greek College of Rome, was elected Bishop of Andros last Year by the Congregation; but as soon as he arrived there, he began to complain that he could not live upon a Yearly Allowance of Sixty Crowns given him by the Congregation; and therefore the Visitor's Account of that Island is expected, that this Bishop may be better provided; the more, because we have lately heard, that he has been made a Slave by the Corfsairs of Barbary, and redeemed for a great Sum of Money.

SANTERINE is Thirty six Miles in Circuit: It has a Bishop and a Chapter. Besides the Cathedral, there are Four other Parishes. The Number of the Latins does not amount to a Thousand; but there are Ten Thousand Greeks, pretty well affected towards the Catholic Religion, and the Richest are reunited. There is also a Church belonging to the Jesuits, and a Monastery of the Order of St. Catharine of Siena. The Cathedral has been very much damaged by an Earthquake; and therefore they have often desired some Assistance in order to repair it.

SIFANTO is an Island of Thirty Miles. There are in it Four Latin Churches, but few Catholics;

tholicks ; and therefore the Spiritual Administration of that Island was given to the Bishop of Milo, who did sometimes Reside in it : But because he took no great Care of it, that Administration was given last Year to D. Francisco Santavi.

ZE A and TER MIA are Two small Islands, which make Part of the Diocese of Sifanto. The Number of the Catholicks is very inconsiderable. The Congregation keeps there a Missionary, with a Promise of a Yearly Allowance of Thirty Ducats. Besides, that Church has got a Legacy for Two Masses to be said every Week ; and the Bishop of Time is intrusted with the Management of that Legacy.

In MIL O, or ME L O S, there are not many Catholicks ; but that Island is very much frequented by Foreigners. There is a Bishop and a Chapter, with a Convent of Capuchins. The Congregation has received bad News about that Bishop, and they often put him in Mind of his Duty.

In ARGENTIER A, subject to the Bishop just now mentioned, there is a Parish Priest, who has the Title of Missionary, and is maintained by the Congregation. He was lately turned out, because he did little Good.

SCIO, or CHIO, is one of the best Islands of the Archipelego, and a Hundred and Twenty Miles in Compass. It has Seventy Two small Towns, and a great City of the same Name, containing Twenty Thousand Inhabitants, viz. Five Thousand Latins, Nine Thousand Five Hundred Greeks, Five Thousand Turks, and Five Hundred Jews, besides Foreigners, who Trade there ; but the Latins are the most considerable. The present Bishop being a Man of Fourscore Years, and very infirm, the Congregation thought fit to give him a Coadjutor, with whom he cannot agree: He is not able to perform the Ecclesiastical Functions, and will not suffer the Coadjutor to do it for him. The Clergy of this Bishoprick, in which there is no Chapter, nor any Dignity, consist only of Priests; but there are several Convents of Reformed, and of Dominicans, Capuchins, and Jesuits, who do a great deal of Good. The Dominicans have under their Direction some Nuns, who live at Home: They belong to the best Families, and lead an Exemplary Life. The Greek Metropolitan does also Reside in this Island, and keeps a good Correspondence with the Latins.

Great Disorders continually arise in those Islands; which is the Reason why the Congregation sends thither a Visitor every Ten Years; and to that end Cardinal Giustiniani left to the Congregation a Legacy of Fifty Ducats a Year. Accordingly the Bishop of Hierapoli, now Bishop of the City of Castello, went thither Ten Years ago, and his Visitation proved very Beneficial to all those Churches. This present Year, the Bishop of Fine, above-mentioned, has been deputed thither upon the same Account; and the Congregation has sent him an exact Memorial of what he is to do for the Good of those Catholics, that he may give a full Relation of all the Disorders, and point out the Remedies, which ought to be applied to them.

C A N D I A, is the last Island that remains to be mentioned. It is exposed to the Tyranny of the Turks and Schismatics; and therefore some Missionaries should be sent thither, to preserve those few Catholics that are in it. The Holy Congre-

Congregation received at the End of the Year 1676, a Letter from one Andrew Barozzi, a Native of Candia, importing, that upon the Surrender of the City of that Name, all the Catholicks went away with the Venetian General, having a Promise that they should be maintained elsewhere ; and that when they came to Zante, they were deprived of all sorts of Provisions, and forced to return into Candia, and to be Tributaries to the Turk. He added, That there was no Latin Church, nor any Latin Priest in that Island, and humbly begged of the Congregation, in the Name of all the Catholicks, that the Guardian of Jerusalem should be ordered to send thither Two Religious, in the Quality of Missionaries. He further said, That the Catholicks would take Care to provide them with Meat and Drink, Cloaths, Lodging, and all other Necessaries ; and that they were more desirous to have Two Monks of that Order, than any others, because the Turks allow them a greater Liberty, and the Catholicks have an extraordinary Veneration for them. Whereupon this Affair being proposed to the Congregation, in the Presence of Your Holiness, the necessary Orders were given to Cardinal Barberini, who has sent into Candia Two Minor Observantins from Rome.

R O M A N I A.

CONSTANTINOPLE, (the usual Residence of the Grand Signor,) contains a vast Multitude of People of all Nations and Religions. The Number of the Latins does not amount to a Thousand : Most of them are Merchants, and live at Galata, or Pera ; and the Publick Ministers of the Christian Princes make their abode among them.

them. The Congregation keeps a Bishop at Constantinople, with the Title of Vicar Patriarchal. The last was Monsignor Ridolfi, of the March of Ancona, (a Minor Conventual;) who, by Reason of his Indispositions, having obtained leave to return into Italy, died before the Arrival of his Successor; Father Gasparini of the Province of Fano, heretofore Provincial in that Convent, and a Person well qualified for such a Ministry, as we are informed by Father Lauria. He is already set out for his Residence. There are many Churches at Constantinople; and the Republick of Venice obtained some Years ago the Liberty of Re-building St. Francis's Church, which had been burned down ever since the Year 1639, and is now in a good Condition. The Vicar Patriarchal above-mentioned performs the Episcopal Functions at Constantinople, and has the Direction of the Monks, who Administer the Sacraments to the Latins, and the Slaves. Nothing else is permitted, by Reason of the Turkish Tyranny, or the Obstinacy of the Greeks, whose Patriarchate is become Vénal; and the Grand Signor chuses and turns out the Patriarchs of Constantinople, whenever he pleases. In short, those Greeks undergo a dreadful Slavery, ever since they separated from the Church of Rome, through the Schism occasioned, not so much by the Doctrine, as by the horrid Malice of Photius, who brought in that great Dissension between the Western and Eastern Churches. And though the Reunion was established in the Council of Florence, yet it was not maintained, through the Malice and Obstinacy of the Greeks. Besides, the Turks themselves will always prevent it.

P O L A N D.

P O L A N D.

HAVING discoursed of those Catholicks, who live in the States of Heretical Princes, and under the Dominion of Infidels, I proceed to give an Account of those Infidels and Hereticks, who live in the States of Catholick Princes : And in the First Place of those, who are allowed to have a free Exercise of their Religion. I shall say nothing of the Jews, who are but too much tolerated in the greatest Part of Christendom.

There is in POLAND a great Number of Greeks of the Russian Rite, consisting of those who are reunited to the Church of Rome, and of those who are Schismatics ; and all of them have their Bishops. The former were reconciled to the Holy See in the Time of Pope Clement VIII, and are under the Spiritual Government of the Metropolitan of Kiowia, the Archbishop of Ploscow, and the Bishops of Chelm, Presmilja, and ——— . They have several Convents of Monks of St. Basil, who not contented to preserve the Reunion, promote it as much as they can. Thirty Parishes were reconciled to the Holy Catholick Church Two Years ago, and another lately in the Palatinate of Novogrod. The Curate of this last Parish, (which is very remarkable,) and Three Thousand People are turned Catholicks ; and in another Parish, after the Death of the Schismatical Curate, they have received a new one sent by the Metropolitan. Nay, at this present Time we are informed, that the Russian Schismatical Bishop of Leopol has professed the Catholick Faith ; and therefore one may reasonably expect a new Progress every Day. The Holy See supports those reunited Russians, having appointed some Places for their Monks in the Pope's Colleges that are in Poland, and in the Greek College at Rome, where they have also the Church and Hospice of St. Sergius and St. Bavus, and a Yearly Legacy, which the Congregation pays them out of the Estate left by Cardinal St. Onofrio. The Congregation does also allow Two Hundred Ducats a Year to the Metropolitan, and sometimes an extraordinary Assistance to the Bishops, especially when they are in Danger of being oppressed by the Schismatics, as they were some Years ago upon Two Occasions, when the Cossacks taking Advantage of the deplorable Condition the Kingdom of Poland was in, set up several Pretensions extremely prejudicial to the Reunion. But Cardinal Vidoni, Cardinal Marefcotti, and Monsignor Pignatelli, being Nuncios in that Country, overcame the Difficulties, which seemed to be insuperable, with the Instructions, Briefs, and Money sent to them from hence; insomuch that the Schismatics could not succeed in any of their Pretensions. And the Firmness of the King, and Republick, did plainly appear by their refusing to consent to the Pacta, called adjacentia, notwithstanding the War, and the imminent Danger the Kingdom was in.

Holy

From what has been said, it appears, 1. That when the Congregation does seriously prosecute any Business, as they did upon that Occasion, it quickly succeeds with God's Assistance, and the Attempts of the Adversaries come to nothing. 2. It appears from thence, how necessary it is that a Nuncio should have before his Departure very ample Instructions about all the Affairs, wherein the Congregation is concerned in the Country that he goes to; and especially that Your Holiness should charge him to put in Execution the the Orders he is intrusted with, and to have a watchful Eye upon every Thing. I have given such Instructions in my Time to the Nuncios of Poland, Savoy, and Florence, and shall continue to do so for the Time to come. 3. With the help of those Russians, one might have an Inlet from Poland into Muscovy, especially now when Peace and Trade flourish among those Two Nations. If God would be pleased to enlighten the Muscovites, Schism would be suppressed by that Means, not only in the North, but also in the East, because the Patriarch of Constantinople would be deprived of the Contributions which he receives from Muscovy for his Maintenance, and which are brought to him by the Bishops, whom he sends thither, not only for that Purpose, but also to keep up the Schism.

There is also in Poland a whole Nation of Armenians, and most of them live in Leopol. They are Catholicks in the adjacent Parts, (their Rite being approved,) and depend upon the Armenian Archbishop of Leopol, who came to Rome some Years ago, having formerly embraced the Catholick Religion in the Time of Pope Urban VIII. The Congregation allows him Thirty Ducats every Year. He is a very Inconstant and Voluptuous Man; and therefore to secure him and his Nation, the Congregation made him Consecrate in Rome, before his Departure, a Coadjutor, with the Title of Bishop of Epiphania, who has been educated in the College of this City, and is a Man of good Morals. This was the more necessary, because the Schismatical Patriarch of Armenia had already sent to Leopol one Vartanovex, a Schismatical Bishop, to have him made Coadjutor by the People, in the Absence of the Archbishop; and Monsignor Pignatelli took no small Pains to get him expelled from the Kingdom. That Man is now in Rome, where he

he professes the Catholick Religion ; and the Congregation keeps him in Santa Maria Egizjaca with an Allowance of Six Crowns a Month, but does not trust him. In order to preserve the Reunion of those Armenians, the Congregation has founded a College at Leopol under the Direction of the Clerks Regular, to whom it allows Six Hundred Crowns a Year, besides other Allowances for some Priests bred in that College, who serve the Armenian Parishes. Father Clement Galano, a Theatin, did very much contribute to the Reunion of those Armenians, by his great Labour and Indefatigable Industry : He visited those Churches, corrected Abuses and Errors, and introduced the Catholick Doctrine among that People. We have lately received bad News from the Nuncio, about Father Pidon a Frenchman, who is now Rector of that College, and at the same time Superior of the Mission. The Nuncio says, that Father Pidon takes no Care of the College, that he lets Lodgings to Foreigners every Day, and allows too great a Liberty to the Scholars : He adds, That the Archbishop lives a more scandalous Life, than ever he did. Whereupon Your Holiness has ordered the Nuncio to visit that College, and to take Care that the Coadjutor be put in Possession of the Archbishoprick, when the Archbishop dies : Your Holiness has also sent him a Brief for the King, that he may be assisted by that Prince.

Besides the College of Leopol, there are Two other Colleges founded in Poland by Gregory XIII; one at Vilna, under the Direction of the Jesuits, for Twenty Russian and Muscovite Scholars ; and the Apostolical Chamber pays them a Hundred and Fifteen Ducats a Month out of the Revenues of the Datary. The other is at B——, likewise under the Government of the Jesuits, who have a Monthly Allowance of about a Hundred Ducats.

It

It would not be amiss, to order the Nuncio to get those Colleges visited ; for we are informed they are ill governed by those Fathers , and that the Statutes are not observed.

Besides the Schism of the Greeks, and the Errors of the Armenians, Poland is infected with the Heresies of the Calvinists, Anabaptists, and Lutherans. As for the Arians, they have been banished long ago by a General Diet. The Congregation has no other Mission for the Hereticks just now mentioned , but one of the Fathers of St. Paul first Hermit : However , there are many other Missions of Jesuits. It were to be wished some Missions were settled at Dantzick, and in all Prussia, because Heresy prevails more in that Province, than in any Part of Poland.

L I V O N I A.

LIVONIA, situated upon the Baltick Sea , was converted from Idolatry to the Christian Faith by the Knights of the Order of Livonia ; but the Inhabitants are now infected with the Lutheran Heresy. They are partly subject to the King of Sweden , and partly to the King of Poland.

There has been for a long time a great Contest for the Recovery of the Bishoprick of Piltens, situated between Livonia and Curland. It has the Temporal Jurisdiction of Seven Walled Towns, and a good Port upon the Baltick Sea ; and its Revenue amounts to about Forty Thousand Florins a Year. The Inhabitants are Rich in Time of Peace, and enjoy in Poland the same Privileges as the Poles. That Bishoprick was possessed by the Hereticks , to whom it was mortgaged for the Sum

Sum of Thirty Thousand Dollars, by George Westphalus Bishop of that Church, who turned Apostate, having got a Wife, and embraced the Lutheran Heresy. Whereupon Pope Urban gave the Administration of that Church to the Bishop of Vilna, who, by reason of his Old Age, resigned his own Bishoprick to the Pope, and besought his Holiness to confer that of Piken upon Father James Gorter, a Dominican, who would willingly have spent his Estate for the Recovery of that Bishoprick; but because the Bishop of Vilna died, this Affair was laid aside.

In the Year 1665, Duke Michael Radzivil, in order to promote such a Pious Work, and out of a Desire that the said Father should be raised, offered to make an Assignment of Part of his Estate for the Recovery of the Bishoprick. The Nuncio of Poland was ordered to enquire about that Assignment, and whether it concerned all the Successors to the Bishoprick. He answered, that the Assignment consisted of Church-Lands in the Diocese of Vilna, and in the Gift of Duke Radzivil; and that it was only designed for the said Father, and not for the Church: Thus that Assignment came to nothing. Afterwards the Archdeacon of Plescow offered to lay out Thirty Thousand Dollars for the actual Recovery of the Bishoprick, upon Condition that he should be invested with it. Whereupon a Letter was written to the Nuncio, whereby he was ordered to give a full Account of the Matter. The Nuncio answered, that the said Bishoprick, during the Wars with the Muscovites, had been sold to the King of Denmark for Thirty Thousand Dollars by the first Bishop, who had the Temporal and Spiritual Jurisdiction of it; that it was afterwards recovered by Stephen King of Poland, (as being Part of Livonia belonging to him,) with the Money lent him him by the Margrave of Anspach, of the House of Brandenburg; That the said King gave it to the said Margrave, and his Wife, vita durante, reserving to himself the Liberty of Redeeming it; and that the said Princess, having lost her Husband, yielded it, with the King's Consent, to a Nobleman of that Country named Herman Maidel. The said Nuncio added, that the Successor to that Bishoprick being in a declining Age, the Duke of Curland used his utmost Endeavours to make it fall into his Hands, by paying the Thirty Thousand Dollars. But because the Nobility of that Country could not endure to be Subjects to that Duke, the Nuncio prevailed with the King to hinder that Sale; having represented to him, that if that Bishoprick should come into the Hands of Heretical Princes, it would be impossible to recover it for the Time to come. Since this Information from the Nuncio, it does not appear from our Records, that any thing else has been done about that Affair. Wherefore the whole Matter being laid before Your Holiness, You ordered that new Letters should be written, to know what Condition that Bishoprick was in, and which way it might be recovered. Accordingly several Writings and Relations have been sent hither by the present Nuncio, the Substance whereof is as follows; viz. That the Right of the Church is still kept up by the King and Republick, who have admitted several Protestations of the Bishop of Samogitia, the present Administrator of the said Bishoprick; That there are however many Difficulties to recover it, because it is now possessed partly by the Duke of Curland, partly by the Heirs of Maidel, and their Mother-in-Law, as being usufructuary, and partly by some Noblemen of that Country; and that the whole Jurisdiction remains in the Hands of the Duke, whereby the Catho-

Catholicks are very much oppressed. The first Difficulty consists in getting the Thirty Thousand Dollars ; several Ways of doing it having been tried in vain. The Second Difficulty proceeds from the Opposition of the Duke of Curland, who will never part with that Jurisdiction ; and being supported by the Affinity which he has lately contracted with the Elector of Brandenburg, he will leave nothing unattempted to maintain himself in Possession of it : Besides, his Pretension does not appear altogether groundless. Thirdly, This Affair will meet with no less Opposition from the Heirs of Maidel, and the other Noblemen, who are possessed of several considerable Places ; and the Recovery will be the more difficult, not only because several Parts of the Bishoprick have been in Length of Time conveyed to many Persons, and are become their Patrimony, but because in a Transaction between the Kings of Poland and Denmark, it was stipulated, that the Possessors should be kept in their Possessions. It were to be wished, we might have a full Account of the Merits of the Cause, which cannot be had without the Consent of the Republick. Lastly, the Nuncio concludes in the following manner ; viz. That as he takes all possible Care to prevent any further Damage, he will also upon all Occasions endeavour to assist those Catholicks in the Recovery of the said Bishoprick, and keep them from being molested.

We have lately received a Letter from the King, wherein he declares that he will heartily procure the said Recovery, if the Court of Rome can afford him any Assistance towards it.

C U - R

C U R L A N D.

THis Dutchy, situated upon the Baltick Sea, is infected with the Lutheran Heresy. 'Tis true, the Duke is bound, by virtue of some Conventions with the King of Poland, to allow full Liberty of Conscience to the Catholicks in all his Dominions ; and he cannot exclude them from Publick Offices, nor hinder them from having Chapels and Priests for themselves and their Families. But this has not been carefully observed by the Duke, who assumes the Spiritual Jurisdiction ; and the Catholicks are not free from some other Grievances. There are only Four Churches in Curland ; one at Mittaw, (the usual Residence of the Duke,) served by the Jesuits ; the Second at Goldingen. The Duke is obliged to maintain, and repair those Two Churches, and to pay the Curates every Year. The Third is in the Hereditary Lands of some Noblemen, who are all Catholicks, as well as their Tenants ; and the Fourth in a Mannor of M. Berg, who has given it to the Jesuits, against the Duke's Will, and besides has presented them with a House in the Town of Bautsk, that they might have a College there.

G E R M A N Y.

THE Heresies of Calvin and Lutben are publickly professed in many Provinces of Germany governed by Catholick Princes ; which is the Reason why the abovementioned Colleges of Fulda, Vienne, Gratz, Dillingen, Olmütz, and Rome ;
F
have

have been founded. The Capuchins of those German Provinces are also Missionaries there : Besides, (as I have already said,) the Congregation keeps an Apostolical Vicar at Hanover, the Duke being a Catholick ; but all his Subjects are Hereticks. He dares not use his utmost Endeavours to make them Catholicks, for fear of his Brothers ; one of which is Duke of Zell, and the other is in Possession of the Bishoprick of Osnabrug ; BOTH obstinate Hereticks : And because he has no Male Issue. Here I beg Leave of Your Holiness, to put You in mind of the first Beginning of Heresy in Germany, that You may from thence judge which way it may be destroyed.

Europe was almost free from Hereticks in the Beginning of the last Century ; and excepting some Remains of the Ancient Waldenses, and some Followers of John Hus, who was condemned to be burnt in the Council of Constance, there were only some Countries infected with the Greek Schism, viz. Muscovy, and some Parts of Poland, and the adjacent Kingdoms, when Martin Luther set up for a Reformer. That pernicious Heresiarch, (being protected by the Elector of Saxony,) under pretence of attacking the Indulgences published by Leo X. gave Birth in Germany to his Diabolical Sect, which was immediately condemned by the Pope's Bull, and the Emperor's Decree. Such a pernicious Example moved Ulric Zuinglius, in Switzerland, to do the same ; and being a Curate at Zurich, where he was born, he undertook to propagate the Doctrine of Luther : But soon after he became the Head of a particular Sect, and divided the Republick of Switzerland, as the other had divided the Empire of Germany, though the Landgrave of Hesse brought them together to make them agree. Afterwards the Hereticks of the North increased, with such a Variety of Opinions, that many don't know at this present time what they are to believe. They were divided into Lutherans, Semi-Lutherans, and Anti-Lutherans, with many Subdivisions. They called themselves Protestants, from the Protestation which they made at Spire against the Emperor's Decree, appealing from it to the future Council; and their Heads were, the Electors of Saxony and Brandenburg, the Dukes of Brunswick-Lunenbourg, the Landgrave of Hesse, and the Prince of Anhalt, with Fourteen Imperial Cities. Afterwards in the Diet of Augsburg, they presented to Charles the Vth their Confession, which was from thence called the Confession of Augsburg: They were joined by the Elector of Mentz, the Elector Palatin, the Count of Mansfeld, and other Imperial Cities, and made the Smalcaldick League, particularly in Opposition to the Meeting of the Council of Trent. And though that League was overcome by the Arms of the Emperor, yet it occasioned the Interim, which proved so prejudicial to the Catholick Religion. From the same pernicious Seed sprung also the Heresy of Calvin, a Native of Picardy, who spread it first at Basil, and then at Geneva; from whence it diffused it self into the North, and began to infect the Kingdom of France; proving much worse than the Lutheran.
the

B O H E M I A.

THE Congregation has a greater Authority in Bohemia, because after Ferdinand the II. had recovered that Kingdom from the Elector Palatin; by whom it had been invaded, the Holy See founded there Two Bishopricks out of the Revenues of the Excise upon Salt, assigned by the Emperor to make Amends for the Church-Lands usurped by the Hereticks. Two other Bishopricks are to be founded out of the same Revenues. They are Suffragans of the Archbishop of Prague, who has the Administration of those Revenues, and gives an Account of them every Year to the Congregation.

Heresy gets Footing in all the Dioceses of Germany, without excepting those of the Ecclesiastical Electors, and other Bishops, who have a Temporal and Spiritual Jurisdiction, because those Prelates being Persons of the greatest Quality in Germany, mind nothing but War, and other Exercises of Secular Princes. 'Tis true, they keep Vicars for Spiritual Functions, who sometimes, according as they are Zealous, promote the Conversion of Hereticks, especially with the Help of the Jesuits. Those Fathers, according to their Custom, give no other Account of it to the Congregation, but that they have converted Thousands; and therefore little Credit is given to what they say.

IMPERIAL HUNGARY.

THAT Part of Hungary, which belongs to the Emperor, is full of Lutherans, Calvinists; and Schismatics, who are not only Enemies to the Catholick Religion, but also Rebels against the Emperor, and keep Correspondence with the Turk. The Liberty of Conscience, which they have always enjoyed, is the Occasion of these Evils. Among those Places, wherein the Catholics prevail, there are some that want Parishes, rishes, especially in the Dioceses of Erla, (or Agria,) and Waradin. The Emperor provides many Parishes out of the Revenues of Hungary; and some Parishes have been not long since recovered from the Hereticks. The Missions are performed in Hungary with good Success and great Danger, by the Fathers of St. Paul first Hermit, appointed for that Purpose by the Congregation; besides other Missionaries, who go about that Work of their own Motion, viz. Jesuits, Reformed delle Scuole Pie, and of the Mercy, Augustins, Servites, Carmelites, Dominicans; and Capuchins.

U S C O Q U E S.

THE People called Uscques, of the Greek Schismatical Church, who lived under the Turkish Dominion, retired in great Numbers the last Century into the Borders of that Part of Hungary belonging to the Emperor. Though the Popes took care to send thither Catholick Priests of their own Rite, for their Instruction; yet they followed more than ever the Errors of the Schism. Wherefore by Order of Pope Clement VIII, and at the Emperor's Request, one Simon was consecrated to be Bishop of that People; but though he was a good Catholick, yet he never did any good, by reason of his Ignorance. After the Death of the said Simon, the Emperor recommended Two other Persons, one after another, to the Holy See, to take Care of the Uscques. They were both consecrated Bishops of S—— by the Schismatical Patriarch; but though they professed the Catholick Faith, and paid a due Obedience to the Pope, yet they were never approved by the Holy See. One of them being engaged in the present Troubles of Hungary, was apprehended by the Emperor's Order, and banished out of the Kingdom. But the Bishop of Zagabria represented in the Year 1671, the sad Condition, that Religion was reduced to, among the Uscoques of his Diocese, and desired the Congregation to confirm the Emperor's Nomination to the said Bishoprick of S— for a Monk of St. Basil, who was a good Catholic, whom he designed to make his Vicar among those Greeks. This Proposal being attended with many Difficulties, the Nuncio was ordered to represent to the Emperor, that the Erection of such a Bishoprick was not to be found in the Consistorial Acts; that though the City of S— should actually exist in Servia, yet it could not be reckoned among the Churches of Hungary; that being a Latin Church, it should not be bestowed upon a Greek; and that a Greek Bishop could not be made Vicar of a Latin Bishop. At last, for fear of displeasing the Emperor, and to oblige the Bishop of Zagabria, and give some Assistance to those Schismatics, it was resolved to confer upon that Greek Monk the Title of Bishop of Piazza, to give him the Spiritual Government of the Uscoques, to make him Apostolical Vicar, and get him consecrated by the Greek Archbishop residing in Rome. Accordingly the Briefs were drawn up, and he was sent to his Residence with Money for his Journey, Sacred Vessels, and other Gifts from the Congregation; but he never gave any Account of the Good he had done. The Nuncio of Vienna should be ordered to enquire about that Bishop, and to give some Account of him.

F R A N C E .
I * * * *

F R A N C E.

IN the Provinces of France, wherein Heresy is tolerated, the Missions are performed by the Capuchins; and the Bishops make use of them, when they visit their Dioceses. There are in Normandy some Priests, who design to take care of the Conversion of the Hereticks; and there was heretofore a Mission of Barnabites in Bearn. There is in Avignon, under the Direction of the Vice-Legate, a Papal College for Savoy, and other Provinces bordering upon Italy. There is also in the same City a Congregation for the Converts. That Congregation designs to perform a Mission in the Cevennes, a Mountainous Country full of Hereticks, and to make use, for that end, of the Interest of Eleven Thousand Livres paid for a Matrimonial Dispensation granted to the Count de Rouvre. Pope Alexander VII gave the Interest of that Money to the said Congregation, that it might be disposed of in Favour of that Mission.

GENEVA lies upon the Borders of France. The Bishop of that City being expelled from it above a Hundred and Forty Years ago, with all the Clergy, went to reside at Anneci, and retained still the Title of Bishop of Geneva. This Town is the Seat of the worst and most obstinate Hereticks in the World: It is also the Refuge of Apostates and other Profligate Men; so that unless their Perfidiousness be overcome by Arms, it can never be expected that Heresy should be driven away from thence. That Diocese contains Five Hundred Parishes all Catholick, in that Part of Savoy called the Genevois. The Holy See has taken Care to maintain and propagate the Catholick Faith there, under the Direction of the Bishops, and particularly of the Holy Prelate St. Francis de Salles. The Capuchins perform the Mission in the Country of Gex, where there are Fifty mixed Parishes. When Charles Emmanuel Duke of Savoy recovered the Dutchy of Cablais already perverted, Pope Clement VIII. at the Request of that Prince, published a Bull for the Foundation of a House in Thonon, (the Chief Town of that Dutchy,) with the Title of Our Lady of Mercy, wherein several Priests were to be maintained out of the Revenues of some Pories and Abbies. The Capuchins have been added to that Community for the Missions, and the Barnabites for the Schools; so that this Holy Place consists of those Three Sorts of Ecclesiasticks.

I T A L Y.

MAny Hereticks settled themselves some Hundred Years ago in those Valleys of the Alpes, that lie between France and Italy, viz. the Waldenses, and the Albigenses, and lastly the Calvinists. Such a pernicious Mixture has occasioned a total Destruction of the Catholick Faith in those Mountains, and even the Rebellion of that People against their Sovereign, the Duke of Savoy, who was then Emmanuel Philibert. Pope Clement VIII sent thither several Jesuits and Capuchins provided with very ample Powers, and at the Charges of the Holy See. The same Pontiff sent also large Sums of Money to the said Duke, in order to subdue those Hereticks by Force of Arms. The Capuchins, with the Assistance of the Congregation, have been so successful in the Valleys assigned to them, that the Inhabitants are almost free from Heresy;

Herefy ; and Father Matthias Ferrecio has given an Account of their Progress in a large Volume in Folio. The Jesuits made no long stay in those Valleys ; and therefore they were succeeded in the Valley of Lucerne by a numerous Mission of Reformed, which began in 1629, and did a great deal of good. But the Archbishop of Turin, and the Ministers of the Duke of Savoy, have lately besought the Holy See, that no other Monks be sent into those Valleys, but such as are Natives of the Country ; being of Opinion that they will make a greater Progress than others, because they perfectly understand the Language of the Inhabitants, and are well acquainted with their Customs and Manners. Whereupon Your Holiness was pleased to order, that for the Time to come Care be taken to send thither more Missionaries of that Country, than of any other ; which has been punctually executed by the Congregation.

Some Years ago several Maronites of the Greek Schismatical Church, came into those Parts of the Dioceses of Soana and Volterra, that lie near the Sea. The Congregation maintains there a Benedictin Monk, who is a Greek, with the Power and Title of Visitor. That Religious has reconciled most of those Maronites to the Catholick Church, and takes no small Pains to convert their Priests, who are obstinate in the Schism. The Congregation wishes that People would embrace the Latin Rite ; and the Visitor says it might easily be done, if they could be deprived of the Priests of their own Nation. He adds, that in such a Case one might be sure of their Faith.

Six Hundred other Maronites are fled into the Isle of Corsica with their Bishop and several Priests : They are all Schismatics. They have sent a Profession of their Faith, and applied themselves to the Republic of Genoa, to get their Bishop confirmed firmed by the Holy See. This Affair being laid before the Congregation of the Holy Office, they have decreed that he be made Apostolical Vicar under the Bishop of Sagona. It would be necessary to send thither some Body acquainted with their Language, Rites, and Ceremonies, which they will doubtless preserve more than ever, and to use the same Diligence there, as in the Two Dioceses of Tuscany just now mentioned.

There are in Calabria and Sicily many Towns of the Greek Rite; and though they are under the Jurisdiction of Latin Bishops, yet they want to be visited, those Priests being very Ignorant. The Archbishop of Rossano does very much desire it.

HIDDEN HERETICKS in the CATHOLICK COUNTRIES.

I. AS for what concerns hidden Hereticks in the Catholick Countries, there are many in the most considerable Towns of Flanders. They meet in the Night; and the Governors and Magistrates shew them no great Rigor. 'Tis true the Bishops, the Universities, and all the Clergy, are very careful to instruct the People with Catechisms, Sermons, the Administration of the Sacraments, and other Pious Exercises; but 'tis much to be feared during this Unhappy War, that the Catholick Faith will suffer by it, and that the Dutch Hereticks, who are come to Succour Flanders, will infect that Country. Wherefore the Internuncio should be ordered to exhort the Bishops to take an Extraordinary Care of their Dioceses at this Juncture.

II. The

II. The Severity of the Inquisition in Spain and Portugal, is such a Curb to Heresy and Infidelity, that the Holy See does not seem to have any Thing to do there. However, there are many Hereticks every where, and even in the City of Madrid, upon the Occasion of the Ambassadors, who come from Holland, England, and other Heretical Countries. Lisbon, and all the Ports of Spain, are also full of Heretical Merchants. I don't question that the Bishops, and the Inquisition, use all possible Diligence to prevent the spreading of the Poison of Heresy ; but I am afraid Political Reasons force them to shew too great an Indulgence to Hereticks. There is no Ambassador, no Ship, but what has a Preacher, who is always one of the most Learned Men of his Country ; and those Preachers, under a shew of Modesty and Charity, make it their Business to deceive, with Sophistical Arguments and Pernicious Books, many People who are neither used to Scholastick Speculations, nor acquainted with such Controversies. Besides, these Men are so many Spies, who study our Weaknesses, observe our Scandals, and carry away abundance of satyrical Writings, with which they make their Pulpits ring in the North, (colle quali fanno rimbombare i loro Pulpiti nel Settentrione.)

III. 1. What I have said of Spain, may likewise be said of Italy ; for there is an English Resident at Venice, who keeps a very Learned Man for his Preacher ; and the more Modest he is, the more he Insinuates himself into the Conscience, and Familiarity, of every Body. Venice is frequented not only by the Hereticks of the North, but also by the Schismaticks of Greece and Asia, under Pretence of trading. Would to God they were not so much tolerated, or rather favoured ! But the Indulgence granted to them is so great, that neither the Inquisition, nor the Apostolical Ministers, are allowed to execute the frequent Orders of the Congregation with respect to them: Hence it is that they openly profess their Rite, and are so bold as to make publick Investives against the Church and Court of Rome. The Schismatics have Churches and Bishops in that City, the better to keep up their Schism; and at this present Time the Armenians design to build another Church. Some Hereticks, known to be such, have had their Doctor's Degree at Padua; and what is worse, some Professors of Physick and Anatomy, maintained by the Republick, have lived in Heresy till their Death. In short, there is a great Liberty all over the States of Venice.

Indul-

2. Heretical Merchants do also enjoy a great Liberty at Genoa; and that Liberty is much greater, than can be known at Rome, because the Republick never undertakes to put any Restraint upon those, who profess different Religions, for fear of prejudicing their Trade. The Monks, and Priests, and the Archbishop himself, are afraid of exasperating the Republick. Hence it is that the Hereticks converse with every Body, eat Flesh upon prohibited Days, and in short preach Heresy inter privatos parietes, and on Board their Ships, where they sing Psalms, and are heard even by those who live near the Shore. Such a Toleration can have no good Effect. Wherefore the Inquisitors should be enjoined to be very watchful, when the Republick allows of it.

3. There are many Disorders at Legorn; for, in order to keep that Port free, the Hereticks and Infidels are under no Restraint, and do whatever they please. The Schismatical Armenians do publickly profess their Rite at Legorn; which is the Reason why the Congregation keeps there Two Domini-

CAN

~~can~~ Missionaries, who write that they do a great deal of good, though they are continually persecuted by the Schismatics. There is also in that Port an Armenian Chaplain, who performs Divine Service with the Armenian Liturgy corrected, and in that Language, and according to that Rite. But there it so great a Liberty, that every body lives as he has a mind to ; and 'tis questioned, whether the Missionaries just now mentioned do their Duty.

4. There is likewise a great Concourse of Heretical Merchants in Naples ; and besides the Disorders mentioned in the other Ports, which prevail also there, the Auxiliary Troops, that are lately come into that City, may occasion greater Evils than can be expressed. 'Tis certain, that as soon as Ruyter arrived at Naples, he obtained the Liberty of Thirty Preachers, whom the Emperor had piously deprived of their Churches in Hungary, and condemned to the Gallies for their Rebellion, some of which remain in Italy, and others are returned into their Country. The Dutch have also dispersed in that City many Books and Papers, which must needs disturb and confound the Minds of simple and ignorant Men. The Danger may be the same in Sicily, and perhaps greater, because those Troops have made a much longer Stay there, during the present War. The Holy See ought therefore, with the Help of the Inquisition, to use all possible Diligence to suppress and destroy those pestiferous Seeds, lest they should produce a very ill Effect among that ignorant People.

5. Malta is resorted to by many Hereticks and Infidels. I don't hear that more Care is taken there, than in the other Ports of Italy ; and because that Island is full of Foreigners, it runs a great Danger of being corrupted. Such a Thing should be carefully prevented ; and, to that end,
the

the present Inquisitor should be ordered not to suffer Foreigners to stay long in Malta.

6. But to proceed to the Inland Cities, whither a great many Foreigners resort, either to live there for some Time, or only in their way to other Places. I shall begin with Turin, which, besides the Hereticks of France and Savoy, is particularly frequented by the Merchants of Geneva. The same may be said of Milan, which is a Trading Town, not only for the Hereticks just now mentioned, but also for those of Switzerland and the Country of the Grisons, besides German Hereticks, who go thither upon Account of War. All of them endeavour to spread their false Doctrine in that City.

7. There is generally at Florence a Resident from England with his Preacher; and many Hereticks resort to that City; where Foreigners are very much caressed, to make them stay some Time, and spend their Money for the Good of the Country. The Italian Language being in great Perfection at Sienna, that City is very much frequented by the Oulramontani, and even by Hereticks, who have always a Preacher with them, under the Name of Governor; and therefore their Conversation may have a very ill Effect.

8. But there is no Town in Italy more frequented by Hereticks and Schismatics than Rome, where they stay several Months, and sometimes several Years. Here they give up themselves to all the Vices of Youth. Here they make Collections of Satyrical Writings against the Court of Rome, and its Prelates. Here, not without a very great Scandal, they are allowed to eat Flesh upon prohibited Days. Here they contract Friendship and Familiarity with all Sorts of People, and come to the Knowledge of all our Weaknesses. 'Tis true, that when Gentlemen leave Italy, they are are not very ill affected towards the Catholick Faith and the Court of Rome : But the Preachers, who accompany them, get large Collections of those Passages and Occurrences, that may afford Matter for their Sermons in their Pulpits of Pestilence ; and the most effectual Arguments they make use of to keep their People in Heresy, consist in a Description of our Disorders. They find at Rome, more than any where else, Mercenary Copists, Pimps, and other such Wretches, who acquaint them with every Thing that is amiss. In the Houses of the Cantarines and Scandalous Women, they have an Opportunity to converse with many Considerable Persons, and learn there more ill Things than they desire. And yet none but superficial Remedies, have been applied to so great an Evil. After all, the Liberty allowed to Foreigners, though Hereticks and Infidels, to travel into Italy, and even to come to Rome, ought not to be condemned ; because notwithstanding the Disorders just now mentioned, a very great Advantage may accrue from it to the Catholick Faith. For it has been observed in the North, that the Persecutions against the Priests, Missionaries, and Catholicks, never proceed from those who have been in Italy, and particularly at Rome : On the contrary, they protect them, and give them Notice of the Danger, that they may avoid it in due time. But it were much better to practise the following Rules. In the first place, Care should be taken to give no Scandal to Hereticks, when they come among us, but rather Edification, and to acquaint them with all the Good Things, and Pious Works, that are done here. Secondly, They should receive from us all Sorts of Civilities, not inconsistent with the Good of the Catholick Religion. Thirdly, The Prelate of Your Holiness should not only use his

Autho-

Authority, to prevent their being ill treated by the Common People, either in Town, or upon the Road, but also cunningly Visit the Heretical Nobility, and go sometimes in their Company, observing what Servants they keep, what People they converse with in their Lodgings, and what Masters they have for the Language, &c. Lastly, Some Learned and Prudent Men, under Pretence of Erudition, &c. should insinuate themselves into their Minds, endeavour to instruct them in the Doctrine of the Catholick Church; or, at least, undeceive them as to the Lies and Falsities spread by their Preachers:

IV. There are certainly Hidden Hereticks in some Provinces of France: The King does not allow them the free Exercise of their Religion in the Conquered Countries, nor in those Provinces where they never enjoyed that Liberty; but they may freely Travel every where, and Trade in all the Cities and Provinces subject to that Crown. His Majesty never fails to countenance the Zeal of the Bishops, and other Persons, who endeavour to convert the Hereticks; and when any Thing, relating to this Design, is proposed to that Prince, he generally approves of it; and immediately puts it in Execution. 'Tis therefore no wonder, if Heresy loses its Ground every Day in that Kingdom. We are daily informed of the Conversion of some Great Men, and the most Famous Preachers. This good Success is owing, first, to the Establishment of several Houses to take in the Converts; for 'tis impossible to express the Charity of the French towards their Countrymen, when they have been instructed in the Faith: The Governors of those Houses keep Correspondence with all Sorts of Pious People, recommend the New Converts to their Care, and by that means means are enabled to relieve poor Women and Children, who throw themselves into the Arms of Holy Church. The Second Reason of this good Success, is the Generosity of the French Clergy, who make every Year large Contributions towards the Maintenance of the Preachers converted to the Faith ; their Pensions being but Two Hundred Crowns a Year. And because Poverty was the greatest Obstacle to the Conversion of those Preachers, who have Wives and Children : now that they are sure of such a Maintenance, the Number of those Converts increases daily ; and France makes use of them to confute other Hereticks.

Two Things appear to me necessary for the Good of the Catholick Religion in that Kingdom. First, Your Holiness might write not only to the King, but also to the Bishops, and exhort them to continue in their Zeal for the Conversion of Hereticks. This would have an admirable Effect, and very much contribute to the total Extirpation of Heresy. Secondly, The Congregation should enjoin the Bishops, Missionaries, and Monks, to send a large Account of the State of all those Churches : without which 'tis impossible to take a Solid Resolution concerning the Propagation of the Faith. I shall say nothing of Jansenism, because it does not belong to the Congregation : Besides, it is thought to be quite extinguished.

V. There are also Hidden Hereticks in almost all the Hereditary Countries of the House of Austria. No extraordinary Means are used for their Conversion, nor any Provision made for the Maintenance of the Converts ; and therefore a Brief might be sent to the Emperor, and also to the Bishops, to put them in mind of those Two Heads, and to have from them an exact Account of every Thing relating to Religion in those Countries, that Your Holiness may apply the most proper Remedies. There being many Hereticks in the Imperial Armies; 'tis to be feared, the Provinces where they encamp, may be infected with Heresy. Wherefore Care should be taken to have the Military Missions well regulated; and His Imperial Majesty might order the General Chaplain of the Army, to provide the Regiments with Virtuous and Learned Men, well qualified to bring into the Bosom of the Church those Hereticks, who are in the Emperor's Service. The same may be said of France, where there are whole Regiments of English, Scotch, and Swiss Hereticks, besides the French; and though the King allows a good Pay to the Chaplains of all the Regiments, yet 'tis an usual Thing for the Colonels and Officers to retain Part of that Pay, or to keep such Chaplains as are unfit for that Ministry. Were the said Chaplains well qualified, one might expect a great Conversion of Officers and Soldiers. Wherefore Your Holiness might write a Brief to Cardinal de Bouillon, and exhort him, as being Great Almoner of France, to provide the Regiments with Learned Men, and such as are Zealous for the Salvation of Souls, and to inform the Holy See of the Progress, that is made in the Conversion of the Soldiers.

G

the

C O L

C O L L E G E S.

AFTER this General Notion of the State of Religion in Europe, I proceed to give an Account of the Colleges : which are the following :

- The College of the Savoyards at Avignon.
- The College of Brünſberg in Prussia.
- The College of the Converts at Cologne.
- The College of C — at Padua.
- The College of Dillingen in Germany.
- The College of Fulde in Germany.
- The Hungarian and German College at Rome.
- The Greek College at Rome.
- The College of the Switzers and Grisons at Milan.
- The Irish College of the Dominicans at Louvain.
- The Irish College at Paris.
- The Irish College at Rome.
- The College of Vilna in Lithuania.
- The Illyrick College at Fermo.
- The Illyrick College at Loreto.
- The English College at Donay.
- The English College at Rome.
- The College of the Italians and Lombards at Paris.
- The College of the Maronites at Rome.
- The College of Olmütz in Moravia.
- The College of S. Pancratio in Rome, for the Barefooted Carmelites Missionaries.
- The College of S. Pietro Montorio at Rome, for the Reformed Missionaries.
- The College of Prague in Bohemia.

The Scotch College of Rome.

The Scotch College of Madrid.

The Scotch College of Paris.

The Scotch College of Douay.

The College of Vienna in Austria.

The College of Gratz in Stiria.

The Roman Seminary.

The College de propaganda Fide; and many other Lesser Colleges, which I shall not mention.

An Account of all these Colleges would be foreign to my present Design: I shall only say in general, that the Holy See is at prodigious Charges for the Education of Novices in many of them; and if the End for which they were founded by the Popes, was but partly obtained, it would certainly be the best way to instruct Missionaries, and to settle Missions all over the World. But the Superiors neglect to put in Execution the Will of the Founders; the Administrators alienate Legacies to their own Use; and such is the Respect of Persons, that those Abuses, instead of being redressed, increase every Day. There is no Hope of preventing them; and these Colleges, especially those that are governed by the Jesuits, will never afford any Person well qualified to be a Missionary. A strict Visitation would be the only Remedy for such an Evil; and the Visitors should observe the following Directions.

1. They should exactly revise the Old and New Accounts, in order to know whether the Expenses have been reasonable, and suited to the Persons maintained in those Colleges.

2. They

2. They should make a very exact Personal Visitation, both of the Superiors and Novices, and likewise of the Servants, who frequently give very good Information, when they are strictly examined.

3. They should see what Improvement the Novices make in their Studies, and get them examined by Strangers, to avoid any Collusion.

4. What they study; useful or useless Sciences; whether their Studies answer the Design of the Founders; whether they are instructed in Controversies, Cases of Conscience, the Christian Doctrine, and the way of Teaching it; whether they know the Ceremonies of the Church; whether they can Administer the Sacraments, make mental Prayers, and teach others to do the same; whether they Exercise themselves in Spiritual Conferences, and Domestick Exhortations.

5. What Improvement they make in Piety, and in Christian and Ecclesiastical Virtues.

6. How the Novices are admitted; whether the Bulls, Decrees, and Orders of the Founders and the Popes, are obeyed.

7. Whether the Rules are observed; what they are, and by whom made; and with what Authority the Novices lay new Burthens upon themselves without the Permission of their Superiors.

8. How they are used as to their Diet, Cloaths, and other Necessaries; what is the Quantity and Quality of their Diet and Cloaths.

9. How they are used in Time of Sicknes. (Upon this Occasion the Physician ought to be examined.)

10. Whether the Repetitions are performed; how, and by whom; whether old and useless Men are made Superiors.

11. Whether the Number of the Servants is too great; whether there are superfluous Superiors or Fathers, or whether they are a Grievance to the College.

12. Whether the Novices are under the Command of any Body else, besides the Rector ; whether the Servants assume any Authority over them, but particularly whether the Lay-Brothers do it.

13. Whether the Superior gives any Scandal, or does his Duty ; whether he eats in the Refectory with the others, and has a different Diet.

14. Whether the Superior has any Favourites ; who they are ; and what Disorder arises from thence.

15. Who is the Confessor, and Spiritual Director of the Novices ; and if they desire to confess their Sins to one, who is not acceptable to him, whether they are allowed to do it.

16. Whether they frequently confess their Sins, and receive the Communion, and with what Devotion ; whether they do it freely, or are obliged to it.

17. Whether any Calumnies are raised to expel them from the Colleges, and what they are.

18. Whether they are induced to turn Monks, and by what Means ; whether it be with Threatnings.

19. Whether Factions and Diffensions are fomented among them, and for what Reason.

20. Whether they persecute one another, when they have Recourse to the Superiors, and particularly to the Congregation. They should give an Account of every Particular.

21. Whether any Endeavours are used to make them slight the Ecclesiastical State, and to persuade them to be mere Seculars.

22. Whether

22. Whether the Orders of the Congregation are observed concerning the Oaths, which the Novices are obliged to take.

23. How they are made Priests, and when ; and what Obligation is laid upon them, after they have been ordained, especially with respect to Masses.

24. Whether, when they take Orders, they are strictly examined, or not ; for their Examination should be much more strict, than that of other Priests, who remain in the Catholick Countries ; whereas they are to go among the Infidels.

25. Whether they understand Excommunications, Suspensions, Irregularities, and other Things of that Nature.

26. Whether the Superiors, or others, keep Correspondence with them, when they have left the College ; and whether they never write to any Body, or give no Account of themselves.

27. The Visitor should have a List of the Novices, who have left the College.

28. He should enquire, whether at the Admission of the Novices, any regard is had to Interest, Profit, and Recommendations, and not to Justice and Capacity.

29. Whether, when it has been found out that they are not fit for a Studious Life, or that they are loose, they are sent away, or kept in ; and why.

30. Whether their Names are sent to the Congregation, as 'tis required by the Bulls.

31. Whether the Decrees made in the former Visitations are observed, and what they are.

32. Whether they neglect to receive the Rents ; and whether they keep an Account of the Receipt and Expences, and how.

33. What use the Rents have been put to, especially when the Number of the Novices was not compleat, obliging them to give an Account of deficient Months : For Instance, if some Novices go away, after they have finished their Studies, and others come in, what becomes of those Months, when there is a Vacancy.

34. How the Money brought in by the Novices is disposed of, and whether it be paid at their coming in ; and in such a Case, whether it be put to Interest during the Time of their Studies, and who gets that Interest. In the German College, the Novices bring in a Hundred Crowns upon their Admission, which are not restored to them, but when they go away. Thus many Hundred Crowns remain in the Hands of the Fathers ; and because it is not likely that this Money should lie Dead, the Question is to know what becomes of the Interest, whether it goes to the Profit of the College, or of the Novices, or of some Body else.

35. Boarders go often by the Name of Novices, & vice versa the Novices by the Name of Boarders.

The Visitors should ask all these Questions, and many more, which the Writings, preserved in the Archives of the Congregation, may easily afford,

The SEMINARY of PARIS.

UPON this Occasion I think I ought to take particular Notice of the Seminary founded at Paris for the Foreign Missions. In that Seminary, great Care is taken to examine the Character of all those, who present themselves to be employed ployed in those Missions : They are instructed in every Thing necessary for such a Holy Ministry ; and besides, exercise themselves in several Parts of France. That Seminary has afforded the Apostolical Vicars of China, the Apostolical Vicar of New France, now Bishop of Quebec, and all the Missionaries, who have been sent with them by the Congregation. In short, that College has always produced Men of an Apostolical Spirit. There is in it an Office well settled, to manage the particular Affairs of the Missionaries, and those of the Missions. All temporal Concerns are carefully attended to ; and the Piety of the King, Clergy, and Nobility, affords many Supplies. As for Spiritual Things, they are directed by the Congregation de propaganda Fide.

A S I A.

THE greatest Part of Asia is inhabited by Infidels ; and those few Christians, who live among them, are full of the Errors of Arius, Nestorius, Dioscorus, Eutyches, and other Hereticks and Schismatics. They are all united with their Patriarchs in their Disobedience to the Head of the Universal Church. And though the Holy See endeavours to convert those Nations, yet it makes but a small Progress ; either because the Turks will not allow of any Change of Religion among them, unless they embrace the Mahometan, or because the Patriarchs and Metropolitans keep up this Aversion to the Church of Rome out of Ignorance and Avarice : We ought therefore to commit our selves to the Providence of God. However, the Congregation does all that is possible to reclaim that Part of the World ; and they make a much greater Progress among the Idolaters, than among the Schismatics.

C Y P R U S.

A Latin Bishop is always kept in Cyprus: He has the Spiritual Government of the whole Kingdom, and now the Title of Bishop of Raffo. The Congregation has sent a Franciscan into that Island: The Missions are performed in the Ports and Maritime Towns by the Capuchins, and the Reformed, besides the Minor Observantins, who have an Hospice at Nicasia, depending upon the Guardian of Jerusalem. There are also in Cyprus many Maronites, all Catholics, and provided by the Patriarch, who keeps a Bishop there. Excepting the Latins, who are generally Merchants, and assisted by the Missionaries, no great Progress can be made in that Island, because 'tis full of Turks and Greeks.

The Congregation does also keep a Missionary at Rhodes with a Maintenance of Fifty Ducats a Year, for the Relief of the Christian Slaves, who come thither in the Turkish Gallies. There is a small Church in the City of Rhodes.

M A R O N I T E S.

THE Maronites, who are very Numerous, inhabit Mount Liban. They are all Catholics, reunited to the Church of Rome, and governed by a Patriarch, whom they call Patriarch of Antioch: Though the Patriarch of Antioch is a Greek, who resides at Damascus. They have Bishops, shops, Priests, and Monks of St. Antony, and are very poor, being more oppressed and tyrannized by the Turks, than other Christians, because they profess the Catholick Religion. The Congregation provides the Maronites with Ecclesiastical Books, and Church-Paraments. When that People have got a New Patriarch, they send to Rome to have him confirmed by the Pope, to whom they pay their Obedience. They have a College in Rome, and had another heretofore at Ravenna. The Missions are performed by the Capuchins, and Minor Observantins of Jerusalem, Tripoli, Baruti, and other Places near Mount Liban. They do a great deal of Good to that People, besides their good Offices to the Latins, who come from Europe to Trade there. There are also barefooted Carmelites at Tripoli, and upon Mount Carmel.

The HOLY LAND.

THERE are no Ministers of the Congregation in the Holy Land, but some Convents of Minor Observantins; one at Jerusalem, consisting of Forty Monks, another at Betlehem, and a Third at Nazareth, not so Numerous as the former, under the Obedience of the Guardian of Jerusalem. Those Monks perform Divine Service at the Holy Sepulchre: They have lately been deprived of that Sanctuary by the Greeks, who have obtained it from the Grand Vizier for a Sum of Money; but we hear now that the Franciscans will recover it, at the Solicitation of the Christian Princes, (occasioned by the repeated Instances of Clement X.) and for a large Sum which those Fathers have gathered in Christendom. That Country is full of Greeks, Armenians, Cophes, and other Eastern Schismatics, maticks, who have also the keeping of some Holy Places. The Latins are but few, and most of them Foreigners and Pilgrims.

S Y R I A.

THE Missions are performed in Syria by the Capuchins, and barefooted Carmelites, and carried on with good Success, especially at Aleppo, where there are also several Jesuits. The Carmelites brought over to the Catholick Religion the Patriarch of the Syrians, with a great Part of his People. He was a Holy Man, esteemed and beloved by the Congregation, from whom he received a Yearly Pension of Two Hundred and Fifty Ducats. But whilst the Congregation had some Thoughts of giving him a Catholick Coadjutor by reason of his declining Age, we have had the News of his Death, and that a wicked Schismatick did immediately intrude himself into the Patriarchal See. That Man has already perverted the whole Nation, and puts the Turks upon persecuting the Catholicks and Missionaries, to the great Prejudice of the Catholick Religion. Your Holiness, being informed of it, has ordered Monsignor Picquet, Apostolical Vicar of Babylon, to endeavour, in his Way through Aleppo, to remedy such an Evil, and to suggest to the Congregation the most proper Means for suppressing the New Schism. It would not be amiss to send a Latin Bishop to reside at Aleppo, that he may have an Inspection over all the Monks, (who are continually quarrelling among themselves,) and give the necessary Assistance to the Catholicks, especially at this Time of Persecution. But I think it will be difficult to settle a Bishop there, without out giving a great deal of Money to the Turks: And though it has been represented to the Congregation, that the Episcopal Character being united to the Dignity of Consul of France, he would be free from all Insults, and might be very serviceable to the Catholick Faith; yet the Congregation did not approve of it for several Reasons.

M E S O P O T A M I A.

THE French Capuchins are the Chief Missionaries in all that Part of Asia, which reaches from Syria to the Indies. Those Fathers in Mesopotamia brought over to the Catholick Church the Archbishop, who was several times imprisoned; and then he came to Rome, and lived for some time in a College, where he was very civilly used by the Congregation. Afterwards he was sent back to his Residence; and we are now informed that he has been made Patriarch of the Nestorians, and that he desires to have the Approbation of the Holy See. There are some Capuchins at Mosul; and the Bishop of the Jacobites lives there. That City is also the Residence of the abovementioned Patriarch of the Chaldeans, who profess the Errors of Nestorius: Their Number does not exceed a Thousand at Mosul; but there are Forty Thousand dispersed in the Mountains. Bagdad is situated in Mesopotamia: The French Capuchins have a Church and an Hospice in that City, where they make a good Progress, being very acceptable to the Turks; by reason of their great Skill in Physick and Mathematicks. The Syrians and Armenians of that Town, who have all embraced the Catholick Religion, go to the same Church; and their their Children are instructed by the Capuchins. The Number of the Faithful being very great at Bagdad, a Bishop was appointed there; and the Congregation had a Legacy of Six Hundred Crowns a Year for him. A French Benedictin was nominated to go thither; but he always refused to obey the Orders of the Congregation, Wherefore they have deputed, in the Quality of Apostolical Vicar, and with the Title of Bishop in Partibus, Monsignor Picquet, an Excellent Priest, who has been Consul of France at Aleppo. He is a Person of great Piety and Zeal; and therefore he will do a great deal of Good there, unless his Indispositions prevent it.

P E R S I A.

THE King of Persia, though a Mahometan, keeps some Correspondence with the Holy See: Several Apostolical Briefs have been written to him, which he has answered; and Your Holiness has lately received a Letter from that Prince. In the Time of Paul V. of Holy Memory, the Barefooted Carmelites were sent into Persia, and having presented the Pope's Brief to King Abbas, he received it with great Respect, and gave them a Palace in Ispahan, of which he had deprived the General of the Artillery. Those Fathers have built a Convent there, and a Church with Four Chapels in it, besides the Great Altar dedicated to the most Holy Virgin. They live at Ispahan, as Ambassadors from the Pope; and several Augustins, Jesuits, and Capuchins, reside in that City, with the like Character; the first as Ambassadors from the King of Poland, the second from the King of Portugal, and the third from the King

King of France. But of late the Carmelites are the only Monks allowed to live at Ispahan : The others have been expelled from thence by the First Minister of State, a very Zealous Mahometan, who believed that Town was polluted by the Christians, because they drank Wine continually, and gave Occasion to the Persians to do the same. Those Monks were therefore ordered to sell their Houses ; and a Place was assigned for them out of the City, (as 'tis practised at Constantinople,) where they have a House and a Church.

There is a Town, which is a Colony of the Armenians, that stands Two Miles from Ispahan, and was built by King Abbas. It contains Sixteen Thousand Souls : There are in it many Churches, Monks, and Nuns, with the Archbishop, and Clergy, all Schismatics. The Carmelites take great Pains to enlighten those Armenians, but make no great Progress, because that Nation is very obstinate.

'Tis not long since the Capuchins are gone to live at Bander-abassi ; the Company of the French Merchants having settled a Factory there. It is a Sea-Port upon the Persian Gulph, called at first Comorrone ; but it has now its Name from King Abbas, who removed thither the Commerce of the City of Ormuz, which he had destroyed.

There are also Barefooted Carmelites at Schiras, a very Large and Ancient City, Twelve Days Journey distant from Ispahan Eastward. Those Fathers have there a very good House, built from the very Foundations, like a Convent, with a small Church. In this City, the Persians apply themselves very much to the Sciences ; and all Christians, without excepting the Monks, are allowed by way of Dispute to oppose the Law of Mahomet. But when the Persians are convinced of the the Falsity thereof, instead of embracing the Catholick Religion, they profess Atheism, and do it privately, for fear of being punished.

A R A B I A.

BASSORA is a very Ancient City, belonging to Arabia Deserta, and situated at the Conjunction of the Tygris and Euphrates, where they fall into the Persian Gulph. It is famous, not only for being the Birth-place of Avicenna, but also for its great Trade, being resorted to by all the Travellers and Merchants, that come from Constantinople, Naplosa, Damascus, Aleppo, Mosul, Bagdad, and from all the Turkish Dominions. There are in that Town some Barefooted Carmelites, who have a good House and a Publick Church granted them by an Arabian Prince, who was lately dispossessed by the Grand Signor, and finding no Refuge in Persia, was received by the Great Mogul. Those Fathers are supported by the Turks, because they believe that the Concourse of the Christian Merchants, who come to Trade there, would not be so great, were it not for them and their Church. Nay, the Turks do frequently carry to them their little Children, when they are a dying; by which Means those Children receive the Salvation of their Souls with their Baptism. Bassora is now governed by a Basha, who is rather an Absolute Prince, though he pays Tribute to the Grand Signor, and the King of Persia. The Carmelites are very civilly used by him; and it may be said they enjoy all manner of Liberty.

There are many Christians of St. John dispersed in the adjacent Parts: They have no Sacraments, no

no Faith ; they live as they think fit, and are full of Ridiculous Fables. Several of them are daily converted, and baptized in the Church of the Carmelites.

There were formerly Two other Missions of the same Order ; the one, together with the Noviciate, in the City of Ormuz, which was taken from the Portuguese by the Persians, with the Assistance of the English, who have since very much repented of it ; and the other at Mascat, which did belong to the Crown of Portugal, and was taken from them by the Arabians.

G E O R G I A.

GEORGIA, situated between the Black Sea and the Caspian Sea, is divided into Four large Provinces, which plentifully afford every Thing necessary for Life ; but there is a great Scarcity of Money for want of Trade. The Men have a good Complexion, look well, and are good natured ; and the Women are tall and beautiful : Hence it is, that the Georgians do not scruple to sell frequently their Children to the Turks and Persians, to get a Livelihood. The Congregation has sent into that Country, within these few Years, the Italian Capuchins, who live at Tiflis, the Capital City, where the Prince, who is tributary to the King of Persia, makes his Residence. There are in that Town a great many Armenians ; and some of them are now and then converted to the Catholick Religion. The Georgians follow the Greek Rite in the Georgian Language. Before the Capuchins were sent into that Country, the Theatins and Augustins performed the Mission there ; but having fled from thence by Reason of the

H Wars,

Wars, they forsook that Mission, and their Churches and Effects were seized. Hence it is that those Missionaries have often desired, that the Court of Persia might be prevailed upon to procure the Restitution of those Effects, which might be of great Use to the Mission.

M I N G R E L I A

MINGRELIA, a Mountainous Country bordering upon Georgia, is Four Hundred Miles in Compass; and there is no City in it, but only a Castle, which, for want of good Foundations, falls to Ruin. All the Houses of this Country are built with Timber, and covered with Straw. The Inhabitants have no Sort of Current Money, and Buy and Sell by Exchanging their Goods. They are great Thieves; and Theft is not accounted a shameful Thing among them, but Address and Industry: The Laws inflict a very small Punishment upon those that are guilty of it. The Mingrelians are very clownish; and though they profess themselves to be of the Greek Church, yet they have many other Errors: They don't observe the usual Form of Baptism, and have baptized the Children of the most Considerable Persons with Wine. There is in Mingrelia a Schismatical Patriarch, with some Bishops, who are elected by the Prince. He chooses them among the Monks, who eat no Flesh, and are generally vicious and ignorant. There are in the whole Country six Schismatical Churches, wherein Divine Service is only performed upon the Chief Holy Days; and the People meet there to eat something, which they bring, in order to be blessed by the Bishops. The Mingrelians are assisted by by the Theatins : Those Monks, as well as the Capuchins, are maintained by the Congregation; and if they make but few Converts, they take great Pains in Baptizing the Little Children brought to them, when their Lives are despaired of. Their Professing Physick endears them to the People, and even to the Prince. There is now but one Missionary in Mingrelia; and therefore the Congregation has ordered the General to appoint a New Mission as soon as possible. He has pitched upon Three Monks, who will quickly set out for that Country.

C I R C A S S I A.

CIRCASSIA is full of Rivers and Shallow Waters; and in some Places there is no walking, unless they be frozen. The People are extremely poor: They have no Money, and no other Profession but Riding, Warring, and Robbing. Their Women are highly esteemed at Constantinople for their Beauty. The Circassians are all Schismatics, and under the Spiritual Government of the Patriarch of Mingrelia. As for the Temporal Government, they are subject to several Lords of that Country. The Dominicans, who resided at Cassa, came into this Province in the Time of Pope Urban VIII. and made a great Progress in it. But now there is no Missionary here: And therefore it would be necessary to think of a New Mission.

C U R D I S T A N.

THIS Country contains about Two Hundred Thousand Souls, and appears very much disposed to receive the Christian Faith. Though the Inhabitants are enclosed by the Turkish Empire, yet they have never been subdued by the Turks, because they live upon the Tops of Mountains. They profess themselves to be Enemies to that Nation, and Friends to the Christians. When they drink Wine, they take the Vessel with both Hands, saying it is the Blood of Jesid, that is, Jesus, and have a great Veneration for the most Holy Virgin. But besides that they have no Baptism, they are infected with a very pernicious Error derived from the ancient Heresy of Origen; for they believe the Torments of Hell will not last for ever, and that the Devil will be at last reconciled with God. Hence it is that they will not speak ill of him; but on the contrary, they worship and pray to him, as to an Angel: Nay, most of them keep a Black Dog in their Houses, on Account of that Superstition. Two of the most Considerable Persons of that Nation, being baptized by the Capuchins, did frequently desire to have Missionaries: Which moved the Congregation to send Two Missions thither in the Year 1671. one of Capuchins, and another of Jesuits, who have not yet given an Account of the Progress they have made.

A R M E-

A R M E N I A.

TH E R E are Four Schismatical Patriarchs in Armenia. The Armenians, subject to the King of Persia, are governed by one of those Patriarchs, who has Fifty Nine Bishops under him in the Turkish Dominions. The Patriarch of the Lesser Armenia came to Rome in the Year 1666, where having made Profession of the Faith, he was maintained in a College, and at his Departure provided with a Hundred and Fifty Ducats for his Journey, besides many other Favours granted him upon the good Character given him by the barefooted Carmelites, and the French Consul of Aleppo. But he was hardly set out, when News came that he persisted in the Schism more than ever, having discovered himself upon that Head at Legorn and Venice; and therefore he was not allowed to go to Leopal, for fear he should very much prejudice the Reunion already settled among the Armenians of that City. The Congregation has an Archbishop in the Greater Armenia, viz. the Archbishop of N—— who is always a Dominican; for there are in that Country some Convents of those Monks, who make up the Clergy of this Archbishop, and maintain in the Catholick Faith the Armenians of some Towns subject to the King of Persia. Those Armenian Converts suffer great Persecutions from these Infidels; and therefore Pope Clement IX. of Holy Memory, writ a Brief to the King of Persia in their Favour. The Answer of that Prince arrived in the Time of Clement X. being brought by Two Dominicans of that Province, who were sent back with new Briefs and Presents. The Church above-mentioned is now without a Pastor, because Father J — who had been elected by the Congregation, being come to Rome in order to be consecrated, has been deprived for Insufficiency; besides that those Armenians pretend to have the Right of Nomination by Virtue of a Brief of Paul III. and have declared that they will not have the said Father. The Congregation expects a more certain Account of the Matter, to provide that Archbishop with a Person well qualified, and acceptable to that People.

The Schismatical Armenians, without excepting the Bishops and Patriarchs, are all extremely Ignorant: They mind nothing but Trade, and go all over the World to traffick. Were it possible to make them renounce their Schism, and get a competent Learning, no Nation would be more proper for the Propagation of the Faith, because they are dispersed every where.

Father Pescopo, a Dominican, who has been a Visitor in those Parts, and was acknowledged Ambassador from Your Holiness by the King of Perse, when he presented to him the above-mentioned Briefs of Clement X. is lately come back, and has brought to Your Holiness and the Congregation Letters from the Patriarch of Constantinople, whose Name is Yacob. That Patriarch has sent the Profession of his Faith, which he made before the said Father, and declares that he will be Obedient to the Holy See, and endeavour to persuade the whole Nation to pay the same Obedience. Nevertheless, because the Armenians are a very deceitful People, one may very well doubt whether it be not a counterfeited Conversion, to get some Money from your Holiness. But on the other side, his Promises ought not to be slighted; and all possible Diligence ought to be used to make him perform them. In the mean Time, a new Attempt Attempt might be made to enlighten that People, with the help of the Armenians of Poland, and particularly of the Novices of the College of Leopol. Besides, some Armenians should be admitted into the other Colleges, and instructed in Religion and Learning by themselves, till they have quite forgot their Errors, and have well imbibed the Catholick Doctrines and Maxims. A Mission should be also settled in the Chief City of Armenia, where the Patriarch Resides; and the Italian Capuchins, who are already in Georgia, might be sent thither.

The L E S S E R A S I A.

THERE are no other Christians in the Lesser Asia, but some few Eastern Schismatics; the whole Country being generally inhabited by the Turks, excepting Smyrna, where the Congregation used to keep a Latin Archbishop, because there is a great Concourse of European Merchants, besides many Catholick Inhabitants. But now the Congregation keeps only an Apostolical Vicar in that Place, with a Yearly Allowance of Forty Ducats: His Name is D. Lepne Macripodati of Sidd. There are at Smyrna some French Capuchins, who fall out every Day with the Reformed, on Account of the Parochial Right; which is the Reason why the New Visitor of the Archipelago has been ordered to Visit also that Church.

E A S T - I N D I E S.

THOUGH the Ancients had some Knowledge of the East-Indies, yet 'tis certain the Discovery of those Countries ought properly to be ascribed to the Portuguese, who having crossed vast Seas, made themselves Arbitrators, if not Masters of all those Coasts and Islands, which are divided into so many Kingdoms and Dominions inhabited by Mahometans and Idolaters; and the Portuguese have been possessed of them for a long Time to the great Advantage of the Catholick Faith. - What put a stop to the Conversion of the Indians, was their Fear, if they should turn Christians, of becoming Subjects to the Crown and Laws of Portugal; for those Nations being divided into several Tribes, (which they call Castes,) had rather suffer any Torment, and Death it self, than forsake their own Tribe. And therefore a Jesuit, whose Name was Robert de Nobili, before he went upon a Mission into the Kingdom of Madure, used himself to the Austere Life of the Brachmans, abstaining from Wine, and Flesh, and every Thing that has Life in it. The First Tribe of the Indians is that of the Brachmans, who are highly esteemed and respected by all the other Tribes. That Jesuit being arrived in the East-Indies, said he was a Brachman, (which was no Lye,) and made a wonderful Progress in the Conversion of the Indians, preaching up continually that every Body might remain in his own Tribe. After he had converted Twelve Brachmans, he made them his Companions and Catechists, and baptized in a very little Time Forty Thousand Persons of all Tribes. Being sensible of the great Usefulness of this Method to convert the Heathens, he proposed the Erecting of a Seminary of Brachmans; to make them, if not Priests, at least Catechists, but the Portuguese, and the Jesuits themselves, did not approve of it. Thus after the Death of that Father, the true Method of keeping and increasing the Number of the New Converts fell to the Ground. There are in the College de propaganda Fide some Places for the Brachmans, founded by Cardinal S. Onofrio; and Three Brachmans are at this present Time educated in that College.

to

The E M P I R E of the G R E A T M O G U L.

THE Empire of the Great Mogul is an In-let into the Indies, both by Sea and Land. By Sea, because the next Port to Gundel, (the last in Persia), is that of Tatta the first great City of that vast Empire. By Land, because those who go into the Dominions of the Great Mogul by the way of Persia, must come to Cabul, or Candahar, Two of the Chief Towns belonging to that Prince. His Empire consists of Thirty Seven Kingdoms, now reduced into Provinces, where he keeps Governors; so that he is equal to, if not greater than, the Turkish Emperor in Power and Riches. As for his Religion, he is a Mahometan, and follows the Exposition of the Alcoran made by Ali. He has a great Veneration for one of his Ancestors, who reigned at the End of the last Century. This last Prince seems to have had some Knowledge of the Catholick Religion; for he had a great Esteem for the Holy Images, and for our Priests. Nay, he sent for one, as far as Bengala, to be instructed by him; but because he did not well understand the

the Myſteries of our Faith, and would not part with his Concubines, he could not be converted. This Emperor was ſucceeded by his Son, who when in Rebellion againſt his Father, was ſubdued by the Advice of the Portugueſe, who had before reſuſed to join with him. Whereupon that Prince ſwore to his falſe Prophet, that if ever he ſhould Reign, he would perſecute all the Chriſtians; and indeed he deſtroyed a whole Town belonging to the Portugueſe. However, becauſe many Conversions were made in his Father's Time, there was in the Year 1640, ſome hope of bettering the Condition of our Holy Religion; which is the Reaſon why the Congregation was deſired to ſend ſome Miſſionaries into that Country. The Theatins lived in the Kingdom of Golconda, Tributary to the Great Mogul, though it be extremely Rich becauſe of its Mines of Diamonds. The Miſſion of Theatins, which was the only one in thoſe Parts, is now quite over, all thoſe Miſſionaries being in the Hoſpice of Lisbon. But the barefooted Carmelites are ſettled at Tatta, a very large and Populous City above-mentioned, where they have a Church, and a certain Number of Faithful, very much leſſened ſince the Portugueſe were expelled from thence. Suratte is a Famous Pore-Town, where the French Capuchins make their Reſidence. They are very Serviceable to the Miſſionaries, who go into the Indies, and return into Europe. To conclude, the Great Mogul allows Liberty of Conſcience in his vaſt Dominions, and does not hinder his Subjects from embracing the Chriſtian Faith. Which ſhould move the Holy See to provide that Empire with Miſſionaries, and even to ſend thither a Biſhop in order to propagate the Catholick Religion; for the Biſhop of Hierapoli, to whoſe Apoſtolic Vicariſhip thoſe Countries Countries have been committed, is not sufficient for them.

IDALCAN and other KINGDOMS.

THERE is in Idalcan, (a very populous Kingdom of Heathens, not far from Goa,) a Congregation of Priests, who are Natives of that Country, and all Brachmans. They have made a vast Number of Converts, and live in Common, under the Rule of St. Philip Neri, founded there by the Bishop of Crispoli, who was also an Indian, and died lately very Old in our College de propaganda Fide. After he had been educated in Rome, he was made a Bishop, and sent into that Kingdom, where he built Two Churches at his own Charges. There is now in that Country one of his Kindmen, with the Title of Apostolical Vicar: I mean the above-mentioned Bishop of Hierapoli, who was bred in our College, and we have a good Account of him.

From what has been said it appears, That the Natives of the East-Indies, when they can be had, and are well educated, prove more successful than Foreigners; and that 'tis much better, to send up on a Million Bishops with School-Masters, than more Priests, either Secular, or Regular.

Another Indian Bishop has been lately made: He is a Theatin, and likewise related to the Bishop of Crispoli above mentioned. This new Prelate has the Jurisdiction of an Apostolical Vicar in several Kingdoms about the Cape of Comorin, and the Coast of Pescaria. We have great hopes he will do a great deal of Good, notwithstanding the Opposition he will meet with from the Portuguese, who are displeased that Bishops should be sent sent from Rome into those Parts without their Consent ; and if the Holy See does not put a stop to their Pretensions, Religion will neither be propagated, nor preserved, in the East-Indies.

M A L A B A R.

Christianity was established in this Country by the Glorious Apostle St. Thomas. The Christians, who live in the States of Twenty One Petty Kings, have Fourteen Hundred Villages, great or small, and a Hundred Twenty Seven Churches with their Priests ; and the Number of these Christians amounts to Two Hundred Thousand. They have a great Veneration for the Holy Cross, are very careful to pray for the Souls in Purgatory, and to Fast ; and though they live in Woods and Mountains, yet they prove very good Catholics, and very Obedient to the Church of Rome. Such a Christianity is very much esteemed among those Petty Kings, and enjoys many Privileges.

These Christians fell into the Schism of Nestorius in former Times for want of Pastors, and acknowledged for their Patriarch that of Babylon, who provided them with Bishops, and governed them despotically in Spiritual Things. After they had lived for a long Time in that Heresy, God was pleased to free them from it in a Miraculous Manner, through the Intercession of the Holy Apostle their Founder. For Alexis Menez of the Order of St. Austin having been made Archbishop of Goa, and at the same Time Vice-Roy of the Indies, that Prelate full of Zeal for the Salvation of Souls, and the Glory of God, went thither himself, and after many Labours and Sufferings, purged purged at last that People from the Error, wherein they had lived, and brought them into the Bosom of Holy Mother Church, in the Time of Paul the Vth of Glorious Memory, as one may see in the History of that Conversion printed by Father Goveo, a Portuguese, and a Companion of the said Archbishop at Lisbon.

Thus the Christians of Malabar, being brought over to the Obedience due to the Church of Rome, had an Archbishop of their own appointed for them; and many Jesuits were sent into their Country, where they continued about Forty Years. But, besides the Archiepiscopal Dignity, there being another, next to it, with the Title of Archdeacon, for Executing the Office of Vicar-General; always vested in a Native. This latter, who was a very ambitious Man, and never kept any great Correspondence with his Archbishop, (a Father of the Society,) and who knew that the Christians were displeased with the Jesuits, resolved to acknowledge him no longer for his Pastor, and got him expelled with all the Jesuits. And to render this Resolution the more authentick, having assembled the greatest Part of those Christians in a Church, he made them swear upon a Crucifix, that for the Time to come they would never acknowledge the Jesuits for their Pastors and Spiritual Directors, nor elect one of them to be their Head and Governor. Nay, the Folly of that People went so far, that they met again, and Twelve of the principal Priests consecrated the Archdeacon, and made him their Bishop. He continued to be looked upon as a Bishop, and to be esteemed and revered, ordaining, dispensing, confirming, and administering all the Sacraments of Mother-Church invalidly, expelling the true Curates and Priests from their Livings, putting in their Room those whom he had ordained, selling the Sacraments, ments, spoiling the Churches, with many other Sacrileges. Whereupon the Honest Priests, and the Christians obedient to the Holy See, gave Notice of it to the Court of Rome, and their Letters came in the Time of Alexander VII. of Holy Memory. They earnestly desired to have the Barefooted Carmelites, who were quickly sent to them several ways, with large Powers; and after many Toils and Sufferings, they all arrived safe. God was very much glorified upon this Occasion; for the greatest part of those Christians, being sensible of their Error, returned to their Obedience to Holy Mother Church, as may be seen in a Book printed at Rome by Monsignor Sebastiani, now Bishop of Castell, and in another published by Father ——— heretofore Procurator-General of the Barefooted Carmelites, who were both in Malabar, and had a Hand in such a Holy Work. Afterwards, in Opposition to that Intruder, who was one of the principal Men of that Nation, an Indian Bishop was elected, with the Approbation of the Holy See, and with the Title of Apostolical Vicar; and he has made a great Progress with the Assistance of those Fathers. The Congregation has lately sent thither Four other Carmelites, with the Power of giving a Successor to the said Bishop, in order to pluck out all the Roots of the pernicious Schism, occasioned by the impious Archdeacon, who intruded himself into the Episcopal Chair. We were certainly informed some Months ago, that he is dead; and therefore 'tis hoped those Catholics, who were very much divided among themselves, will live in great Union for the Time to come.

BEN

B E N G A L A.

TH E R E are in the Kingdom of Bengala (a vast and plentiful Country, watered by the Ganges,) about Twenty two Thousand Christians, divided into Eleven Parishes, each of which has a Curate, and a Vicar, in several Towns far distant one from another. The Catholick Faith was introduced into that Kingdom by the Portuguese, who bought a great many Slaves, and took care to have them instructed and baptized with their Children. Besides these, it is very difficult to find any Adults, who have been converted to our Holy Religion. The Augustins of the Province of Goa are Curates of the Churches in the Kingdom of Bengala; being sent thither every Three Years by the Provincial Chapter. They have a Convent at Ughili; whither they go first to learn the Language of the Country. The Jesuits have also a House in that City. There are in the Kingdom of Bengala, as well as in those of Araçan and Pagu, (which are also under the Inspection of the Augustins,) very great Disorders; not only among the Lay-Christians, who plunge themselves into all manner of Vice, and particularly into Lewdness, but also among the Curates themselves. The latter live a loose Life, keep a great many Servants, are generally very ignorant in the Language, and the Sciences, and extremely greedy of Money; which has occasioned many Inconveniences. The General of the Augustins should be enjoined to remedy such an Evil; and a good Apostolical Vicar should be sent thither as soon as possible, to remove these Disorders for the Benefit of those Catholicks.

J A V A.

THE Dutch Company of the East-Indies having set Foot in the Isle of Java, and built there the Town and Fortrefs of Batavia in the Kingdom of Bantam, made themselves Masters of the Molucco Islands, took the City of Malacca, and settled themselves in the Isle of Ceylon. Afterwards going along the Coast of Coromandel, they subdued many other Places in the Kingdom of Bisnagar, and elsewhere, taking every thing from the Crown of Portugal. Besides, they possessed themselves of the Cape of Comerin, the Coasts of Tiravancor, Cranganor, Cananor, &c. and of the famous City of Cochin. In short, they made themselves almost absolute Masters of all the East-Indies: And they are so Powerful, so Rich, and have such Strong Fleets, that 'tis impossible to drive them away from those Countries, unless Holland it self be subdued. The King of Denmark has a Fortrefs called Tranquebar, upon the Coast of Coromandel; and the King of England is also possessed of Matras, where the French Capuchins live, and are very acceptable to the Governor. The great Loss of the Portuguese in the East-Indies has occasioned the Deplorable Condition of Christianity in those Parts; the Dutch having destroyed and profaned the Churches, converted the Sacred Vessels to other Uses, vilified the Holy Images and Relicks, and banished all the Priests, particularly the Jesuits. Thus 'tis impossible, without their Consent, to preserve, and much more to propagate the Catholick Faith in those Vast Countries, where where it was professed with all Liberty, when the Portuguese were possessed of them.

G O A.

GO A, (a Fine and Populous City,) and some small Territories, are the only Part of the East-Indies that belongs now to the Portuguese. There is in Goa an Archbishop, (besides the Chapter and Clergy,) who pretends to be the Metropolitan of all the East-Indies. The Portuguese claim the Right of Nominating Bishops to those Churches, of which they were formerly possessed; but the Holy See has not hitherto confirmed that Nomination.

The PHILIPPINE ISLANDS.

AMONG these Islands, there are Forty under the Dominion of the King of Spain; but there is a vast Number of others, never yet conquered by the Spaniards, which form a very great Archipelago. Above Five Hundred Monks of several Orders, Augustins, Franciscans, Dominicans, Jesuits, and Barefooted Augustins, called there Recollects, are dispersed through those Islands, and reside in several Churches, where, (not by the Name of Curates, but of Teachers,) they teach the Christian Doctrine, and have made almost Two Millions of Converts, applying themselves with the utmost Care to the Propagation of the Faith.

The most Considerable of the Philippine Islands is Lusson, in which stands Manilla, an Archiepiscopal City, very populous, and full of Churches, Convents, Colleges, Hospitals, and other Pious Places. About Ten Thousand Chinese live in the Suburbs, and some of them are daily converted to the Catholick Faith by the Monks: The Chinese are very ingenious; but the other Inhabitants are dull and lazy. The same Island contains Two other Bishopricks, viz. that of the New Segovia, and that of the New Caxeres. A Third Bishoprick, called of Jesuw, is in another Island.

Those Islands have heretofore produced very diligent Men for the Missions of Japan; and now many Dominicans and Franciscans go from them into China. And therefore, if the Consent of the Spaniards could be had, it would be an easy Thing to erect a Spiritual Arsenal in the Isle of Lusson, for all those Provinces and Kingdoms bordering upon China. Notwithstanding the great Number of Monks in these Islands, and the Progress of the Catholick Faith, there are some Faults: particularly the Neglect of many Conversions, which might be attempted without great Labour; and want of Charity towards the Sick, who are obliged to get themselves carried to Church, to receive the Viaticum, and the Extreme Unction. Besides, no Care is taken to make the Natives study; and Holy Orders are never conferred upon them, though they have the necessary Qualifications to be Ordained. I omit some other Faults, which the Bishop of Heliosoli has lately represented in a Memorial to the Royal Council of the Indies at Madrid: That Memorial has been delivered by the Nuncio to the Congregation de propaganda Fide.

The

The Isles of the L A D R O N E S, otherwise called the Marian Islands.

TH E S E Islands are in the South-Sea, about Three Hundred Leagues distant from the Philippine, and lie in a strait Line from Japan to New Guinea. They are very much unprovided with Things necessary for Life; and therefore 'tis but within these Ten Years, that a Spanish Jesuit, called Father S. Vitorres, of a very Noble Family, did so prevail with the Queen, the Ministers, and his Superiors, that he settled there a Mission of his own Order, which made a great Progress in a very short Time. But at last he suffered Martyrdom with Two of his Companions; and therefore Six other Fathers were sent thither last Year, to the Assistance of the former Mission.

C H I N A.

CH I N A, a Vast Empire, divided from Tartary by a Wall of Five Hundred Leagues, is very populous, and abounding with every Thing necessary for Life, and Use, particularly with Wine, Sugar, and Silk. It is watered by many Navigable Rivers, and Channels. The Chinese are Civil, Courteous, and Ingenious: They profess many Sciences, especially the Mathematicks. They boast of having invented Printing before us, and use Characters, like Hieroglyphicks, each of which signifies a Word: And the Number of those

I 2

those Characters is said to amount to Eighty Thousand. The Inhabitants of China are all Idolaters, excepting some few, who have been made Christians within these Hundred Years. The Progress of the Christian Religion among the Chinese was so considerable in the very Beginning, that one might have expected a speedy and easy Conversion of that People. But the Fathers of the Society having obtained the Title of Mandarin, and the Eminent Post of Head of the Mathematicians, the Chinese did not only banish them, but also raise a Persecution against the Catholick Religion. They falsely accused those Fathers, of keeping Intelligence with the Portuguese, to the Prejudice of China, and designing to have it subdued by the European Nations. Whereupon the Tartars, (who now Reign in that Country conquered by the Father of the present King,) suspecting, during that Prince's Minority, that the People had a mind to shake off their Yoke, prohibited all manner of Commerce with Foreigners, and particularly with the Portuguese. But we are now informed, that this severe Edict has been recalled, and that it has been declared, that the Catholick Religion is not prejudicial to the Empire of China. And therefore the Dominicans of the Philippine Islands, the Minor Observantins, and even the Jesuits, have begun to return into that Country. But the last Letters from thence inform us, that there are new Wars in that Empire; and that a Chinese of the Ancient Royal Family has begun to expel the Tartars: And therefore 'tis to be feared, that such a Change of Government may, for some Political Ends, occasion new Persecutions against the Catholick Religion.

S I A M.

THIS Kingdom is situated in the Southern Part of the Indies, beyond the Gulph of Bengala, and consists of Eleven Provinces, (which were formerly as many Kingdoms,) the Chief whereof is Siam, so called from the Capital City. That Town, which lies upon the Sea, and has a very commodious Port, is the usual Residence of the King ; and though that Prince is an Idolater, yet he allows the Publick Exercise of all Religions, not only there, but in the Whole Kingdom. Hence it is that one of the Apostolical Vicars, with the Consent of the Holy See, makes his Residence in that City : He has a Publick Church there, and has founded a Seminary, where the Natives are instructed in order to be made Priests. In the Beginning of the Mission, the King shewed some Inclination to the Catholick Faith ; for he desired to be informed of all the Mysteries of our Religion, which were explained to him by the Missionaries in the Siamese Language : Besides, he ordered that the Catholicks should be provided with all the Materials necessary for the Building of their Church ; which was executed. The greatest Obstacle to the Propagation of the Faith in that Kingdom, is the great Interest and Power which the Mahometans have there ; for they leave nothing unattempted to introduce their Pernicious Sect. Nay, 'tis not long since the King was desired to embrace Mahometism by a solemn Embassy from the Queen of Achen, who Reigns in the most considerable Kingdom of the Isle of Sumatra, and also by the King of Golconda, who are both Mahometans. Notwithstanding what I have just

I 2

just now said, the Missionaries have made a very great Progress, not only in Siam, but in the other Provinces, and baptized many of the Principal Persons of that Court.

C O C H I N C H I N A.

THIS Country, which borders upon Tonchin, was formerly one of the Provinces of this last Kingdom. The King of Tonchin having sent one of his Kinsmen into Cochinchina, in the Quality of Governor, the latter made himself Master of it; and his Descendants keep it by force of Arms, being continually at War with the Tonchinese. The Inhabitants of Cochinchina want no Wit, and are capable of hearkening to Reason. Hence it is that they appear very well affected towards Christianity; and were it not for the Persecutions, and Royal Edicts, they would quickly embrace it, knowing the Falsity of Idolatry, and the Truth of our Religion. This Kingdom is under the Pastoral Care of the Bishop of Baruti, and other Missionaries, who have made a very great Progress, not only there, but also in the Kingdom of Ciampa subject to the King of Cochinchina.

C A M B O I A.

THE Kingdom of Cambodia borders upon that of Siam, to which it was formerly Subordinate; but now it pays Tribute to the King of Cochinchina. The Inhabitants are good natured and teachable, and the Women very Chast; but they are all Idolaters. There is in this Kingdom

a very Ancient Temple, as Famous among the Gentiles, as St. Peter's Church at Rome among the Christians. Many Talapoins, who are the Doctors of the Law, live in that Temple; and all the Neighbouring Nations resort to it, to consult the Oracle, and go thither in Pilgrimage, Nay, the King of Siam himself, though an Enemy, sends every Year an Embassy to that Place.

The Apostolical Vicars have also made many Converts in this Kingdom; but because the Language of the Country is very difficult, and for some other Reasons, they have not been able to establish the Christian Faith as they desired. One of their Missionaries says that he has discovered in that Kingdom a very numerous Nation, whose Ears are one Palm broad. There are among them many Sorcerers, as well as in the adjacent Countries, out of whom our Lord Christ has not yet cast the Devil.

T O N C H I N.

TO N C H I N was Eight Hundred Years ago a Province of China; and 'tis not above a Hundred Years, since Cochinchina was a Province of Tonchin; but now it is a Kingdom separated from both. The Kingdom of Tonchin is almost as large as France: It lies in the Torrid Zone, and is very Fruitful, having the Sea on both sides, and being watered by above Fifty Rivers, which fertilize its Soil. Though the Government of this Kingdom is Monarchical, yet it may be said there are Two Kings in it; a Nominal One, called Ban, who lives in an Antient Palace, and never comes out of it, but once in a Year, to receive a Publick Homage; and a Real One, named

Civa, who has a full Power and Authority over all the Provinces, makes War and Peace as he thinks fit, and is the Supreme Minister of the other, though independent upon him, excepting the Respect and Obedience which he pays to him. 'Tis to be observed, that those Two Dignities are equally Hereditary.

Father Alexander de Rhodes, a Jesuit of Avignon, was the first who brought Christianity into that Kingdom, where it was quickly spread by the Diligence of the Fathers, who accompanied him. But a violent Persecution forced them to leave that Country; so that in the Year 1666, when the Missionaries sent by the Bishop of Baruti arrived there, the Christian Religion was prohibited under very great Penalties. Nevertheless, by their Application and Virtue they have done wonderful Things, having converted some of the most Eminent Persons of the Court, and a vast Number of other Idolaters; and though the Persecutions have been revived, and attended with the Torments and Death of the Faithful, yet, (as it happened in the Primitive Church,) the Christian Religion hath increased more and more by the Blood of the Martyrs. And indeed it may be said now, that the greatest and best Part of Tonchin is Catholic: And if Your Holiness should write to that King, and invite him to embrace our Holy Religion, sending him some Presents, (which are a Sign of Esteem and Affection,) as is practised in the East; the Bua, or the Civa, would easily turn Christian. The Bishop of Leopal might be intrusted with this Commission upon his Return, Tonchin being under his Apostolical Vicarship; and because that Kingdom is very large, and there are many Faithful in it, some other Bishops should be sent thither.

[The

The Holy See, in order to promote the Catholick Religion in China, Cochinchina, Camboia, Tonchin, &c. being moved to it by the Account which the Jesuits, and particularly Father Alexander de Rhodes, gave of those Countries, thought it proper to send Bishops into all those Kingdoms; both to instruct the Natives, and to confer Priestly Orders upon some of them. And indeed this seemed to be the only way of establishing, maintaining, and propagating the Christian Faith in those Countries; for it was not possible to send thither from Europe as many Missionaries, as they wanted. Some French Priests, who were Pious, Learned, and Zealous Men, offered to perform this great Work at their own Charges: Whereupon Three of them were made Bishops in partibus by Alexander VII. of Holy Memory, and sent into China and other adjacent Kingdoms in the Quality of Apostolical Vicars, with a sufficient Number of Priests. They arrived in the East Indies; and the Congregation knows how many Oppositions they met with from the Jesuits, who being the first Missionaries in those Parts, could not well bear to find themselves subjected to the Apostolical Vicars. They thought they had lost in a great Measure the esteem they were in, and that they should not be able to manage the Indians, as they had done before; that People being very sensible of the great Virtue and Disinterestedness of the Vicars. The Jesuits began therefore to cry them down in Public Meetings, and even in their Churches; and raising a damnable Schism, exhorted the Faithful by Circular Letters to deny their Authority, and to pay no Obedience to them, making them believe with crafty Insinuations that they were Intruders, and Heretical Bishops, and that all the Sacraments Administred by their Priests were null. By Virtue of this Supposition the Jesuits did continually renew the Sacraments, preaching up that 'twas better to die without them, than to receive them from the said Priests. Thus the new Missionaries being persecuted and cried down by the Jesuits, some were transported into the Inquisition of Goa, and others barbarously expelled by the Heathen Princes. And though the Vicars endeavoured to make themselves respected and feared, producing many Briefs written in their Favour by Alexander VII. Clement IX. and Clement X. of blessed Memory; yet Father Tuciti and Father Marini, who are the greatest Opposers, (the former, because he has a Patent of Vicar granted him by Father Michael degli Angeli an Augustin, Governor of the Church of Macao; and the latter by reason of a Brief written by Pope Alexander VII. to the People of Tonchin;) pretended to be the Heads of that vast Mission, and publickly maintained that the Vicars were Jansenists, and their Bulls Surreptitious, and consequently that they would not obey them, and acknowledge them for their Pastors. Nay, the better to prove these Assertions, the Jesuits gave out that the Pope had granted, at the Sollicitation of the Crown of Portugal, as many Bishops of their own Order, as they would have; and that there were Two in Macao, viz. One of Japan, and another of China and Tonchin. They added, That all the Bulls, which were not registred in the Chancery of Portugal, were illegally obtained. They made use of profligate Men and Apostates, and bestowed the best Preferments upon those Christians, who defended with most Eloquence the pretended Rights of the Crown of Portugal, and the Privileges of their own Society, against the Authority of the Holy See. In short, the poor Vicars being in great Straits, found it necessary to send an Agent to the Court of Rome. They represented to that Court the Unhappy Condition they were in, and desired some Assistance to prevent the loss of those Christians, whose Conversion had been wrought with so much Trouble and Labour ; and who by reason of the Falsities spread by the Jesuits, knew not whom to believe ; some doubting of the Validity of their Priesthood, and others of being truly absolved of their Sins ; which occasioned great Inconveniences. The Vicars added, that they lost their Authority every Day, by reason of the great Impostures of the Jesuits, and their Followers, who took hold of every Opportunity to get them expelled ; and even writ many Calumnies against them to the Christian Princes of Europe, leaving nothing unattempted to succeed in their Design.

-sition -

re-

These just Complaints having been examined, new Briefs were drawn up by Clement X. of Holy Memory, at the humble Desire of the Congregation, whereby he confirmed the former Briefs, granted in Favour of the said Vicars, and not only enlarged their Jurisdiction, but also encreased their Number ; making a Chinese Dominican the Fourth Apostolical Vicar in China, because that Father being a Native, might more easily introduce the Christian Religion into that great Empire. Afterwards the General of the Jesuits was ordered to put an end to those Disorders with his Authority ; and he writ a very severe Letter to his Religious, commanding them to obey the Apostolical Vicars. That Letter was put into the Hands of the same Agent, who being returned into the East-Indies delivered it to the Jesuits. But they immediately answered, that they had other Orders from their General, and continued to persecute the Vicars more than ever, crossing them in every Thing, to the manifest Contempt of the Holy See, whose Briefs and Bulls were not executed, euted, under the horrid Pretence that it cannot deprive the Crown of Portugal of its Rights. Whereupon, the Apostolical Vicars dispatched another Agent to Rome, with repeated Instances that some Remedy should be applied to the obstinate Opposition of the Jesuits; or that they should be recalled by the Holy See, seeing what they did for the Service of God, did only expose them to be vilified and ill treated, it being impossible to live peaceably with those Fathers, though they had often courted their Favour. A particular Congregation, most Holy Father, was to be held, Three Years ago, about that important Affair; but because the Resident, and then the present Ambassador of Portugal, acquainted the Holy See, that the King expected to be heard, that Congregation has been put off to this very Day. The Pretensions of that Crown consist in the Nomination of the Bishopricks of the Indies; and because the Kingdoms committed to the Care of the Apostolical Vicars, are supposed to be in the Dioceses of Macao and Malacca, the Court of Portugal would deprive those Vicars of their Jurisdiction, and settle there the Fathers of the Society; the above-mentioned Father Marini being already named to the Bishoprick of Macao. I have often desired the Portuguese Ambassador, in the Name of the Congregation, to write down the Reasons of the King his Master, that this Affair might be determined with mature Deliberation; but he always demanded some Time to write into Portugal, and never had any Answer. He has also applied himself, not only to the Congregation, but also to Your Holiness, in order to know the Reasons why the Holy See will not allow the Nomination above-mentioned; but the Congregation did always refuse to satisfy him upon that Head, because the Decorum, and Supreme Authority of the Holy See, do not allow of it. Besides, the Congregation being to meet at the End of the last Year 1677, about the Affair relating to the Jesuits in the East-Indies, that Minister used his utmost Endeavours to prevent it, pretending to be heard there, because that Affair concerns the Court of Portugal. To conclude; The Congregation has taken several Measures to suppress that Schism, if it be possible; but they cannot be registred here, because Your Holiness has ordered that they should be kept secret.

J A P A N.

JAPAN consists of Three great Islands, and is divided into Sixty Six Kingdoms. The Catholick Religion was first of all preached in that Country by St. Francis Xavier; and then by the Blessed Peter Barra Martyr. It made a great Progress in a short Time, and particularly in the City of Nangesaky, (or Nangazacki), which is a Port of great Trade. The Number of the Christians in Japan did heretofore amount to Six Hundred Thousand. Some Bishops were made there; and many others were designed for that Country by the Congregation. The Augustins, Dominicans, Franciscans, and Jesuits, had there Seventy three Houses, with Churches, and Seminaries, and preached the Gospel with great Success. Many Things occasioned the Persecutions raised against the Catholicks, and the Destruction of Religion in Japan; but the main Cause was the Emperor's Suspicion that the King of Spain designed to subdue him, as he had subdued the King of Mexico, and some other Kings of the West-Indies. That Prince was the more inclined to think so, be-because he was told, the King of Spain had made use of Monks in America, who by Preaching the Gospel brought his Armies into those Kingdoms. This Calumny was invented by the Dutch Hereticks, who Traded in those Islands; and the Emperor was confirmed in his Suspicion, because a Captain of Biscay used to Sound the Ports of Japan, and performed, upon the Shore, the Military Ceremonies, that are practised at the taking Possession of a Country; and because the King of Voxri, tributary to that Prince, sent an Embassy to the King of Spain in 1613. Hence it is that the Persecution began in 1615. It seems, that the Fathers of the Society did also contribute to it, not only by meddling with Political Affairs, but also by Trading publicly; and therefore many of that Order were martyrizd, with a vast Number of other Religious and Lay-People of both Sexes, and particularly an Army of Forty Thousand Catholics. Thus the Christian Religion was destroyed in Japan; but if the Natives had been ordained Priests, it would have prevailed to this very Day, notwithstanding all the Persecutions. However, there are still many Catholics in that Country, who propagate the Christian Faith among themselves; The Fathers baptize their Children, and many suffer Martyrdom every Year. They stand in great Need of Missionaries; and the Dominicans of the Philippine Islands endeavour to send some privately.

A F R I

A F R I C A.

THOUGH Africa is larger than Europe, yet it does not contain so many Inhabitants, by Reason of the Vast Desarts that are in it. The Congregation has taken care to send Missions into that Part of the World; but most of them did not remain there, because of the ill Temper of the Africans, and for want of Patience in the Missionaries.

E G Y P T.

EGYPT, (a Noble Country in Africa,) where there is a continual Trade, especially at Cairo, Alexandria, Damieta, and Rosetta, and at Suez, upon the Red Sea, was conquered by Selim in the Year 1517. It is now inhabited by the Turks, Arabians, Greeks, and Cophites; and the Arabick Language is necessary for their Conversion. The Mission of this Country, consisting of Reformed maintained by the Congregation, resides at Cairo, from whence those Fathers may conveniently go to Suez, to comfort the poor Catholick Slaves kapt in the Turkish Galleys. The same is practised by the Religious of Alexandria, who go to the Assistance of those of Rosetta, where the usual Exercises of the Missionaries are not forbidden, when they do not appear prejudicial to the Mahometan Religion. The Number of the Catholicks all over Egypt does not amount to Two Thousand, among whom there are many Merchants of several Nations, especially French and Venetian. The Coptes make up Forty Thousand Souls, and might easily be brought over to the Catholick Church, if they were instructed by good-natured Missionaries; for they are more teachable than all the other Schismatics. They have a Patriarch: That Dignity is always bestowed upon a mere Monk, who has constantly lived in Celibacy, and in a Cloyster; and therefore whoever is a Bishop, can never be made Patriarch. Here follow their chief Errors. They look upon Dioscorus and Eutyches as Saints. They practise Circumcision, though they are baptized. They don't acknowledge the Pope, but the Patriarch of Alexandria. They reject the Council of Chalcedon, and admit but one Will, one Nature, and one Operation in Christ. There are Six or Seven Churches belonging to the Catholicks in Old Cairo, adorned with Images, which shew the Ancient Use of them against the Hereticks of our Time. The Coptes have also a Church in that Place, and affirm that the Blessed Virgin lived Seven Years in it with our Lord: There is in that Church an Oven, that looks like a Bed, wherein the Tradition says that our Saviour used to sleep. That Place is in great Veneration among all the Christians; and therefore the Catholick Priests say Mass in it, upon a portable Altar. The Latins have at Cairo the Chapels of the French and Venetian Consuls; and the Capuchins have one in their Hospice. In Alexandria the Consuls have their Chapels; and that of the French is very large, and very much adorned. There are in that City some Churches belonging to the Greeks, and a famous one dedicated to St. George. Several Monasteries of Greeks and Coptes are to be found about Cairo; but most of them have been destroyed by the Turks, or are in a sad Condition, by reason of the Poverty of those

Schif-

Schismatics. The Congregation kept formerly a Bishop at Cairo, who had Four Hundred Ducats a Year from a French Gentleman for his Maintenance. After his Death, which happened in 1654, he had no Successor, perhaps for want of an Allowance. This Church might be set up again, being very necessary, not only for the Spiritual Government of those Missions, but also for the Reunion of the Coptes, and above all, for the Affairs of Ethiopia. Besides the Reformed Missionaries abovementioned, there are in Egypt Minor Observantins, and Capuchins. The former depend upon the Guardian of the Holy Land, and are altogether under his Obedience; and the latter depend upon their President. The Reformed have no Convents, but only Hospices. The Capuchins have but one, with Two Priests, and a Layman; and the Minor Observantins Four, where Two or Three Monks live. They are continually divided among themselves about the Parochial Right. The Reasons why the Catholick Religion makes but a small Progress in Egypt, are the following: The Lewdness, Sensuality, and many other Vices, of the Italian and French Merchants: the severe Laws against those, who speak against the Law of Mahomet; which cannot be done, without Losing one's Life, or Renouncing the Christian Faith; besides the Danger of occasioning by it the Expulsion of all the Catholicks, either Missionaries, or Merchants: The Obstinacy of the Jews, and their violent Hatred against all the Catholicks, insomuch that they are the Authors of all the Insults, which our Brethren suffer; and if that Wicked Nation was not dispersed in the East, the Catholick Religion would easily prevail: Lastly, The Pride and Arrogance of the Greeks, who live under the Patriarch of Alexandria. There are now Two Patriarchs of that City very much set, one against another ; and perhaps this Quarrel might afford some Advantage to the Catholick Faith.

K

that

Æ T H I O P I A.

ÆTHIOPIA, a Vast Country, contains many Kingdoms on both Sides of the Equator. The Inhabitants are Christians, and speak different Languages ; but they have a common Language, which they use in Writing, as we use the Latin Tongue. The Æthiopians acknowledge the Patriarch of Alexandria for their Supreme Head in Spiritual Things. This Nation fell into the Schism occasioned by Eutyches, and Dioscorus Patriarch of that City. They condemn Pope Leo, and the Council of Chalcedon, which opposed their false Doctrine. The Patriarch of the Coptes governs Æthiopia, and chuses the Archbishop of the Æthiopians. When this Archbishoprick happens to be vacant, the King sends an Ambassador to the said Patriarch, for the Election of a Successor. The Æthiopians grew Zealous for the Holy See, and had, as well as their King, a great Veneration for the Pope. Which moved Gregory XIII. to send to King Sarzadingbel, a Gentleman, whose Name was John Baptist Britti, to desire him to reunite himself to the Church, and to pay a due Obedience to the Holy See. Afterwards Alfonso Mendez, a Jesuit, was settled among the Æthiopians, in the Quality of Latin Patriarch ; but in 1626, he was expelled with all the Fathers of the Society, upon Suspicion that they had a Design to deliver up a Maritime Fortress. Thus the Nation remained wholly destitute of Catholick Priests. The Reformed, and the Capuchins, having undertaken since to get into Ethiopia, were put to Death at Suacbem, and elsewhere : And the Bishop of Crisopoli, who was sent into that Country with the Title of Apostolical Vicar, could go no farther than Cairo. Afterwards a Maronite, who had been Thirty Years in Ethiopia, being arrived at Jerusalem in 1665, gave the following Account, viz. That the King, who persecuted our Religion, was dead ; that his Son, who had succeeded him, shewed himself to be well affected towards the Catholicks, allowing them the Publick Exercise of their Religion ; that in a Province bordering upon Egypt, there were above Thirty Thousand Catholicks, and that in the City where he lived with his Family, their Number amounted to Six Thousand, or thereabouts ; that they spoke the Portuguese Language, and were extremely desirous to have Priests ; and that a very great Progress might be made in the Conversion of the Schismaticks, if the Missionaries would be contented with the Necessaries for Life, and mind nothing else but the promoting of the Glory of God.
and

This Account having been communicated to a particular Congregation the 7th of December 1666, it was ordered that the Mission should be revived, and that one Antony Andrade, a Native of Ethiopia, who had been Chaplain to the Patriarch, and was made Bishop of Calipoli, should be sent into that Country, with the Title of Apostolical Vicar. The Missionaries were accordingly provided with Money, Books, and other Necessaries ; and being arrived at Suez, they informed the Congregation in the Year 1669, that the Persecution continued still, but not so violent as it was at first. In the Year 1671, the Congregation was informed that those Missionaries, and the Apostolical Vicar, had been killed out of Ha-tered against the Catholick Religion. Thus that Mission was altogether forsaken ; but it has been since united to that of Egypt, with Orders for the Superior to send Missionaries into Aethiopia, upon a favourable Juncture ; and Care has been taken to provide the Money necessary for this Purpose. That Superior has represented to the Congregation, that 'tis very difficult to go into Aethiopia, by the way of Cairo, there being few Opportunities of embarking for that Country ; and that it were better to send the Missionaries by the way of Portugal, or by the Persian Gulph. Whereupon a Letter was written to the Nuncio in Portugal, who answered, that the Ships which set out from Lisbon, go directly to Goa, and that none could ever get into Aethiopia ; and therefore if the Missionaries should go as far as Goa, and come back from thence to the Persian Gulph, the Voyage would be much longer, and more chargeable, than that of Cairo. Wherefore seeing it is so difficult for our Missionaries to get into Aethiopia, the Conversion of the Coptes would be the best way to restore the Catholick Faith in that Country. Cardinal S. Onofrio settled a Maintenance for the Coptes in the College de propaganda Fide ; and had they been brought over in due Time, we might have now proper Missionaries both for Egypt and Aethiopia. All possible Diligence should be used hereafter to get some Coptes ; and the New Bishop should be ordered to send to Cairo for some, at the Charges of the Congregation. A French Capuchin lately arrived from Egypt, believes the Coptes may easily be converted. They are, says he, plain and good-natured Men ; they have no Aversion to the Catholicks ; nay, they acknowledge the Pope to be the Head of the Church, and say, the Length of the Journey hinders them from coming to pay their Obe-

Obedience to him ; in short, they believe we only differ from them in Rites and Ceremonies. Your Holiness might therefore, (in order to promote so good a Work,) appoint a particular Congregation, to examine the Relation of that Capuchin ; and some other Accounts, that are in the Archives.

F E Z and M O R O C C O.

A Mission of barefooted Franciscans of the Province of St. Didaco, was founded in the Kingdoms of Fex and Morocco ever since the Year 1630. That Mission made a great Progress in the Conversion of the Moors, Jews, and Renegadoes, and was revived last Year, by sending thither Twelve Monks with the Approbation of the Nuncio of Spain. Don Pietro d' Arragona has lately erected an Hospital at Fex, and another at Tetuan, which are served by Two Religious, of the Redemption of Spanish Slaves, to whom the Congregation has granted the Power of Missionaries for Three Years. The same Fathers have a Convent at Morocco ; but there are few Religious in it, because the King makes now his Residence at Fex, where the greatest Part of the Christian Slaves are.

K 3

A R D A

A R D A and N I G R I T I A

THERE was in Arda and Nigritia a Mission of Capuchins of the Province of Castile, who were sent thither in 1659, by the Congregation, at the Request of the King of that Country, by means of his Ambassador at the Court of Spain. The Missionaries met with a kind Reception; but afterwards they went away without having made any great Progress: Supposing that the King pretended to turn Catholick, only to settle a Trade with Spain. Some Missionaries are now returned into that Country.

S I E R R A D I L E O N E

IN the Year 1652, the Congregation founded, in the Kingdom of Sierra di Leone, a Mission of Spanish Capuchins of the Province of Andalusia. They set out, being Fifteen in Number; but Three only arrived in that Country, the others having been taken and detained by the Portuguese, who were then at War with Spain. Those Missionaries wrought many Conversions; for the Congregation was informed some few Years after, that they had baptized a great King, and Three lesser ones, with many Noble Men, and abundance of common People; and that they had built some Churches in the chief Towns: Which was the Reason why some other Religious were sent thither in 1657, and 1664. But in the Year 1672, Father Paul Freginal, a Spanish Capuchin, and Sub-Prefect of that Mission, arrived at Brussels.
Most

Most of his Companions being dead, he came thither to get some Religious of Flanders, or France: Supposing it would be more easy for them to obtain from the English, and Dutch, the Liberty of embarking. This was communicated by the Inter-nuncio of Flanders, to the Congregation, who considering that several Inconveniencies might arise in that Mission, if it should consist of Missionaries of different Nations, writ a Letter to the Nuncio in Spain, importing that the Provincial of Andalusia should send new Missionaries into Sierra di Leone. But Father Paul, just now mentioned, being come to Madrid, and having had a Conference with the Nuncio, persuaded him to inform the Congregation, that it was highly necessary to send into that Country some Flemish, or French Missionaries, considering the great Scarcity of Men qualified for such a Mission in the Province of Andalusia. At last, the difficulty of shipping the Spiciards, and the Nuncio's assuring, that the French Monks would neither prejudice, nor disturb the Mission; besides the Approbation of the Nuncio in France; these Considerations, I say, moved the Congregation to order the Procurator-General of the Capuchins, and also the Nuncio of France, that the French Missionaries should be sent into Sierra di Leone. But Monsignor Mellini, Your Holiness's Nuncio in Spain, has informed the Congregation this present Year, that this Mission is wholly forsaken; that the Churches are spoiled, and destroyed; that the Catholics have no Evangelical Ministers; that the French Capuchins, designed for that Mission, never went into Sierra di Leone, alledging for their Excuse, that they were engaged in other Missions, and that the last Wars of France with Holland, and other States in the North, made their Imbarkation very difficult in the Foreign Ports. Thus, the Kingdom of Sierra di Leone has been deprived of both Missions. The Nuncio of Spain having informed Your Holiness, that the Spanish Commerce with the Negroes of Africa is now on foot ; that several Ships go into Sierra de Leone every Year ; and that a Person belonging to the Spanish Court, and extremely Zealous for the Propagation of the Christian Faith, offers to send thither Twelve Religious, and to maintain them at his own Charges ; Your Holiness has approved such a Pious Design, and ordered the Nuncio to promote the Execution of it,

O V E R I O and B E N I N.

THE Kingdom of Overio lies upon the Western Coast of Africa, and borders upon the Kingdom of Benin. The King of that Country, having embraced the Catholick Religion, writ a Letter to Innocent X. of Holy Memory in the Year 1651, beseeching that Pope to send him some Evangelical Ministers for his own Benefit, and that of his Subjects. Accordingly a Mission of Capuchins was settled, not only in the Kingdom of Overio, but also in that of Benin; though all the Inhabitants of the latter were Idolaters, and even Worship their King; Thirteen Priests with their Prefect were also sent thither : They made a very great Progress, and not only converted the King, but also persuaded him to marry a Portuguese Woman. Afterwards they were persecuted by the Vicar-General of St. Thomas, who pretended they could not be there without his Permission, and so sent the Prefect Prisoner to Lisbon ; but he was quickly set at liberty. That Country is now governed by the Bishop of St. Thomas, who is a Portuguese. The Nuncio of Portugal ingal should be ordered to give some Information about it.

G U I N E A.

THERE are in Guinea, (which is a vast Country in the Torrid Zone,) many Colonies of English, Dutch, Swedes, and Danes; and therefore besides the Infidelity of the Natives, Herefy has also got footing in it. A Mission of Capuchins was settled there in 1674, at the Request of a Provincial of Bretagne, who was informed that the Inhabitants were very teachable, and almost without any Religion. Those Missionaries being arrived in the Kingdom of B—, which makes Part of Guinea, were kindly received by the King, and all the Negroes. A Place was immediately granted them to set up an Altar, where they said Mass in the King's Presence. Those Fathers are very successful; and a Patent is now drawing up to make the Provincial of Bretagne Prefect of that Mission.

B A R B A R Y.

THE Coast, called Barbary, is a large Tract of Ground, where there are many Catholics, most of them Slaves; and therefore, in order to assist them, the Congregation keeps an Apostolical Vicar at Algiers, viz. Mr. John Levacher, a French Priest, and a very Worthy and Apostolical Man. The Congregation kept also another Vicar at Tunis; but now they have only a Priest there, with the Title of Sub-Vicar, who is subject to Mr.

Mr. Levaucher. That Vicar and that Sub-Vicar have an Inspection ex Officio over the Priests, who are Slaves, and over the Regular Missionaries, whom the Congregation sends into that Country. The Reformed serve in Algiers; and the Capuchins at Tunis; and Four of this last Order, very well qualified, are lately gone thither, besides Two Priests of Naples; who have offered to go and live there at their own Charges: Cardinal Spinola has given a good Character of them. There is at Tripoli, besides some Capuchins, a Mission of Reformed for the Slaves, who are there in great Numbers; but that Mission consists now of very few Missionaries.

The Bastion of F R A N C E.

IN a Place, called the Bastion of France, there was a Mission of Barefooted Augustins for Nu-midia, and other adjacent Provinces; but it was suppressed by the Death of a French Merchant, who maintained it. In the Year 1667, it was proposed to restore that Mission; another Merchant having offered to be at all the Charges necessary to keep it up. The Congregation writ about that Affair to Cardinal Roberti, who was then Nuncio; but he never made any Answer. It would not be amiss to write to the present Nuncio about it.

T A-

T A B A R C A.

TABARCA is a small Island, not far distant from the Coast of Barbary. It has been possessed about these Hundred Years by the Family Lomellina, who have there a Castle very well provided. That Island is inhabited by about Six Hundred Catholicks, most of which are Soldiers, and Officers, with the Governor and his Family. Two Augustins perform the Function of Curates, and acknowledge the Archbishop of Genoa for their Ordinary. There was heretofore a Mission of Capuchins; but it was suppressed in 1651, as being unnecessary.

C A P O N E G R O.

THIS is a Promontory lately conquered by some Gentlemen of Genoa, who have fortified it to secure their Goods. All the Inhabitants are Catholicks. Having obtained Two Religions from the General of the Capuchins, to be their Spiritual Directors; they endeavoured to procure them the Authority of Missionaries, which Your Holiness would not grant. We hear now, that the Turks have burnt that Place, and imprisoned the Governor, and some other Persons.

M E-

M E L I L L A.

THE Capuchins have Hospices at Melilla, Penon de Velez, and Porto di S. Michele. In 1662, the Provincial of Andalusia desired to settle there a Mission of those Religious. But the Congregation being informed by the Nuncio of Spain, that the Capuchins of those Three Places were not allowed to preach the Catholick Faith to the Infidels, and that they were only designed for the Garison, which the King of Spain keeps there, refused to give them the Title of Missionaries. However, if any Progress could be made among those Infidels, by sending a greater Number of Religious, it would be no Prejudice to the Garison; and therefore the present Nuncio should be consulted about it.

B O N A.

BONA is the Ancient Hippo, where St. Augustin was Bishop. The Barefooted Augustins made heretofore a great Progress in that Place; and because there are many Catholicks in it, the Congregation was frequently desired to settle there a Bishoprick, a private Person offering to give Three Hundred Crowns a Year for that Purpose. But because the Order of St. Augustin made the same Offer, they had the Preference given them by the Congregation in March 1644; and the next Month, a certain Time was set for the Endowment of that Bishoprick. It does not appear that any thing has been done towards it;

nay,

nay, we hear now, that there is no Mission of the Barefooted Augustins in that Place.

T R E M I S E N.

THIS Kingdom was formerly the Mauritania Casariensis : It is a Barren Country, and full of Desarts. In the Year 1641, the Barefooted Fathers of the Redemption were appointed Missionaries, and ordered to live there, not only in the Time of the Redemption, but continually, for the Assistance of the Catholick Slaves, as is practised in Barbary. We have no Account of them, and know not whether they continue to live there.

C A P O - V E R D E.

CAPO-VERDE was so called from a great many Woods, which are green all the Year. It is a very fruitful and Populous Country. There are many Habitations, like small Boroughs, Two or Three Leagues distant one from another. The Houses are covered with Rushes ; the Inhabitants are quite Black, and go almost stark naked. Their Religion has some resemblance with that of Mahomet, though they worship the Rising Sun. Their King is a very potent Prince : He always keeps Three or Four Thousand Horses, and is so far a lover of Foreigners, as not to suffer that any wrong should be done to them ; but he gives them no Assistance, and expects to receive continually Presents from them. In the Year 1636, the Capuchins of the Province of Normandy were sent

I

Missionaries

Missionaries to Cape-Verde, and their Provincial had the Title of Prefect given him. They made some Progress, but they left that Country because they could not live in it. The Fathers of the French Mission, in their way to the Isle of St. Laurence, give some Assistance to those few Christians, who remain at Cape-Verde.

S E N E G A.

SENEGA is a small Kingdom upon a Branch of the River Niger; and therefore it is also called Rio di Senega. The French drive a great Trade there: which is the Reason why in the Year 1673, the Provincial of the Third Order of St. Francis at Paris desired of the Congregation, that he might send thither some of his Religious. The Congregation refused it, because they believed then that the French Capuchins were in Sierra di Leone, to whom the Mission of Senega had been also granted. But those Missionaries are not gone thither; and therefore the Kingdom of Senega remains deprived of Spiritual Assistance. The Nuncio of France should be informed of it.

Missions have been founded in many other Kingdoms and Provinces of Africa; but they have been also forsaken, without giving notice of it to the Congregation. Wherefore, it was decreed in the Year 1651, that Missionaries should not be allowed to forsake their Missions without leave from the Congregation. This Order is not observed.

C O N G O

CONGO and ANGOLA.

THE Kingdom of Congo lies upon the Western Shore of Africa, and reaches almost to the Confines of Aethiopia. It is divided into Six large Countries, and inhabited by Christians and Heathens. It was converted to the Christian Faith by the Portuguese, about the Year 1590; and Pope Clement the VIIIth granted them a Bishop, Erected a Cathedral in the Capital City called St. Salvador, from that Church, and put it under the Archbishop of Lisbon. But the Portuguese, who pretended to have the Nomination of that Bishoprick, furnishing it with a certain Sum of Money, removed it from St. Salvador to Loanda, and called it no longer the Bishoprick of Congo or St. Salvador, but of Angola. The Congregation, in order to take care of the Christians in those Parts, Founded a Mission of Capuchins in the Year 1641, not only for the Kingdom of Congo, but also for that of Angola, (commonly called Matamba by the Portuguese,) and for that of Casange, which reaches a great way into the Inland. Those Missionaries make their Residence at Loanda, where they have a Church, and a Convent, with a Quire. They have made a very great Progress in those Kingdoms, and converted a great Number of the Inhabitants, who have often desired that the Holy See would send them some Bishops. Whereupon the Congregation, to avoid the Difficulties of the Nomination above-mentioned, decreed that a Bishop in partibus should be sent into Congo, and pitched upon D. Francesco Staibano, a Neapolitan; but that Decree was superseded sed for some Political Reasons alledged by the Minister of Portugal.

The Missionaries have introduced into those Kingdoms, Baptism, the Use of Confession, and of the Eucharist, Extreme Unction, and Marriage. A Fraternity of the Rosary has been Founded there, and Two at Loanda: One for the Europeans and another for the Natives, besides a Congregation for the Reformation and Education of Young People. The Conversion of the Inhabitants would be attended with better success, were it not for the Tyranny of the Nobility, who being extremely addicted to Rapine, think it Lawful and Honourable to take away other Mens Goods. And therefore the People, who are rather Slaves than Subjects, dare not depart from their Example, though they appear well affected towards the Missionaries.

There is no Place in the Kingdom of Congo, (and much more, in other Countries not so well instructed in Christianity,) but what has an Idolatrous Priest, who is a Necromancer, and a Sorcerer. Though those Priests fear and shun the Missionaries, freely confessing that they cannot withstand the Ministers of our God; yet they leave nothing unattempted to pervert the Simple, and do very much prejudice our Religion. As for what concerns the want of Christian Priests, it is undeniable that their Number will never be sufficient, unless the Natives be ordained, as the Congregation has frequently declared. Nay, that Society writ to the King of Congo himself, and exhorted him to set up a Seminary to be maintained with the Tithes; but hitherto the Thing has had no effect. Twelve Capuchin Missionaries have lately been sent thither, with Father Paolo Francesco of the Port of St. Maurice their Superior, who having received a great many Favours from Your Holiness, desires still that he may make use of the Novices in the Convent of Loanda, to increase the Mission, without getting all the Missionaries from Italy. I should think it better for that People, to send thither an Apostolical Vicar with the Title of Bishop, who being there with the Capuchins might ordain Priests, when they have been instructed by them, and settle those Kingdoms more effectually in the Catholick Faith; But I am afraid this Holy Design will be opposed by the King of Portugal, who has now sent into Angola a Bishop nominated by him, and confirmed by the Holy See. That Bishop will do little good in Congo, not only because of the vast Extent of that Country, but also for Political Reasons, considering that the King may suspect the Intercourse of his People with the Portuguese, especially in the Country of Sogno. Though the Prince of that Country is Tributary to the King of Congo; yet he is very powerful, and has lately been engaged in a great War with the Portuguese, who designed to subdue him; but their Attempt proved unsuccessful, and that Prince begged the Interposition of Your Holiness to procure him a Peace. Whereupon, the Congregation having writ to the Nuncio of Portugal, he answered, that he hoped every Thing would be now quieted there, by the Arrival of the New Viceroy. That Prince, (who is Elective,) is a good Catholick, and has a great Esteem for the Missionaries, and therefore deserves the Protection of Your Holiness.
Your

L

M A D A

M A D A G A S C A R.

THE Isle of Madagascar, or St. Lawrence, lies over against the Eastern Shore of Africa, and is as large as Great-Britain. The Dutch landed in it, and fortified themselves in a Port; but they were expelled by the Inhabitants, who are Idolaters. Afterwards the French took Possession of the same Port, and built a Fort upon the very Foundations of that, which had been built by the Dutch, and demolished by the Inhabitants. Eight Missionaries were sent thither by the Founder of the Mission, Vincentio di Paulo, with the Permission of the Congregation; and they converted Five Thousand People in a short Time. The Marschal de M--- desired, in the Year 1661, that a Bishop should be settled in the Isle of Madagascar; and he offered to assign a sufficient Revenue, not only for the Bishop's Maintenance, but also for that of the Clergy. The Congregation answered, That since that Island did not afford what was necessary to erect a Cathedral, it would be better to send thither a Titular Bishop, invested with the Power of Apostolical Vicar. Whereupon the Marschal proposed Two Capuchins, that one of them might be elected Apostolical Vicar; but the Congregation rejected that Proposal, not thinking it proper to send other Monks into that Island, where the Fathers of the Mission were already, and made a very great Progress; the more, because some Augustins, and Barefooted Carmelites, had been there, and then went away. I hear now, that the French have also been expelled from thence, and that the Fathers thers of the Mission are resolved to forsake it, not being able to live there longer.

M O N O M O T A P A .

IN the Year 1630, the Holy See had an Account of the Conversion of the Emperor of Monomotapa; made by Father Aloisio dello Spirito Santo, a Dominican, who desired the Congregation to send him Missionaries. Whereupon a Letter, concerning the Choice of some Religious, was sent into Portugal; and in the Year 1632, Ten Missionaries set out from thence, by the King's Order, for Monomotapa. From which Time we have had no further Information.

Such is the Present State of Christianity in Africa. That Country is inhabited by the Mahometans, only towards the Mediterranean Sea; and the greatest Part of it is possessed by Schismatics or Infidels. So that it would be no difficult Thing, to settle the Catholick Faith in all that Part of the World, as it has been already settled in the Kingdom of Congo, if New Missions were sent thither, and if those that have already been founded, did not remove from thence.

A M E R I C A .

AMERICA, (otherwise called the New-India;) is a New World of a larger Extent than Asia, Africa, and Europe, taken together; and yet it has not been wholly discovered. The greatest Part of it belongs to the Spaniards and Portuguese.

guise; but the French, English, and Dutch have also a considerable Portion of it. There are in America, Bishopricks, Universities, Convents, and Missions; and therefore if it be viewed at a distance, it seems to be a New well settled Christianity: But if we take a nearer Survey of that Country, the Catholick Religion has made a very small Progress in it; I don't mean in the Provinces subject to Catholick Princes, but in the vast Number of those, that profess still Idolatry, and in those that are possessed by the English and Dutch Hereticks.

That Continent is divided into Two great Peninsulas, joined together in the Streight of Panama. The one is called South America, and contains Petü, Brasil, the New Kingdom of Granada, the New Andalusia, Cartagena, S. Marta, Venezuela, Popaian, Quito, Paraguai, Guiana, and Chili, as far as the Streight of Magellan, besides the Isles Antilles. The other Peninsula, called North America, comprehends New France, Virginia, Florida, New Spain, New England, New Holland, New Mexico, New Biscay, and the Great Island of California, besides many other Provinces altogether unknown.

Christopher Colombo began to take Possession of the West-Indies, in the Name of the King of Castile; which occasioned several Disputes between that Prince and John II. King of Portugal. Pope Alexander VI, to whom the Decision of this great Contest was referred, divided the World in such a manner, that excepting those Countries already possessed by Christian Princes, the Eastern Part should belong to the Crown of Portugal, and the Western to that of Castile. To this end, he drew an imaginary Line, a Hundred Leagues more Westward than the Isles Azores, and Capo Verde. The Crown of Spain pretends, that that these Two Things are contained in the Pope's Bull. 1. That he grants all the West-Indies to the Kings of Castile. 2. That he gives them a full Power to provide the Inhabitants of those Countries with Ecclesiastical Ministers. As to the First, many Authors have warmly debated this Question, viz. Whether the Spaniards could Lawfully deprive the Americans of their Dominions: And there are many Arguments for the Affirmative and the Negative. As for what concerns the Second Head, which is the Ground the Spaniards go upon, for their Right of Patronage in the West-Indies; if they urge for it the Bull of Alexander VI, 'tis certain it gives the Kings of Castile no other Spiritual Power, than that of taking upon themselves to send into America good and honest Monks, well approved by their Orders and Superiors, for the Propagation of the Catholick Faith. The Pope means this, only with respect to the Charges of the Voyage, and the Conveniency of Shipping, referring himself to the Promises of the King and Queen of Castile, as it appears from the Words of the Bull. Et non dubitamus pro vestra maxima devotione, &c. But though the Right of Patronage is only acquired by the Foundation, Building, &c. of Churches and Monasteries, which have been erected by the Industry of the Monks, and the Charity of the Americans; yet by means of the Tribunal, called The Tribunal of Force, the Vice-Roy, and the Lay Magistrates, intrude themselves into all Ecclesiastical Matters, even so far as to punish the Bishops.

Besides the above-mentioned Bull of Pope Alexander, there is another of Adrian VI. in Favour of the Regulars, which these of Castile call the Bull Omnimoda, and they put such a wide Construction upon it, that without minding the Conditions and Restrictions contained in it, they fancy they may do any Thing. Hence it is, that, even without any Lawful Cause, they dispense with the Restitution of other Mens Goods, dissolve Marriages that are not consummated, and Vows of a Solemn Profession : and do many other Things, which the Holy See does seldom or never permit. The Congregation has often doubted whether one may give any Credit to that Bull, because it is not to be found in the Registers, and because that Pope was not then at Serragoza, though the Bull be dated from thence. The Mendicants obtained also from the Blessed Pius V, after the Council of Trent, the Liberty of exercising the Office of Curate in their Convents, or in any Country, (provided they understood the Language of it,) with the bare Permission of their Superiors in the Provincial Chapters, without asking it of their Ordinaries. But this Bull was revoked by Gregory XIII, who brought it to the Terms of the Council of Trent, which subjects the Regular Curates to the Examination, Jurisdiction, Visitation, Correction, and Dominion of the Bishops. And though Gregory XIV restored many of their Privileges, yet they were still revoked by another Bull of Gregory XV. Nevertheless the Monks, the Mendicants, and the Military Orders, exempt themselves from the Jurisdiction of the Ordinaries, putting into their own Churches Curates independent from the Bishops, and alledging for it, not only the said Bull of Adrian VI, which they pretend to remain in full Force, but also a Modern Brief of Urban VIII, (directed to the Bishop of Gravina, who was then Nuncio in Spain,) whereby it is ordered that the Execution of the derogatory Bull of Gregory XV be superseded in the Kingdoms of the Crown of Castile. Besides, in the Year 1651, (the Tenth of June) a Writ of the King of Spain was drawn up at Madrid, whereby the Vice-Roy of the West-Indies was empowered impowered to chuse and approve the Persons that were to be made Curates, Provincials, Commissaries, Wardens, and Priors, and to turn them out of their Offices, in his Majesty's Name, whenever it should be necessary. It impowered also the Archbishops to visit the Regulars in Matters relating to the Care of Souls, besides many other Orders about the Ecclesiastical Government of the Holy See. And though the Regulars opposed that Writ at Madrid and at Rome, yet they obtained no Redress: and so, the others remained in Possession of their Pretensions.

Such is the present State of the West-Indies, as they are governed by Spain, which pretends that the King is the Apostolical Delegate, and Supreme Director of the Ecclesiastical Hierarchy in those Countries. Many Churches have been erected from the Time of Leo X. till now, at the Nomination of the Catholick King, viz. Five Archbishopricks, and other large and Rich Bishopricks; but I shall only mention those Provinces, where there are, or have been, Missions for the Conversion of Infidels.

P E R U.

TO begin with South America, I shall in the First Place give an Account of Peru. It is divided into many large Provinces. Lima, the Chief City of that Country, is an Archiepiscopal See, and the usual Residence of the Vice-Roys, and Council of the Indies. Excepting some Towns, and other Places frequented by the Spaniards, the remaining Part of Peru is inhabited by a vast Multitude of Infidels, who live without Government. They are all Idolaters: Some Worship the Sun, and therefore build their Houses and Cottages with the Door towards the East. Others Worship the Moon, others the Stars, and others Worship Trees. They are all full of Superstitions, addicted to Witchcraft, and converse with the Devil, in such a Manner that many, after they have been baptized, relapse into the same Errors. Being naturally very Lustful, they make no Difference between both Sexes, have no Regard to any Degree of Consanguinity, and even Sin with all Sorts of Animals. So that the Missionaries take more Pains to root out the Vices of the New Converts, and to make them obey the Law of God, than to settle them in the Catholick Faith. And because the Peruvians live in the most inward Parts of the Country, and have therefore a greater Liberty, and more Occasions to Sin; the best way the Missionaries can take, is to remove them from thence with their Families to those Places, which are inhabited by Christians, that Shame, Fear of Punishment, the frequent Preaching of the Gospel, and the Use of Sacraments, may keep them from relapsing into their Errors. But 'tis a very difficult Thing, even for the most civilized and the best disciplined Christians, to put off the Old Man, and renounce their ill Courses; and therefore 'tis no wonder, if the Missionaries meet with great Difficulties in reforming the Manners of the Peruvians, and find themselves exposed to several Dangers upon that Account, so far as to be sometimes deprived of their Lives. When the Missionaries have removed them to the Christian Habitations, they use, by reason of their great Numbers, and for want of Churches, to set up great Crosses to be Worshipped by them. Afterwards they build an Altar to Administer the Sacraments to that People, and make them hear Mass, preaching and teaching the Christian Doctrine: And to that End, they take great Pains to learn the Language. Father Paul di Roias an Augustin spent above Forty Years in this Apostolical Ministry, and converted an innumerable Multitude of Infidels in that Country, and even in the remotest Provinces. The Missions, that have been sent thither at several Times by the Apostolical See, consisted of the Dominicans of the Province of Pern, and of Augustins, and Minor Observantins, among whom the Blessed Francis Solano made a wonderful Progress, as it appears from his Process drawn up by the Congregation of Rites.

RIVER of the AMAZONS.

THE People of the River of the Amazons were discovered in the Year 1638, by Father Christopher D——, a Jesuit, who published a Relation of that Country in Spanish. They Worship Three Sorts of Idols, which they keep in a certain Place of their Habitations, and implore their Assistance in Fishing and Seed-time, and in Time of War. Hence it is that one of the Principal Inhabitants, seeing that the Spaniards had crossed so many Countries without any harm, desired with great Earnestness that they would give him one of their Gods, who were so careful to preserve them. Whereupon the Spaniards left him a Crucifix, which he received with great Veneration, and promised to Worship and Invoke him in his Wants. That People are very sensible and good natured: They have an admirable Skill in Handy-Works, and converse with great Simplicity and Affability even with Foreigners; offering them what they have, receiving them dancing, and giving them other Marks of Love. They

They are of a middle Size, not so Olive-coloured as the Brazilians; and the Author, just now mentioned, says, there is in that Country a Nation of Giants Sixteen Palms high, and another of Warlike Women without Men; which is the Reason why the Country is called the River of the Amazons. The Air is not very wholesome by reason of the Marshes; and there is a great Lake, called the Lake of Parimas. Many Missions have been sent thither at several Times, viz. of the Capuchins of the Province of Valencia, of the Minor Observantins of the Province of St. Antony of Portugal, and of Dominicans; but we don't know what they do, nor what they have done.

The A N T I L L E S.

THE Spaniards, who set out first of all to conquer the West-Indies, went through the Isles that lie near the Coast of America, and called them Isolas Antillas; and the French to this very Day call them Antilles, or Caribes, from a barbarous Nation of this Name, which lived there. The Spaniards landed in those Islands; but not thinking them worth invading, they were contented to take Water and Refreshments, in order to pursue their great Design, which was to make themselves Masters of the Continent. A French Gentleman of Normandy, seeking his Fortune by Sea, was accidentally driven into one of those Islands, now called St. Christopher, where he began to settle himself; and at the same Time an English Gentleman, whose Name was Warner, came also into that Island. Being both equally Strong, they agreed together, and divided it between them; but at last the French Gentleman remained remained absolute Master of it, and after his Death left it to the Order of Maria. Those Knights, after they had been possessed of that Island for a long Time, were obliged by Reason of their excessive Expences to sell it to the King of France for the Price of a Hundred and Fifty Thousand Crowns. The King granted many Privileges to his Subjects in that Island, and gave them leave to settle Colonies in that Tract of Islands lying between the Tenth and Twentieth Degrees of Northern Latitude. That Company, after the Death of Cardinal de Richelieu, who had made himself the Director of it, began to fail; so that the greatest Part of those Islands came into the Hands of private Men, who bought the Property of them with the King's Consent. But some Years ago that Company was set on Foot again by the Present King Lewis XIVth. with good Success, especially in what concerns the Spiritual Government.

Some of those Islands belong to England, some to Spain, others to the Dutch, and others to the most Christian King. Besides the Europeans, they are Inhabited by the Barbarians, whose Conversion is very difficult by reason of their Language. Their Children learn the French Tongue, and at the same Time are instructed in Religion. Father Braton, a French Dominican, who has lived many Years among that People, has composed a Grammar, a Dictionary, and a Catechism, in their Language, whereby the Conversion of those Infidels may be made more easy. As for the State of Religion in these Islands, it appears that in those which belong to the French, viz. St. Christopher, Cayenne, Martinico, Guadaloupe, and others, Idolatry is wholly rooted out, and no other Religion allowed but the Catholick. The Calvinists are excluded from Publick Offices. The Dominicans ans perform the Mission : They have the Care of Souls, and are more Numerous and Powerful than the other Monks. Some Jesuits lived heretofore in the Isle of Cayenne, and were made Prisoners by the Dutch, when they took it : The Capuchins are also gone thither. The barefooted Carmelites are in St. Christoph, but take no Care of Souls : There is also a certain Number of Secular Priests without any Authority, whom the Jesuits oppose with all their might ; for, according to their Custom, they would fain be alone in that Plentiful and Delightful Island. The Heresies of the English and Dutch are professed in those Islands that belong to them. Two Sorts of Infidelity prevail in the Antilles. The First is that of the Natives ; and there is little Hopes of converting them, because they are wild and barbarous, and Enemies to Human Society. They Worship the Devil, who uses to beat them horribly ; but after they have been baptized, he can do them no harm. Another Obstacle to their Conversion is their being engaged in Wars with the English, who give them no Quarter ; and therefore they bear an implacable Hatred to the Christian Name. The Second Sort of Infidelity is that of the Negroes, who are carried by the English and Dutch from the Coasts of Africa to be sold in these Islands. They make the greatest Riches of the Country ; for their Masters put them to any Work, and use them like Beasts. To conclude, the Catholick Religion runs no hazard in the Antilles, because the English and Dutch are not able to expel the French from thence.

B R A S I L.

B R A S I L.

BRASIL, a vast and fruitful Country, lies between the River Maragnan on the North, and Rio de la Plata on the South. It is Five Hundred and Fifty Leagues long, Two Hundred broad, and Nine Hundred in compass. This Country was discovered by the Portuguese, under the Conduct of Americo Vespucci a Florentin. Being sensible that it was very Fruitful, though uncultivated by Reason of the Barbarousness of the Inhabitants, they attempted to make themselves Masters of it, by building several Forts along the Sea, and settling some Colonies of Portuguese. By which Means those Barbarians being quickly civilized, returned to their Villages, and betook themselves to Plough the Ground, and to Trade, especially in Sugar. The Portuguese remained in Possession of Brasil without any Disturbance, as long as their Kings Reigned; but when the Crown of Portugal came into the Hands of the Catholick King, the Dutch being engaged in an obstinate War with that Prince, and invired by many Jews, who lived in Brasil for the sake of Trade, undertook to conquer that Country; which they did without any great Labour, not only because the Spanish Forces were taken up with other Wars, but also because the Dutch granted Liberty of Conscience to every Body. In Process of Time the Dutch Government growing too severe, the greatest Part of the People revolted under the Conduct of Joho Fernandez, and Antonio Cavaleanti, who having got together Fifty Thousand Men, made themselves Masters of all the strong Places, excepting Recife, and expelled the Dutch from that Country; and though though the latter sent a New Fleet, yet they could not retake it. Thus the Crown of Portugal remained in Possession of Brasil. There was then but one Bishoprick, viz. in the Bay of All-Saints, now erected into an Archbishoprick by Your Holiness. The Mission of the French Capuchins of the Province of Bretagne, which was founded in 1614, resides there. Some Religious going into Saints, made some stay in the Isle of St. Thomas: That Island was afterwards taken by the Dutch, together with Angola; and the Portuguese being expelled from it, those Religious were transported with them to Olinda, which had been recovered by the King of Portugal. They found the Catholick Religion in great Confusion, not only by reason of the Jews, but also upon Account of the Hereticks, who having expelled the Catholick Priests, that they might more easily introduce the Doctrine of Calvin, married the Daughters of the Portuguese, even against their Will. The Capuchins opposed such an Attempt with so good Success, that the Dutch were expelled from Recife in Pernambuco; by which Means that Part of Brasil returned to the Obedience of the King of Portugal. A Lay Brother Capuchin did very much distinguish himself upon this Occasion: Being skilled in the Art of War, he directed the Portuguese Army to recover the Fort; and therefore the Restoration of the Catholick Faith in Brasil may justly be ascribed to the Capuchins. The Portuguese, in order to shew their Gratitude to those Fathers, gave them a House, which is their Residence, at Recife, another in Olinda, and a third in Rio de Janeiro; and John IV. King of Portugal gave them an Hospice in Lisbon. Those Religious Preach, Administer the Sacraments, and instruct not only the Natives, but also the Negroes of Guinea and Aethiopia, who are there in great Numbers.

bert. In the Year 1664, that Mission, which was at first confined to Pernambuco, was extended to all Brasil; and some Years ago those Missionaries went a Hundred and Twenty Miles from Recife through Mountainous and Desert Countries, where they found, in vast Forests, a great Number of Men, who lived like Beasts. And because those Men used to marry without any Regard to the Degrees of Consanguinity, the Missionaries obtained the Power of dispensing in the Second Degree those who embraced the Catholick Faith. Olanda and Pernambuco have been made Bishopricks by Your Holiness, at the Nomination of the Crown of Portugal, and they are Suffragans of the Archbishop of the Bay of All-Saints. In the said City of Olanda, a Congregation of Priests has been lately founded, with the Rule of St. Philip Neri. Part of their Institution consists in performing the Mission for the Conversion of Infidels, according to the Power granted them by the Congregation.

RIO DI GENNARO.

THE Provinces of Rio di Gennaro, situated in the Western and Southern Parts of Brasil, towards the River de la Plata, were at first in the Diocese of the Bay of all Saints; but they were divided from that Diocese for very good Reasons, mentioned in the Brief of Gregory XIII. of the 19th of July 1675. It was thought fit to appoint in those Provinces a Vicar, with the Title of Administrator of Rio di Gennaro, because that Country reached Nine-hundred Miles from the City of all Saints, where the Bishop of Brasil resided. The Administrator had, by virtue of the Pope's Brief, an Episcopal bisshopal Jurisdiction, excepting the Functions belonging to the Bishop: And in this God knows how he behaved himself; for the other Bishops were at a great distance. This Ecclesiastical Minister was elected by the King of Portugal, without any Approbation of the Holy See. When that Country was possessed by the Catholick King, the Holy See was desired to erect a Bishoprick in it, which was not performed: And therefore that large Country suffered very much for want of a Bishop, at least for the Ordination of Priests. Your Holiness has remedied the like Evil, by erecting the City of St. Sebastian into a Bishoprick. That large Country runs Four hundred Leagues along the Coast, being divided into several Governments, and containing many Villages and Towns, the Capital whereof is the City of St. Sebastian in the Twenty-third Degree of Southern Latitude. It was formerly built upon a Mountain by reason of the Wars with the Indians, and afterwards rebuilt in the Plain. It contains about Two thousand Portuguese, and above Six thousand Negroes, and Indians; and having a Territory of forty Leagues very well inhabited, the whole contains above Twenty thousand Souls. There are in that City four Convents, viz. of Carmelites, Benedictines, Franciscans, and Jesuits; and the latter teach in their College the Latin Tongue, Logick, Philosophy, and Theology, both Scholastical and Moral.

PABA-

PARAGUAI and CHILI.

THE Provinces of Rio de la Plata, or Paraguai, situated between Brasil and Peru, are the Richest and the most Plentiful, in America, and contain three Cities with Spanish Colonies in them, viz. the Assumption, Ciudad Real, and S. Cruz della Sierra, which is the Seat of the Bishop de la Plata, and of the Governor and other Officers. The Kingdom of Chili has a very long Coast upon the South-Sea, with a Chain of Mountains, like our Alpes, and reaches to the Streight of Magellan. It is a populous and plentiful Country, and has some Gold and Silver Mines. The chief Town is S. Jago, a Spanish Colony, with an Episcopal See. There are in it Dominicans, Franciscans, and Fathers della Mercede. Two other Towns stand in the Mountains, besides that of the Conception built upon the Shore, and some others dispersed along the Coast. The Patagons live upon the Confines of Chili, towards the Streight of Magellan, and have never been subdued; nor did any body venture to penetrate into their Country. Diego de Valdez settled a Colony in a part of that Streight, and called it St. Philip; but not long after, some Englishmen being arrived there, found all the Inhabitants starved to death; and therefore that Port is now called the Port of Famine. The Streight of Magellan, which was very dangerous by reason of its Length, Narrowness, and continual Storms, is not now frequented, because another Streight more commodious and shorter, towards the Antartick Pole, has been since discovered by one Le Maire, whose Name it bears. The Jesuits, who were in Brasil and Peru, in the Year 1580, began to extend their Missions into the Inland Provinces; and Father Alfonso Parsena, one of the first who penetrated into them, baptized in less than Ten Years above Twenty-five Thousand Barbarians, and Father Emanuel Ortega a greater Number, in the Provinces of Paraguay and Guaira. Being encouraged by this Progress, they penetrated as far as Chili in the Year 1593; and having converted there many Nations, performing their Mission without stopping in any particular Place, but going up and down among those Barbarians, they founded afterwards in the Year 1607, the Province and Mission of Paraguay, which took in a hundred and fifty Leagues in length, having added to it Chili, and Tucuman, with a design to subject that Country not only to Christ, but also to the King of Spain, persuading those Barbarians to live together, that they might be better instructed. And in the Year 1675, the Kingdom of Chili having been separated from Paraguay, the Fathers who remained in this last Country, besides their great Labour in those Parts that were subject to the Spaniards, ran over a great many unknown Places; and having erected there above eighty Churches, made those Barbarians more sociable, and in a great measure Catholics.)

M

to

THE NEW KINGDOM of GRANADA.

THE New Kingdom of Granada, bordering upon Peru, and divided from New-Granada in the Northern America, is subject to the Crown of Spain. It contains the Prefectures of St. Martha, Nova Cartagena, and part of Papayan. It is a plain Country, full of good Pastures, and consequently abounding with Cattle; and there are in it some Gold

Gold Mines. The Inhabitants are very active, and apply themselves to Trade. The chief Town is Santa Fe de Bogota, a Metropolitan See, where there are some Convents of Dominicans and Franciscans. The Province bordering upon New-Cartagena is a Country inhabited by Heathens, who live dispersed up and down in Cottages. Each Nobleman has many Concubines; the first whereof is his Wife, and her Children are the Father's Heirs. They offer no Sacrifices; but they practise Divination, and converse familiarly with the Devil, who answers their Petitions. They are so barbarous that they have no Notion of Rewards and Punishments after this Life. Father Alfonso della Croce, a Bare-footed Augustine, converted Eight thousand of those Heathens to the Christian Faith; and therefore on the 7th of August 1629, twelve Religious of that Order were sent Missionaries into that Country. That Father was made their Superior; and his Power extended also into the adjacent Provinces. This Mission was afterwards confirmed for Twelve other Religious in the Year 1639, upon Consideration of the great Progress which was made in the Conversion of that People.

TERRA FIRMA.

THIS Province, which lies in the Middle of America, and joins the two Peninsulas together, was at first called Castiglia del Oro. The Air is unwholesome by reason of the Marshes, and the Soil is barren. Panama is the chief City, and the Residence of the King's Officers, who govern also Veragua, another Neighbouring Province, which has several Gold Mines. A Mission of six Capuchins of Castile was founded in Darien in 1636.

confirmed in 1649, and then dismissed ; because, though it began with great Zeal, yet it had no great Success. For the Inhabitants did not live together ; but their Families, as 'tis practised among the Indians, were dispersed in the Mountains two or three Leagues one from another ; which occasioned the Loss of a great deal of Time : and though other Missionaries were sent thither, yet they had no better Success. They were kindly received, and well used by the Natives ; which was rather ascribed to the small Presents they received from the Missionaries, than to a true desire of saving their Souls : Whereupon the Provincial thought fit to recall the Missionaries. But the Congregation did not approve those Reasons, and ordered, that, notwithstanding the Difficulties just now mentioned, the Mission should be set on Foot again : It was conferred upon another Province of Spain, the 2d of December 1659.

V E N E Z U E L A.

VENEZUELA, so called, because the chief City is built in a marshy Place, like Venice, is a very fruitful Country, and contains several Gold Mines. The Capuchins of Aragon performed the Mission there, under the Direction of Father Francis de Pampeluna, and went also into New Andalusia, near the famous River Orinoco, (where there are plentiful Salt Mines,) and as far as the Provinces of Cumana, Caracas, Guarapiche, Guaracabara, Aragua, and Amana, where they began to make a great Progress. The Mission being increased to the Number of thirteen Missionaries, five Princes of those Provinces embraced the Christian Religion, and by their Letters paid Obedience to Clement IX.

IX. Those Letters were delivered by Father Joseph de Carvantes, one of the said Missionaries. After he had given an Account of the great Conversion of that People, Ten thousand having been baptized, the said Mission was confirmed by a particular Decree in the Year 1667. Between the River Orinoco, and the New Kingdom of Granada, there are many other Communities, each of which has a Head, or Prince, to whom they pay a great Respect. Before the Capuchins introduced the Christian Faith into those Countries, the Inhabitants went naked, and lived in a profound Ignorance of all things, excepting the Devil, whom they fear, believing that he can preserve or take away their Lives. Nay, some converse familiarly with him ; and 'tis by their means that he sows many Errors, and endeavours to stop the Progress of the Missionaries. Polygamy prevails among that People ; and such is the Fecundity of the Women, that were it not for the Plague, which frequently carries off great Numbers of Inhabitants, the Country could not contain them. They live generally like Barbarians, without Policy and Government, and are the most miserable Nation in the World, by reason of their Poverty, though they might live in Plenty without any great Labour. But though they are so Poor, yet they freely give what they have. They hate Foreigners ; which is the Reason why the Capuchins could make no great Progress among them till the Year 1662 : Besides, the Ministers of the Devil laid many Snares in their way ; and it was by them that Father Augustin Villabano was killed in 1666.

NEW-FRANCE, or CANADA.

I Proceed to the Northern America, and shall begin with New France, called also Canada. It is a vast Country; and though it be situated in the Temperate Zone, yet the Summer is extremely Hot, and the Winter extremely Cold. This Country was discovered by the French in the Year 1504, and is full of Mountains and Solitudes inhabited by Men commonly called Savages. There are also many other Places full of Heathens. They acknowledge the Immortality of the Soul, the Existence of good and bad Angels, and expect Rewards and Punishments after this Life. They have many superstitious Ceremonies, and invoke the Devil, to whom they sacrifice Dogs, and even Men, whom they roast and eat; as it happened in 1624 to John de Verrazano, (a Florentine Captain in the Service of the King of France), and his Companions. In 1632, the Most Christian King sent into that Country a Vice-Roy, and a Lieutenant-Royal, with some Ships. The Commandeur de R— in order to propagate the Christian Faith, carried along with him several Recollets, Capuchins, and Jesuits, to whom having assigned distinct Provinces, with leave from the Congregation, a great many Inhabitants embraced Christianity, especially in the Country of the Hurons, where the Jesuits made a great Progress in a very short Time; but being destroyed by the Iroquois their Enemies, many of those Fathers were martyrizd. In the Year 1658, the Congregation sent into New France an Apostolical Vicar, with the Title of Bishop of P—. Afterwards, at the Sollicitation of the Congregation, a Bishoprick was erected at Quebec upon upon the River of St. Laurence, where the French have a Castle and a Colony. The Vicar just now mentioned is nominated by the Most Christian King, and is a Holy and Apostolical Man. His Majesty gave him for his Maintenance the Abby of M — of the Order of St. Benedict, in the Diocese of Bourges. There are now many Churches in Canada, served by a sufficient Number of good Priests; and in all the Places possessed by the French, there is a free Exercise of the Christian Religion, which has been spread even in the remotest Parts of that Country. The Number of the Converts, as it appears from an Account laid before the Congregation in 1666, amounted to Twenty thousand; and there were then Three thousand French Inhabitants. The Jesuits have two Churches, a College, and some Schools, at Quebec, and in some other Places. They have also two Missions, and make a great many Converts. There are two Nunneries, one of the Hospitalers, and another of Ursulines. In the Year 1671, the Nuncio of France demanded that some Capuchins should be sent Missionaries into a Country, called Florida, newly discovered in North-America; which was granted him.

VIRGINIA.

VIRGINIA, under which I comprehend New-England, is a Country full of Woods and Lakes, and has a Vast and Uncultivated Plain. It abounds with Cattle, Fowl, and Fish. Sometime after it was discovered, the King of England sent thither a Catholick Earl, and another Nobleman, who was an Heretick. Those Two Lords were attended by Protestants and Catholicks, and Two Priests; so that the Catholicks and Hereticks performed for a long time the Exercise of their Religion under the same Roof: Afterwards the Earl being returned into England, and giving an Account of the Nature of that Country, many Wealthy Puritans were desirous to remove thither, as they did in great Numbers, in the Year 1630. To prevent the Progress of their Doctrines, the General of the Capuchins was ordered to send into that Country a Mission of his own Order; and several French and English Religious went thither accordingly. That Mission was renewed in 1650, at the Solicitation of the Queen Dowager of England; but it has been since forsaken. There are in Virginia above Fifty Thousand Inhabitants, most of them Infidels, many Heretical, and few Catholick Christians.

NEW-FOUND-LAND.

NEWFOUND-LAND is a large Island, belonging to the English: lying, almost in the Middle, between England and Virginia. The Inhabitants are much more sociable than the other Americans; and if the Catholick Religion was settled there, it might easily be carried into New England. Father Simon Stoch, a Barefooted Carmelite, obtained from the Congregation, that a Mission of his own Order should be sent thither; and, notwithstanding the Difficulties raised by the General, the Thing was resolved upon. The Missionaries set out, accompanied by Two English Noblemen, who offered to carry them at their own Charges. The Jesuits went also into this Island. The Congregation has had no further Account of it.

M A

M A R Y - L A N D.

MA R Y - L A N D does also belong to the Crown of England. It was discovered by the English, and called by them Maryland, in Honour of their Queen Mary. Charles I. in the Year 1632, made a Grant of it to my Lord Baltimore, a Catholick, for himself and his Posterity, to reward his Services to King James. Besides, he gave him the adjacent Islands, to the Distance of Ten Leagues Eastward. By Virtue of this Grant, the first English Colony set out the next Year, 1633, under the Conduct of the said Lord's Brother; and Two Jesuits went with him, and performed the Mission there. A Mission might easily be settled in that Country, the said Lord having frequently desired it of the Congregation.

C A L I F O R N I A.

CA L I F O R N I A is a great Island in the South Sea. The King of Spain, in the Year 1611, sent thither Three Ships with expert Men, and Three Carmelites, who baptized many Inhabitants. At present, 'tis not known what Missionaries are there: We only know, that in the Year 1636, the Nuncio of Spain was ordered to persuade his Catholick Majesty, to send into California a more numerous Mission of Carmelites, and Augustins, or other Religious.

N E W

NEW MEXICO.

IN the Year 1596, Twelve Minor Friars entered into New Mexico, with many Soldiers, under the Conduct of Captain John d'Ognati. About Thirty Convents have been founded in that Country. In 1631, at the Solicitation of the Dominicans of the Province of Mexico, the Provincial was empowered to send thither Thirty Religious, for the Conversion of the Heathens, in order to assist the Franciscans, who, according to the Relations of the same Year, had converted Five Hundred Thousand Heathens, whereof Eighty Six Thousand had been Baptized, and the others were Catechized. Three of those Religious were put to Death for the Catholick Faith, in the Year 1634, in that Part of the Country which had not been subdued by the Spaniards.

A L K M O T I A O

MEXICO, or NEW SPAIN.

THE Great Kingdom of Mexico does not yield to any other Part of the New World, in the Fertility of the Soil, the Excellency of the Climate, and the Multitude of Inhabitants. It affords plentifully every Thing necessary for Life, excepting Wine and Oyl: It has some Gold Mines, but those of Silver are larger, and more copious; and it is chiefly out of them that Silver is brought into Spain, the Silver Mines of Peru in Peru being very much decayed. The Isle of St. Domingo, (otherwise called Hispaniola), and that of Cuba

Cuba go also by the Name of Mexico. There are Two Bishops in those Islands, and some Convents; and the Spaniards stand always upon their Guard for fear of the English, and even of the French, who possess Part of St. Domingo, and several other lesser Islands. The Kingdom of Mexico, in the Continent, begins with the Province of Jucatan, the first that was conquered by the Spaniards. Hence it is that they called the Chief City Victoria, which before went by the Name of Panamican. This Kingdom is situated in the Middle of America; by which means it partakes of the Product and Goods of all the other Countries. The farther it reaches towards the North, the larger it grows between the South Sea and the North Sea. It was formerly a very Ancient Empire; and when the Spaniards came into it, the Emperor was killed, and his Treasure concealed, some say in the Marshes of Mexico, and others under Ground. It cannot be denied, that this great Emperor was subdued by the Spaniards, with a great deal of Bloodshed; several Hundred Thousands of the Natives having been killed, even after they had submitted to the Spanish Yoke. The Mexicans came anciently from New Mexico, to live in this fruitful Country, which was then inhabited by the Otomites, who being unwilling to have Foreigners among them, forced them to fly into the Isles of the Gulph of Mexico. The latter being grown more numerous, attacked the Otomites, to revenge themselves for being expelled by them, and made themselves Masters of their Country. It was then that the Empire of Mexico began; and it lasted above Eight Hundred Years. That People lived for a long Time according to the Dictates of Nature; but being deluded by the Devil's Answers, they did so far deviate from those Precepts, that there hardly remained any Appearance of them. 'Tis true, they defended the Republick, took care to maintain their Children, abstained from the unlawful Pleasures of Love, and wronged no body ; but they were given to Drunkenness, and other Vices, and sacrificed Men, especially Young People, to their Idols. At first the Sun was their only God ; but in Process of Time they set up many other Deities, and worshipped Trees, Mountains, Rivers, Fountains, Stones, Bears, Lions, Tygers, and Serpents. They were conquered by the Spaniards, under the Conduct of Ferdinand Cortez, who carried with him the Minor Friars, for the Conversion of that People. Those Monks are very numerous in Mexico, where they have many Convents and Parishes : There is also a great Number of other Religious Orders. That Country is divided into Eleven Dioceses, viz. Mexico, Muocati, Nova Galicia, Guardiana, Angelopoli, Gujaca, Chiappa, Guatimala, Hicaragna, Truxillo, and Jucatan. The Sacred Congregation obtains from the Holy See the sending of Bishops to these Dioceses : but when they are sent, they quite forget the Apostolical See, and the Congregation, and never give any Account of their Dioceses, in which there is still a great Number of Infidels.

Ap-

The

The Present State of the CONGREGATION de propaganda Fide.

THUS, most Holy Father, I have made an end of the Discourse, wherein I designed to give a short Account of the Present State of the Catholick Religion in all those Countries, where there are Hereticks and Infidels. I have also mentioned a great many Things, which have been laid aside; but they might be resumed, (as some have already been by Your Holiness's Order,) and committed to a particular Congregation. What remains, is to give an Account of the Present State of the Congregation de propaganda Fide, and of other Things, that depend upon it.

There are Four Congregations of Cardinals, by which the Christian World, (governed by the Supreme Wisdom of Your Holiness,) is supported, as it were, by Four Hinges. The First is that of Rites, which directs the Worship of God and his Saints. The Second is that of Bishops, and Regulars, which regulates the Sacred Ministers. The Third is the Congregation of the Holy Office, which cuts off, and cures, the infected Members of the Christian Church. The Fourth is the Congregation de propaganda Fide, which propagates and maintains Religion all over the World. This owes its Original to Pope Gregory the XVth of Holy Memory, who being moved by the Zeal of Father Narni, Apostolick Preacher, erected it, and ordered by a Bull that it should consist of Thirteen Cardinals, Two Priests, and One Religious, besides the Secretary; and that they they should meet at least once in a Month, and lay their Resolutions before him. That Pontiff assigned for their Maintenance the Emoluments of the Anelli Cardinalitii, gave them a Palace worth Ten Thousand Crowns, and a Capital of Fifteen Thousand Crowns ready Money. Such a Holy Beginning was prosecuted with great Ador under the Pontificate of Urban VIII, who chose many Divines and Preachers of the Religious Orders, to send them Missionaries into several Parts of the World, and gave great Brevi- leges, and large Sums of Moneys to the Congregation. Several Persons, moved by his good and Example, left very considerable Estates to that Society, whereby they were enabled to make a vast Progress, and to build the College, now called Urban-College, or de propaganda Fide. The

The greatest Benefactors were,

Cardinal St. Onofrio ,	who left	107000 Crowns
Cardinal Cornaro ,	—	34500 Gr.
Cardinal de Galamini ,	—	57400 Cr.
Cardinal Capponi ,	—	8000 Cr.
Cardinal Gaufriniani ,	—	12500 Cr.
Cardinal Ubaldini ,	—	40000 Cr.
Monsignor Vicer ,	—	42000 Cr.
John Savanier ,	—	64000 Cr.
Besides some small Inheritances,
Legacies, and Alms, which		1000000 £.
made up a Capital of The Sums, brought in at several times from unknown Persons,
by Father Dominick of Jesu ,		22600 £.
and Mary , amounted to

This Mark R, or Rame, signifies. The charge of each Money

Ab-

Abating a Hundred Thousand Crowns, spent for Building the Church and the College, the Congregation has a Capital of 61,5000 Crowns. Which brings in every Year about 24000 Crowns.

This Income, with some other Revenues arising from some few Houses and Rents, is collected by an Officer, who has the Title of Agent, and is obliged to carry it immediately into the Monte della Pietà, from whence it cannot be fetched without an Order from the Congregation subscribed by the Cardinal Prefect, the Secretary, and the Accountant. There is a Publick Office kept, wherein are carefully Registered all the Expenses, and Orders issued out by virtue of the Decrees of the Congregation: so that no Part of the Money can be misapplied. And when the Accounts are balanced, (which is done every Year,) they are put into the Hands of all the Cardinals, and examined in a particular Congregation, called della Stato temporale. Besides all this Care, Your Holiness has been pleased to appoint Card. Spinola with large Powers to promote the Good of the Congregation; and his Eminence has already procured them several Advantages, by recovering some Debts, that were thought to be lost; and considering his great Care and Diligence, even in his Absence, one may very well hope that others will be recovered. Now, to give Your Holiness a general Notion of the Expences of the Congregation, I shall insert the following Articles:

- For the Maintenance of the College 50000 l.
- For every Year 170000 l.
- For the Officers of the Congregation 17000 l.
- For Printing 1000 l.
- For the Maintenance of Bishops, Missionaries, and Colleges out of Rome 10000 l.

For

For Legacies, &c. and other Debts — 2700 l.

For extraordinary Expences, such as } Charity-money, Repairing of Houses, &c. one Year with another — } 3000 l.

I proceed to give an Account of Urban College.

U R B A N - C O L L E G E de Propaganda Fide.

THIS College was erected by Urban VIII. of holy Memory in the Year 1627. Its first beginning was a considerable Foundation made by Monsignor John Baptist Vives, for ten Young Men of any Nation whatsoever. That Foundation was confirmed by the Pope, who took that College under the immediate Protection of the Holy See, granted it all the Privileges and Immunities enjoyed by the German, English, and Greek Colleges, and by the general Schools of Rome, and appointed Three Canons of the Three Patriarchal Churches for its Government, as it appears from the Brief of the First of August 1627, which begins thus, Immortalis. Afterwards in the Year 1637, Cardinal St. Onofrio made a Foundation for twelve Young Men of six particular Nations of Asia and Africa, viz. the Georgian, the Persian, the Nestorian, the Jacobite, the Melchite, and the Coptic; to which he added the Armenian in case of a Vacancy: This Foundation was approved by a Brief beginning thus, Altitudo. The same Cardinal in the Year 1639, made another Foundation for Thirteen Ethiopians and Brachmans, approved by the Brief Onerosa. Those two Foundations, attended with several Circumstances relating to Age, Time, and Election, were united to Urban-College in 1641, by the the Brief, Romanus Pontifex; and the Administration of the former Colleges being taken from the Canons of the Patriarchal Churches, they were put under the Protection and Super-intendency of the Congregation instituted by Gregory XV. But because it has always been very difficult to get Young Men of the Nations above-mentioned, the Congregation by the Pope's leave has frequently disposed of those Places pro tempore in favour of others, with the Consent of the House Barberini. Urban-College is governed, (with the Super-intendency of the Secretary,) by a Rector, who is a Secular Priest. The present Rector is Don Andrea Bonvicini, a Man of an exemplary Life. He brings his Accounts every four Months to the Cardinal called Mensario, whose Business it is, not only to give him a Receipt, but also to visit the College, and to see whether the Students are well governed. And it may be said, for the Comfort of Your Holiness, that they are better used, bred up and instructed, than those of any other College and Seminary in Rome. The Fathers of the Mission are their Spiritual Directors: they come every Day without any Interest to hear their Confessions, and to make them perform several Pious Exercises. As for what concerns the Studies of those Young Men, they have Readers of Scholastick Divinity, Controversy, Ethicks, Philosophy, and Human Learning; and for the Latin, Greek, Hebrew, and Arabick Languages: those Readers are under Father Lauria. Cardinal Barberini, who has an Inspection over the Studies of those Novices, assists every Year in the Month of August, at their Examination, with the Secretary, and the Readers.

N

The

The PRINTING-HOUSE.

THERE is in the Palace of the Congregation a Room well furnished with Characters of Forty-eight different Languages, with an able Printer and a Corrector, where they continually Print several Works necessary for the Preservation and Propagation of the Catholick Faith. Those Books are distributed gratis to the Bishops, Missionaries, and others, that they may be dispersed all over the World. That Printing-House wants good Latin Characters; and therefore Cardinal de Massimi of good Memory, who had the Direction of it, used his utmost Endeavours to get Matrices out of Cologne, Holland, and Paris: But hitherto we have had none, because they are not willing to part with them in those Countries. Cardinal Alentio has now taken upon himself to, get those Characters.

The ARCHIVES.

ALL the Writings and Letters, that come to the Congregation, and also those which they write, together with their Decrees and Resolutions, are registred, and carefully preserved in the Archives. But notwithstanding the Diligence of the Register, and all the Indexes and Repertories, such is the Quantity and Variety of Matters, that the old Transactions cannot be found without a prodigious Trouble; and therefore they are frequently passed over. Hence it is that some Decrees have been made directly opposite to the former.

former. Some Care should be taken to put those Records into a better Order: The Whole might be reduced into an Historical Form, and look like a Relation.

Before I conclude this Discourse, I shall take the Liberty to lay before Your Holiness some other Considerations, in order to promote the Good of our Holy Religion.

MISSIONS of BISHOPS.

IN the First Place, it seems to me that the Missions of Priests, both Secular and Regular, will never make a lasting Progress, unless they be attended by Bishops, or Apostolical Vicars, who have the Episcopal Character. This Method of Preaching the Gospel was not only established by our Lord Christ, but also practised at all Times by the Holy Apostles, and Apostolical Men. They instructed the People, and then ordained the Natives Priests and Bishops, for the mediate and immediate Administration of the Sacraments. This is therefore the true way of settling and propagating Christianity among Infidels, especially if the Missionaries carry with them School-Masters to instruct the Natives. The Foreign Students of our Colleges might be made Missionaries and School Masters, if there was occasion for it. This Method will be attended with another Advantage: I mean that the Congregation in such a Case will not be at the Charges of maintaining the Missionaries; for notwithstanding the Persecutions of the Infidels, those Missionaries understanding the Language, knowing the Country, and having Friends and Relations, will not be necessitated to run away, as it happened in Japan, China, Aethiopia, and so many other Countries, which are now quite forsaken. What I have said is so true, that Bishops, notwithstanding their Schism and Prodigious Ignorance, keep up the Christian Religion among the Turks and Idolaters. Your Holiness has appointed a particular Congregation to this Purpose.

MISSIONARIES.

I MUST confess that Bishops neither can, nor ought to be sent into all the Countries, where there are some Remains of Catholicism; and therefore 'tis sometimes necessary to make use of more Missionaries. It cannot be denied that Secular Priests will better succeed in such a Ministry, than the Regular. When the former go upon a Mission, they are transported with the Zeal of living a more perillous and austere Life, than they do in their own Country; whereas the latter take such an Employment upon themselves to enjoy a greater Freedom, and to shake off the Yoke of Obedience. However, the Congregation makes use of Regulars, as being more numerous, and believes they are qualified for a Mission, when their Superiors say so, though Experience frequently shews the contrary. As for Secular Priests, they are never proposed by any Body; and little Credit is given to those, who offer themselves. There are Two Sorts of Regular Missionaries among the Infidels. Some depend altogether upon the Congregation, from which they receive their Powers, Instructions, and Maintenance. Others undertake a Mission with the Leave and Consent of their own Orders, and have little or no Dependence upon the Congregation.

gation. The former are removed, and even punished, when wanting to their Duty; but the latter, being almost Independent upon the Congregation, live as they think fit, oppose the other Missionaries, and sometimes give such Examples, as are unworthy of a Good Christian, not to say of an Apostolical Preacher. Hence it is, that the Holy See has often thought of depriving all the Religious Orders of those Privileges, that the Missionaries might receive their Powers from none but the Congregation; and a Brief was once drawn up for this Purpose. Nevertheless, such a Resolution would be liable to several Inconveniences: Perhaps many Countries would be destitute of that Spiritual Assistance, which they receive now from the Regulars; and the latter, in such a Case, would avoid being made Missionaries, or at least require from the Congregation the same Maintenance, that is granted to others.

PROCURATORS.

IT would very much conduce to the Propagation of the Catholick Faith, if a Procurator was sent into each Kingdom and Province, to take Cognizance of the true State of Things in his own District, to acquaint the Congregation with it, and to ask the necessary Helps. For the Cardinals, and the Secretary, never mention any Affairs, but such as are daily proposed: As for those, that have been laid aside, or that might be promoted, no Body says any Thing of them. It is a Duty incumbent upon us to go and preach the Gospel: Our Redeemer said so, Euntes in universum mundum predicate Evangelium omni Creature.

N 3

Wherefore

Wherefore, to discharge this important Duty, no Method appears more effectual, than that of sending Procurators into every Country, that they may be enabled to find out, and to propose and urge, whatever may contribute to the Conversion of Nations, without excepting the Remotest and the most Barbarous.

V I S I T O R S.

IT seems to be the constant Opinion of all the Members of the Congregation, that little Credit is to be given to the Relations, Letters, and Solicitations, that come from the Missionaries. Hence it is that the usual Answer of the Congregation consists only in asking further Information; which often proves of no Use. For, besides the Time lost in expecting a Reply from the Missionaries, they frequently send back the same Informations, without giving a new Light into the Matter. I add that the Nuncios, and other Persons, receiving those Informations from the Parties concerned, are not able to give a better Account of Things, than what the Congregation had before. These Inconveniences have often moved that Society to send Visitors into the Missions, who being disinterested and impartial Men, have given a true Relation of the State of those Missions; by which Means several Disorders have been effectually removed. Give me leave, most Holy Father, to represent to Your Holiness that this Remedy is now more necessary than ever, in many Provinces and Kingdoms, as I have intimated in several Parts of this Discourse,

Zealous

Zealous Men, and well qualified for such an Employment, should be pitched upon, and provided not only with full Instructions about what they are to do, but also with effectual Briefs directed to Princes, Nuncios, and Bishops, that they may receive from them the necessary Assistance. But, above all, they should be ordered to make a strict and exact Visitation of all the Colleges and Seminaries, which are one of the great Foundations of our Religion. This Consideration moves me to add, that New Colleges should be founded for those Nations, which have none ; and that such a Pious and Beneficial Work should be recommended to the Catholick Princes, because the Holy See cannot build them now at its own Charges, in the same Manner as it did heretofore. It is also highly necessary to take Care that these Colleges, already founded, be well governed, as I have said above at the End of my Account of Europe.

B I S H O P S.

THERE is another Thing of great Moment, which ought not to be neglected: I mean that the Bishops, appointed by the Congregation, should constantly reside in their Dioceses, and never leave them, under Pretence of coming ad limina, or of giving an Account of their Churches, or for any other Business. As for the First Pretence, they may have a Dispensation, or make use of a Proxy. As to the Second, they may send their Accounts, or any other Information, by way of Letter. When they come, they should be quickly dispatched and dismissed, without waiting for the Resolutions of the gation, which may be sent to them. For whilst they stay in Rome, they are not only chargeable to the Congregation and the Apostolical Palace, but also derided and contemned, going along the Streets on Foot, and being only attended by a Priest, or a Servant ; which is a Reflection upon the Episcopal Dignity, and even upon the Congregation. I should therefore think it very proper, that in such a Case they should not be allowed to wear the Episcopal Habit in the Streets ; and then being deprived of such an Appearance, they would be more willing to return into their Dioceses.

I shall conclude this long Discourse, with saying, That if there are any Mistakes, and Omissions in it, they are not voluntary ; and with beseeching Your Holiness to forgive the Liberty I have taken to insert my own Sentiments through the Whole Work. I have had no other Design in this, than to serve God, the Catholick Religion, and You, most Holy Father, whose Sacred Feet I Kiss with a profound Respect.

A N

4 11

A N

Important Discourse

CONCERNING

The STATE OF RELIGION

IN

E N G L A N D,

AND THE

Reconciliation with R O M E.

RELIGION having a great Influence over Mens Minds, and a wonderful Power to make them do extraordinary Things, Part of them Embrace it sincerely, and heartily, as being the Way to Happiness; and others Admire it much

* In the Original it is, Discours Considerable. It was written Originally in French, and printed at Francfort in the Year 1701, at the End of a Large Book in 4to, Intituled: Monumenta Pietatis & Literaria Virorum in Re, Publica & Literaria, Illustratum, Selecta, Quorum pars prior exhibet Collectanea Palatina, quæ ad illustrandam Historiam Ecclesiæ Palatinæ cumprimis faciunt. Posterior Eruditorum superioribus duobus Seculis celeberrimæ Epistolæ nondum editæ comprehendit: In quibus memorabilia multa illorum temporum occurrunt. Francosfordi ad Moenum, apud Johannem Maximilianum à Sande, Anno M DCC L. It seems to have been written by some Foreign Minister, at the English Court,

more

more for the good Effects it produces in Civil Society, than for any other Excellency inherent in it. Princes and Wise Politicians, who compose this Second Class, esteem Religion for the Benefit they reap from it; knowing, by the Experience of all Ages, that nothing can more effectually prevent Insurrections among the People, and keep them in Obedience to the Supreme Powers.

Hence it is, that the most Politick Princes, though they make no Account of Religion, yet appear very Religious, and take care to punish those who attempt to introduce any Innovations; being sensible that the Alteration of Religion must needs be attended with Troubles and Disorders in the State. And indeed it appears that those Countries, (such as Spain and Italy,) which have undergone no Change of Religion, have constantly enjoyed Peace and Tranquillity*; whereas those that have been divided by new Opinions, have felt the dismal Effects of intestine Wars; as it hath happened in France and Germany.

'Tis true, some Kingdoms have admitted a Change of Religion, without disturbing the

* The Author might have added, Poverty and Slavery; which are the certain Causes of the Peace and Tranquillity, here spoken of; and never fail, in time, to make the Prince as Mean and Inglorious as the People. This is a False Cause assigned for such Disturbances. They are produced Evidently by Princes and States not allowing Liberty in Religion: Which is plain from hence, that wherever it is allowed, it is seen greatly to contribute to the Happiness, Wealth, and Glory of a Nation.

Publick Peace: But, if we enquire into the Reason of it, we shall find that this Change did rather proceed from some extraordinary Causes, than from a Variety of Opinions among the People. When England separated from the Church of Rome, it was not so much out of a Desire of a Reformation, as out of Revenge; Henry VIII. being highly displeased with the Court of Rome for refusing to approve his Divorce. In the Reign of his Son Edward, the Reformation was settled with the publick Consent of the whole Kingdom, for the Reason just now mentioned. The same Kingdom was as easily reconciled with the Church of Rome, under the Reign of Mary, as it had freely separated from it. When Queen Elizabeth came to the Crown, it was her Interest to favour the Reformation; and she found her People as willing to embrace it, as they had been to reject it in the Time of Mary. The long Reign of that Princess set it upon a lasting Foundation, insomuch that it has prevailed under her Successors James and Charles. But, as I have already said, that Reformation having been made by the Court, rather to shake off the Pope's Authority, than out of love for new Opinions, England * was not so much attach'd to

* This is a little intricate. Every one knows that the same Doctrines, in the main, were embraced, and established, by the Reformers in England; as in other Places: and that the Reformers Abroad equally professed to reduce all to the Standard of Scripture; which, one would think, should be accounted Primitive Christianity, any

any such particular Opinions, but rather endeavoured to reform the Abuses of Religion, by reducing it to the Standard of Primitive Christianity.

This Kingdom having obstinately continued to reject the Pope's Authority, the Catholicks, who, during the First twelve Years of Queen Elizabeth's Reign, complied with the Ecclesiastical Government established by that Princess, began to withdraw from it, and being desirous to appear united to the Pope, refused to go to Church, and so formed a Party in the State. Thus England was divided into Protestants, and Catholicks. But many Protestants, who pretended that the Church of England was not sufficiently Reformed, refused to submit to her Government, and formed a third Party, called Puritans. Those Parties prevail still. That of the Puritans is the most Powerful, consisting of some Bishops, the greatest Part of the Gentry, and almost all the Common People. The Church of England has on her Side, the King, the greatest Part of the Nobility and Bishops, and the Two Universities. Though the Catholicks are not so numerous as the Church of England-Men, and the Puritans, yet they make a considerable Part of the State, consisting of some Noblemen, Powerful by their Riches and Alliances, and a great Number of the Common People. Those three Religious Parties are opposite to one another. But the Church of England hates the Puritans, more than than the Catholicks; the Catholicks hate the Puritans, more than the Church of England; and the Puritans hate the Catholicks more than that Church: So that the Church of England and the Catholicks do easily agree about the Destruction of the Puritans. And therefore, if Great Men did not make use of Religion, as a Pretence to attain to their private Ends, it would be no difficult Thing to oppress the Puritan Party: but they have taken it under their Protection.

The Kingdom being in this Condition, there arose a Dissension among the Catholicks, whereby they have been divided into Two Factions. That Dissension was occasioned by Dr. Smith, Bishop of Chalcedon, an Englishman, who pretended to be the Ordinary of all England; wherein he was favoured by the Secular Clergy, and all the Catholicks governed by him. But the Regulars, and particularly the Jesuits, opposed the Bishop's Pretension, and even writ several Scandalous Books, and such as are prejudicial to the Authority of Bishops. Those Books were censured, and condemned, by the University of Paris, and learnedly confuted by Petrus Aurelius, a Doctor of that University. This Expedient proved of no use to put an End to the Discord; but on the contrary exasperated the Regulars, who raised so great a Persecution against Bishop Smith, that he was forced to leave England, and to retire into France, where he is still. Afterwards, the Diffensions increased more and more every Day ; and the Pope being informed of this Disorder, resolved to apply a proper Remedy to it. Both Parties made it their Business to conceal the Truth from the Pontiff ; and therefore, he found it necessary to send into England a Person, who might give him a true Account of every Thing, in order to put a stop to such Disturbances. His Holiness pitched upon Signor Gregorio Panzani, Doctor of Laws, a Roman Priest ; and by a Brief of the Tenth of October, 1634, directed to the Clergy and Catholics, commanded them to give Credit to whatever the said Signor Panzani should tell them in his Name. That Brief was attended with a Letter of Cardinal Francis Barberini, directed to the same. Signor Panzani, being arrived at London the 25th of December, 1634, waited, not only upon the Queen, but also upon the King. That Prince gave him a kind Reception, told him that he was very welcome, and spoke to him all the while, uncovered. Signor Panzani did also endeavour to have an Interview with the Archbishop of Canterbury ; but that Prelate always put him off, so that he left England without speaking to him. All the Time that he was in this Kingdom, he paid a great deference to Secretary Windebank, and Secretary Cotington, in hopes that, with the help of the former, he might keep up with the Archbishop and his Party ; and, with the help of the latter, avoid being

Dissen-

being hated by the Party contrary to the Archbishop. He made use of a Friend, in order to ask some English Doctors, well affected towards the Archbishop, whether the King would allow of a Catholick Bishop in England, who should be an Englishman, nominated by the King, and who should perform his Functions, according to his Majesty's Limitations. Those Doctors were not very well pleased with such a Proposal : However, after they had thought of it, they answered, that Panzani should declare, whether the Pope would admit for a Bishop, a Man, who should believe the Lawfulness of the Oath of Fidelity, or at least who should suffer the Catholicks to take it. Panzani refused to give his Opinion about this Subject, saying he had no Orders about it ; and so the Treaty was interrupted. However, he declared the 2d of October, 1635, to his Friend above-mentioned, that the Pope would never admit for a Bishop, a Man, who should Favour the Oath of Fidelity. Some Doctors in the Archbishop's Interest, told the said Friend of Panzani, that the Catholicks, having hitherto refused to take the Oath of Fidelity, because they believed it was prejudicial to the Pope's Authority, and because they were afraid the Pope might complain, if they should take it, that they acted against Two of his Briefs, whereby they are forbidden to do it : Those Doctors, I say, told Panzani's Friend, that the King declared, he did not pretend to prejudice

judge the Pope's Spiritual Authority by that Oath, but only required from his Subjects that Fidelity, which God and Nature require from them; and that this Will and Intention of the King should be declared to every Catholick, to whom the said Oath should be Administered.

The Court of England, and the Bishops, expressed a great Desire to have the said Oath approved by the Pope; saying, that if the King could alter it, he would leave out all those Words, that seem to strike at the Authority of His Holiness; but since it had been worded, and appointed by a Solemn Parliament, the King could make no Alteration in it, but only explain how it ought to be understood; and that he declared he did not pretend to prejudice the Pope by that Oath. In answer to this, Panzani said, that this Oath containing several Words contrary to the Authority of the Holy See; and the Parliament having had no other Design, than to oblige the Subjects to pay a due Obedience to their Prince; the King might alter the said Oath, and express it in such Terms, as he should think fit, without altering the Intention of the Parliament.

Here the different Views of those two Courts ought to be carefully observed. The Court of Rome, constantly pursuing its old Claim, strives much more to pull down that Oath, which it thinks to be contrary to its Temporal Grandeur, deur, than to root out the Heresies that prevail in this Kingdom. On the other side, the Design of the Court of England is to get the said Oath approved, or connived at, by that of Rome, in hopes of a Reconciliation; though England does not intend to come into it, unless it be with great Advantage, even in things contrary to the Maxims of the Court of Rome, and which that Court will never grant: Such as, to allow the Catholicks to frequent the Protestant Churches; and to acknowledge that Papacy is only of Human Institution. What makes the Court of England believe that the Pope might approve the said Oath, is, That many Catholick Doctors, notwithstanding the Pope's Briefs, maintain the Lawfulness of it, by Word of Mouth, and in Writing.

As for what concerns the Reconciliation of the Church of England with that of Rome; it has been talked of, in general, by the Archbishop's Friends, who affirmed that he was very well disposed towards it; and that, if such a thing was not done in his Life-time, it would perhaps be difficult to do it after his Death. And indeed within these three Years, the Archbishop has all along introduced some new Things bordering upon the Practice of the Church of Rome; and the Bishop of Chichester, (a great Confident of the Archbishop,) the High Treasurer, and eight Bishops, whom he had on his Side, did very much desire a Reconciliation, and parted every Day with their old Opinions, to come near those of the Church of Rome; urging, the Pope should also on his Part make some Steps to meet them, and the Court of Rome abate something of the Strictness of their Opinions, without which there could be no Agreement: And what is more, the Universities, Bishops, and Doctors of this Realm, daily embrace the Catholic Doctrines; though they make but a Half-profession of them, for fear of the Puritans. For instance, they believe the Church of Rome is a True Church; that the Pope is the Chief of all Bishops; that it belongs to him only to call General Councils; that 'tis lawful to pray for the Souls of the Dead; that Altars ought to be built of Stone: In short, they believe whatever is taught by the Roman Church; but do not believe every thing that is taught by the Court of Rome. An English Doctor told the above-mention'd Friend of Signor Panzani, that the King approved, and would fain introduce, Auricular Confession; and that He would get it established by Force, were He not afraid of popular Insurrections.

O

and

Things being thus in a good Way, towards a Reconciliation, or at least towards entering upon a Treaty about it, Signor Panzani was advised to leave off talking of the Establishment of a Catholic Bishop, it being very odious to the Bishops of the Church of England. That Priest was further advised to use his Endeavours devours with the King, that He would permit the Pope to send to the Queen, a Nuncio, or Agent, who might reconcile those two Courts without Noise. Panzani's Friend spoke of it to a Person, who had many Friends at Court; so that this Expedient was proposed to the King, and, by Panzani, to the Queen. The King, having deliberated about it with some of his most intimate Councillors, they approved of it, upon Condition, that the Person sent by the Pope, should not be a Priest. In order to stop the Murmurs, that might be occasioned by such a Resolution, the King said, in the Presence of many Persons, Why could not I receive an Ambassador from the Pope, as well as from other Catholick Princes? And another Time he said, I have now an opportunity of being reconciled with the Church of Rome, upon very Advantageous Terms.

This Affair being thus settled, Signor Panzani, to conceal his Designs, to give some Satisfaction to the Clergy and Regulars of England, and to shew that he did not neglect the Business, about which he had been sent, procured some Agreement between the Secular, and Regular Clergy, which was made with a Common Consent, the 22d. of November 1636, the Jesuits being the only Regulars that refused to be present at it. Signor Panzani has endeavoured, ever since, to get the Friendship of the Bishops, and Doctors of the Church

Church of England, and particularly of the Bishop of Chichester, to whom he was presented by his Friend above-mentioned. He desired the same Friend to promise a Cardinal's Cap to those who were not married, and a Pension to those who could not aspire to the Cardinalship.

As for State Affairs, Signor Panzani has used a very great Diligence to discover the Passions, and Inclinations, and Interests, of the King's Councillors; and especially to know which of them are well affected towards Spain. He has also enquired into the Inclinations of the Bishops, and by what Means They, and all the Officers, belonging to the Prince, may be prevailed upon; and has taken an Account of all their Names.

In July 1636, George Conaus, a Scotchman, Secretary to Cardinal Barberini, for the Latin Tongue, arrived in England, to be the Pope's Resident. He was kindly received by the King, the Queen, and the whole Court; and because he had many Friends, and Acquaintances, he made a much greater Noise than Panzani; visiting, and being visited by many Noblemen. However, 'tis not very likely that he will forward the Affairs of Religion more than Panzani, because the English mistrust him, and look upon him as a subtle and cunning Man. And though there is a Report that that he sides with the Jesuits, who govern the best Families of England, yet 'tis not to be expected that he can have better Success ; for if this Court comes to know that there is a Friendship between him and those Fathers, it will very much lessen the Good Opinion they have of him ; the Archbishop, and the Bishop of Chichester, saying frequently, that there are but Two Sorts of People, who can hinder a Reconciliation with the Church of Rome, viz. the Puritans among the Protestants, and the Jesuits among the Catholicks.

From what has been said I infer, That, if one may judge of Things to come by those that are past, this Kingdom being divided into so many Factions, in Point of Religion ; and that of the Catholicks increasing daily by the King's connivance ; 'tis to be feared, this Nation will be troubled in Time with Civil Wars : Which cannot fail to happen, provided there be not wanting Heads to the several Parties. And these will easily be found among the King's Children.

THE HISTORY OF THE

REIGN OF CHARLES THE FIRST
BY JOHN BURNET
OF THE UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD
IN TWO VOLUMES
THE SECOND
LONDON: Printed by J. Streater, at the Sign of the Gun, in St. Dunstons Church-yard, 1679.

TO THE RIGHT HONOURABLE
THE LORDS OF THE COUNCIL
IN PARLIAMENT ASSEMBLED THESE ARE COME TO CERTIFY, That the within written is a true and correct Copy of the original Manuscript of the History of the Reign of Charles the First, by John Burnet,
of the University of Oxford,
as the same was presented to the Council, the 14th of June 1679.

By Command, JOHN BURNET.

INDEX I.

Of PLACES and NATIONS,
mention'd in the First Treatise :

With the PAGES :

In which an Account is given of the State of Religion in them.

A.

A Ethiopia,	Pag. 120
Africa,	p. 127
Albania,	p. 44
River of the Amazons,	p. 153
America,	p. 147
Angola,	p. 148
Antilles,	p. 154
Arabia,	p. 96
Archipelago,	p. 59
Arda,	p. 134
Armenia,	p. 101
Asia,	p. 89
The Lesser Asia,	p. 107

B.

B Barbary,	p. 137
Bastion of France,	p. 138

Bengal,	p. 111
Benin,	p. 136
Bohemia,	p. 67
Bona,	p. 140
Bosnia,	p. 40
Brasil,	p. 157
Bulgaria,	p. 41

C.

C California,	p. 160
Camboia,	p. 118
Canada,	p. 166
Candia,	p. 54
Capo Negro,	p. 137
Capo Verde,	p. 141
Chili,	p. 161
China,	p. 115
Chio,	p. 53
Cimarra,	p. 47
Circassia,	p. 99
Cochinchina,	p. 118
O 4
Congo,

Congo, p. 143
 Constantinople, p. 55
 Kurdistan, p. 100
 Curland, p. 65
 Cyprus, p. 90

Greece, p. 49
 Grisons, p. 27
 Guinea, p. 137

H.

D.
Dalmatia, p. 47
 Denmark, p. 14

Hanse-Towns, p. 25
 Holy Land, p. 91
 Hungary under the Turks, p. 34
 Imperial Hungary, p. 68

E.

East-Indies, p. 104
 Egypt, p. 127
 England, p. 7
 Europe, p. 6

F.

Fez, p. 133
 Flanders, p. 74
 Florence, p. 78
 France, p. 71, 80
 New France, p. 166

G.

Geneva, p. 71
 Rio di Genovaro, p. 159
 Genoa, p. 76
 Georgia, p. 97
 Germany, p. 65, 81
 Lower Germany, p. 21
 Goa, p. 113
 Granada, p. 162

I.

Japan, p. 125
 Java, p. 112
 Idalcan, &c. p. 107
 Illyria, p. 34
 Ireland, p. 12
 Italy, p. 72

L.

Isles of the Ladrões, p. 115
 Legorn, p. 76
 Livonia, p. 61

M.

Madagascar, p. 146
 Malabar, p. 108
 Malta, p. 77
 Maronites, p. 90
 Maryland, p. 162
 Me-

Melilla, p. 140
Mesopotamia, p. 93
Mexico, p. 170
New Mexico, p. 170
Micone, p. 52
Milo, or Melos, p. 53
Mingrelia, p. 98.
Mogul's Empire, p. 105
Moldavia, p. 38
Monomotapa, p. 147
Morocco, p. 133
Muscovy, p. 29

N.

N Aples, p. 77
Naxia, p. 50
Newfoundland, p. 168
Nigritia, p. 134

O.

O Crida, p. 47
Oyperio, p. 136

P.

P Araguai, p. 161
Paros, p. 50
Persia, p. 94
Peru, p. 151
Philippine Islands, p. 113
Poland, p. 57
Portugal, p. 75

R.

R Omania, p. 55
Rome, p. 78

S.

S Anta Saba, p. 41
Sauterine, p. 52
Scio, or Chio, p. 53
Sciro, p. 51
Scotland, p. 13
Senega, p. 142
Servia, p. 43
Siam, p. 117
Sierra di Leone, p. 134
Sifanto, p. 52
Spain, p. 75
New Spain, p. 170
Sweden, p. 18
Switzerland, p. 26
Syria, p. 92

T.

T Abarca, p. 139
Crim Tartary, p. 33
Termia, p. 53
Terra Firma, p. 163
Thrace, p. 43
Tine, or Teno, p. 51
Tonchin, p. 119
Transilvania, p. 36
Tre-

LINE DECK

Tremissem, Turin,

p. 141
p. 78

 W_c

W

Alachia,

P. 37

U.

V

Ejercicios.

p.164

Venice,

p. 75

Virginia,

p. 167

United Provinces

20

Figures.

p. 69

Z

Z.

P. 53

I N.

INDEX II.

Of the most Remarkable MATTERS.

A.

Altars. Cane taken about Altar-Ornaments, Pag. 44 America. The Great Quarrel about it, between the Kings of Portugal and Castile, and how decided by the Pope, p. 148

B.

Baptism. The Greeks in Moldavia. R. BAPTIZE Catholicks, and think they obtain Pardon of their own Sins, by doing it, P. 40
By Baptism, Children of Turks, brought to the Friars, when they are dying, receive Salvation,
p. 96
Baptism, administered, by the Mingrelians, to Children of Distinction, in Wine, p. 98 Bishops. Sent into Muscovy by the Patriarch of Constantinople, found to be Spies for the Turks, P. 31

C.

Calvin. His Heresy much worse than Luther's, P. 67
Camboja. Here is a very famous Ancient Heathen Temple, P. 119 Church-Lands. Fear of Restoring them, a great Hindrance to the Faith, p. 22
Urban Collage, de propaganda Fide, P. 176

Colleges

Colleges for Foreign Nations, the most proper Means of Propagating the Faith, appointed by Christ, and practised by the Apostles, and Apostolical Men, p. 17

Of the several Colleges in Europe; their Use, their Abuses; and Rules for their Visitation, p. 83

Concubinage allowed by the Greeks, provided a Sum of Money be paid in Lent, p. 40

The Congregation de propaganda Fide. Its State---Revenues---Expences---and all Things relating to it, p. 173, &c.

Coptes. Their Opinions---They have a Church, in which the Blessed Virgin lived 7 Years with our Lord; and an Oven, in which He used to Sleep. They Circumcise, as well as Baptize, p. 128

Curdistan. The Inhabitants Friends to Christians---They drink Wine, calling it the Blood of Jesus---Have no Baptism---Believe Hell not Eternal; and that the Devil shall be saved at last---They will not speak ill of Him---and keep a Black Dog in their Houses, out of Superstition, and Respect to Him, p. 100

D.

THE Devil. Peruvians converse with Him, p. 152

In the Antilles, the Natives worship Him, p. 156

He beats them horribly: but can't touch them after Baptism, ib.

He answers Petitions in Granada, p. 162

In Venezuela, some converse familiarly with Him---By these, who are his Ministers, He opposes and stops the Progress of the Missionaries, p. 165

As Canada, they invoke the Devil---and sacrifice Dogs and Men, whom they roast and eat, p. 166

The

The Mexicans deluded by his Answers, p. 171
St. Dominick let his Beard grow, towards Preaching the Gospel in Tartary; but was prevented by Death, p. 37

E.

Ears. A Nation with Ears a Palm long, p. 119 England. Religious Affairs of it, managed in the Holy Office, for Secresy, p. 19
The whole Conduct of the Design of Reconciling the Church of England to that of Rome, in K. Charles the First's Time, p. 185, &c.

F.

Flanders. The Faith suffers in these Parts, by the War, and particularly by the Dutch Heretick
Soldiers, p. 74
 Franciscan Monks. Their Irregular Behaviour,
 p. 12

G.

Geneva. The Seat of the Worst of all Hereticks.
To be converted only by Arms, p. 71
 Genoa. Too much Liberty for Hereticks here; who Sing Psalms on Ship-board so loud, as to be heard on Shore, p. 76
 Giants. A Nation of them, p. 154 Greeks, educated in the College at Rome, prove the greatest Enemies to the Catholicks, p. 49
One of them forged Writings, to deprive the Catholicks of the Holy Sepulchre, ib.
 Great Number of Greeks in Poland reunited to the Roman Church, p. 57

H. Ha.

- H Anover. Obstinate Hereticks, of this House, p. 17, 66
 Hanse Towns. The most perverse Hereticks in all Germany, in these, p. 25
 Heresy—The Beginning of it, p. 66
 Hidden Hereticks in Catholick Countries, p. 74

- I Dolatries and Superstitions of the Peruvians, p. 152
 —of the Mexicans, p. 172
 Jesuits convert Thousands—No Credit to be given to their Accounts of Themselves, p. 68
 Colleges governed by Jesuits afford no Persons fit for Missionaries, p. 84
 A Jesuit's saying, He was a Brachman, no Lie, p. 104
 The Jesuits in a long open Rebellion against the Pope, and a Damnable Schism, in China, &c. p. 121
 Jesuits, according to Custom, have no Rivals, in a plentiful and delightful Country, p. 156 Innocent. The Pope's taking that Name, a great Mystery, and directed by the Holy Spirit, p. 1
 History of Ten Innocents, Popes, p. 2, &c.
 St. John. Christians of St. John in Arabia, without Sacraments, or Faith: Full of Ridiculous Fables, p. 96, 97

- L Other. His Diabolical Sect, p. 66

- M Alabar. The Christians here, have a great Veneration for the Cross, and pray for Souls in Purgatory—Converted from being Nestorians in a miraculous manner, through the Intercession of St. Thomas the Apostle, their Founder, p. 108
 Mar-

Marriage-Dispensations, in the Second Degree, for all Brasilians that should turn Catholics,

p. 159

Martyrs. An Army of Forty Thousand in Japan,

p. 226

Mogul. Could not be Converted, because he did not understand Popish Mysteries,

p. 106

allows Liberty of Conscience,

ib.

Monks. The Richest, the most relaxed,

p. 10

Obey no Orders from Rome, against their own Interest,

ib.

Muscovite Schismatics, harder to be Converted than Infidels; and the Reasons,

p. 30

Oath of Allegiance in England, an Impious and Heretical Oath,

p. 8

Persians, convinced of the Falsity of the Mahometan Religion, turn Atheists, rather than Roman-Catholics,

p. 96

Quarrels, amongst the several Orders, Missionaries, Bishops, Apostolical Vicars, in several Places, &c. p. 8, 9, 10, 12, 20, 40, 41, 103, 129
A very remarkable Quarrel at Malabar, between an Archdeacon, and the Jesuits, whom he got expelled,

p. 109

Another as remarkable, in China, between the Jesuits, and Bishops sent by the Pope; whom they persecuted, and expelled,

p. 121

Rome. More Liberty for Hereticks here, than any where. Protestant Preachers pick up Scandal here, for their Sermons, &c.

p. 78, 79

Saxony. The Elector's Religion,

p. 22

Schismatics, harder to Convert than Idolaters,

p. 90

Semi-

- Seminary for Missionaries at Paris, p. 88
 Sepulchre. The Holy Sepulchre recover'd from the Greeks, by the Franciscans, with a great Sum of Money paid to the Visitor, p. 91
 Sick Men, forced to be carried to Church, to Receive the Viaticum and Extreme Unction, p. 114
 Sorterers, Many at Cambodia, p. 119
 ---at Congo, p. 144
 Sorcerers amongst the Gentile Priests cannot withstand the Popish Missionaries, the Ministers of God, p. 144
 Sun, worship'd at Capo Verde, p. 141

T.

- Tonchin. Two Kings; a Nominal one, and a Real one, p. 119, 120
 Trade, one of the Diabolical Arts, to undermine the Faith, p. 20
 Travellers grow moderate in Point of Religion, p. 18
 ---Especially by Civil Treatment, p. 19

V. U.

- Venice. Great Liberty for Hereticks here, p. 76
 United Provinces---The Refuge of Apostates. Forge of Mischief. Support of Rebellion, and Heresy, and all Evil, p. 20, 21 Universities. More Divisions in the Heretical Universities, than in any other Places. The most Learned Doctors, and Greatest Wits, in them, may be converted with due Care; and Heresy utterly ruined, p. 26, 27, and p. 194

W.

- Wits. Particular Care to be taken, to Convert Great Wits, p. 26

F I N I S.

8 6

